

Saunders Ball Team Wins Public School Girls' League Championship

Champs Score 36 Tallies in Seven Stanzas—Mason Girls Blame Defeat on Naughty Rain.

It was a bitter battle, but Saunders school won, in scores if not in spirit. For after seven grueling innings the Mason base ball team, composed of girls, was still convinced it might have won had it not rained. The score was 36 to 14, with the Saunders team, also composed of girls, in the lead.

The opposing batteries were Dorothy Manger, pitcher, and Eleanor Clapper, catcher, for Saunders; Mildred Tooser, pitcher, and Jennie Morocco, catcher, for Mason school.

The game opened with Saunders at bat. A tense silence prevailed among the rooters on the sidelines. Pitcher Tooser tossed a wicked curve, and Saunders was able to score but one run. Mason tied the score the same inning.

The third inning was fatal for Mason. Ruth Peterson, the Babe Ruth of the Saunders team, came to bat and knocked out a two-bagger. After that the scorekeeper began to earn her money. Before the inning closed Saunders had made five runs. To add to the disaster for the Masonites their pitcher, Mildred Tooser, sprained her wrist sliding home, and was out of the game several minutes.

Ah, yes, the Mason girls staged a sixth-inning rally. Ruth Hutton, their own Babe Ruth, knocked out a two-bagger. Thus encouraged her teammates began pounding the ball. Five runs were chalked up, then it began to rain and Pitcher Manger gained control of the situation.

Wet Ball Ends Rally. Spit balls were not allowed, but what can one do when the rain wets the ball. Anyway the Mason batters were confused and failed to score again.

As the last Mason girl struck out the large convincing rain drops began to fall more rapidly, and spectators began to flee for shelter. Superintendent of Schools Beveridge and Assistant Superintendent Ryan were among those who fled.

The game was continued 10 minutes more but the Mason rally was broken. Thus did Saunders win the Omaha Public School Girls' league championship. And after all it was a good game, even though there were occasional shouts of "kill the umpire," or something to that effect. Ruth Hutton and Grace Gallagher were ball and base umpires, respectively. Both escaped unscathed.

The game was played yesterday afternoon at Thirty-ninth and Burt streets.

Many Chicagoans are planning to make the trip to Grand Rapids, June 17, to witness the return engagement between Bob Martin and Bob Lopez for the army heavy-eight championship.

"Babe" Ruth Jailed; Gets Out in Time to Play in Ball Game

New York, June 8.—It takes more than a jail sentence to keep Babe Ruth from playing ball. Babe served six hours—a technical day—in the traffic court "pen" today, made a wild dash out of the Polo grounds and played three innings of a winning game against Cleveland.

After paying his $100 for speeding about a week ago, he began serving one day "in confinement" because this was his second offense.

At 4 o'clock, the time for his release approached, the same torpedo roadster that twice led to his arrest, awaited him. He sped away from a cheering crowd with a policeman on the running board to clear the way and Magistrate McGeehan seated beside him to see that he would not be "pinched" again.

He arrived in time to swing a bat in the sixth inning. The crowds in the stands did not recognize him at first. There was a pause, then the crowds rose to their feet and cheered.

Chester Williams is the proudest colored boy in the city, for he has the distinction of being the only man who observed a sentence in the same pen with the hitting champion. Chester said Ruth kept to himself, held a gloomy face "a mile long," and refused even to join in a dice game.
