Will Have Charge Of Boxing Bouts

At a recent meeting of a committee of Douglas county American Legion members, John Kilmar-tin of this city, former soldier, was selected at the legion's choice as boxing 'supervisor for this district. The selection of Kilmartin as district representative will be forwarded to Secretary Antles of the state welfare board. The latter informed the Douglas post committee sometime ago that he would appoint the le-gion's choice for this district. According to the boxing bill, which will become a law July 28, Kil-martin will have charge of all bouts staged in Omaha, as well as this district. It will be his duty to see that no "fake" mills are staged and that boxers are not overmatched. Furthermore, he will issue permits to worthy clubs and will appoint referees, besides looking after the physical examinations of the contestants. M He will not receive any salary.

Laird Holmes Elected

Greyhound Track Leader Yankton, S. D., June 10.-(Spe-cial)-Laird Holmes of Pierre, S. D. will haad the Greyhound cinder artists next year as the result of a recent track captain election. Holmes has been the mainstay of the Greyhounds for the past two years in the distance events. This year at the state meet at Brookings. May 25, Holmes copped first in the half mile, setting up a new state record of 2:04. From present indications, Holmes will head the best track squad next season that the Greyhounds have flad during the past two years.
