

Parents Greet Arrival of 65 Soldier Dead

Civil War Veteran Pins Gold Star to Each Casket While Adjutant's Wife Strews Flowers.

Gold star mothers and fathers greeted the arrival of 65 soldier dead from France yesterday at the Union station. J. M. Buck, veteran of the civil war, pinned a gold star to each flag-draped casket and Mrs. H. C. Hough, wife of the American Legion adjutant, dropped a red rose on each coffin. Soldiers from Fort Crook and Fort Omaha will escort bodies to the homes in neighboring states. Council Bluffs will hold a public funeral service in Baylis park Sunday afternoon, honoring five of the returned heroes.

They are Ivan D. Sweeney, son of Grant Sweeney, 613 Damon street; Ralph M. Davis, son of H. G. Davis, 2112 Avenue B; George McSworley, son of Edward McSworley, 2404 South Ninth; Lieut. Walter M. Stillman, son of W. S. Stillman, 615 Willow avenue; and Albin Grover, son of A. K. Grover, 108 Mount Vernon avenue.

Woman Denies She Lured Holdup Victim

Denial of the charge she was the "bait" to lure Joseph Klemco to a dark street so her husband and his "pal" could rob him, was made by Mrs. Blanche Eldridge, 1712 California street, in District Judge Goss' court yesterday. She admits her husband, Harry Eldridge, and Charles Coleman held up Klemco, but said she had not lured Klemco to the spot. "I was with them behind the bushes and don't know how much money they got," she said. Klemco told police she met him at Seventeenth and California streets late one night and asked him to take her home. "My hands are cold," she said as she put her hands in his pocket, according to Klemco. When he stooped at her request to tie her shoe the men leaped out, he said. Eldridge is already in the penitentiary. Coleman's trial is now on.

Playgrounds Opened
Opening of the municipal playgrounds was announced yesterday by City Commissioner Joe Hummel, in charge of the park department. These playgrounds are located in Elmwood, Miller, Kountze, River-view, Spring Lake, Hanscom, Fairview, Mandan, Fontenelle and Florence parks.

'Have a Heart for City Mission Kiddies,' Today Slogan

A group of City Mission kiddies. Don't they look happy?

This appeal will be made on Omaha streets, Saturday, by several hundred Omaha women and girls, headed by Mrs. N. E. Lpdkie, selling red hearts as tags for the benefit of the well known institution. "Have a heart for the City Mission kiddies."

Mrs. Earle Kiplinger Is Awarded Divorce

Mrs. Gladys Kiplinger was granted a divorce from Earl E. Kiplinger, son of O. D. Kiplinger, wealthy Omaha tobacco man, in district court yesterday. She charged him with cruelty. The decree gives custody of their son, Delmore, 11, to Mrs. Kiplinger, but makes no mention of alimony. They were married June 6, 1906. Mrs. Kiplinger returned recently from California where she spent the winter. Kiplinger declared his marital troubles are a "war catastrophic." He said he "is not the same man since getting out of the army" as he was before.

Robert Oliver Elected Head of Firemen's Relief
The Firemen's Relief association of Omaha elected the following officers at the annual meeting Thursday afternoon: Robert W. Oliver, president; William O'Mara, vice president; William A. Wagner, secretary; Ernest C. Newhouse, treasurer; and Charles W. Coe and Thomas N. Shandy, directors.

Wife, Just From Sunny West, Here Seeking Hubby

Says Mate Disappeared With Baby When Ill Health Forced Her to Leave Omaha.

Juanita Sage, fresh from sunny California, pretty, brown-eyed, and a hint of California's roses (natural) in her cheeks, arrived at the police station yesterday in search of her husband, W. O. Sage, who, she says, deserted her more than two years ago, taking with him their 3-year-old child. Juanita and her relatives live at Glenwood, Ia., where the Sages were married. They lived there some time and then they came to Omaha. W. O. worked in Omaha, but his wage was not large and, in spite of the small baby, Juanita helped out by working downtown. Finally the young mother's health failed and she was forced to go to relatives in California to recuperate. She said, with tears streaming from her eyes, that her husband for a time was faithful in writing, but finally grew negligent and didn't write at all. Now that she has recovered sufficiently to support herself and baby she hopes to locate her husband, obtain the child and then free herself by divorce.

Mrs. Sage left Omaha to continue her search in Council Bluffs, where she said her husband had worked recently.

Three Laundries Closed By Strike at Cheyenne

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Fifty laundry girls struck here and tied up three laundries when wage reduction was announced averaging $8 a week. At a conference with owners the reduction was modified to average $3.50 a week. The girls returned to work at an average pay of $21.50.

The City Mission is Omaha's melting pot. Italian, Syrian, Bohemian, Jewish, Polish, Mexican and colored make up the settlement's patronage. All religions mix with all races. "We do not proselyte, even though we urge Christianization should go hand in hand with Americanization," Miss Mary Anthony, superintendent, emphasizes. Hundreds of little feet patter in and out of the building, day and night.

Captains Dined.
They read, they play, they sew, they practice their music lessons, and go to Sunday school within the City Mission walls. The building is home, school and church, as well as theater to them. There are boys' clubs led by Noble Rodman; girls' clubs by Mrs. C. E. Melton, domestic science classes by Miss Dorothy Griffin and others too numerous to mention. But the institution needs funds to operate. Gould Dietz, who has interested himself for years in the institution, gave a luncheon for captains in the drive at the Fontenelle today, when stations were given out for the big drive tomorrow. Mrs. George A. Roberts will be treasurer.

Acres of Diamonds

Dr. Russell H. Conwell has delivered his lecture, "Acres of Diamonds," more than five thousand times and in book form it has been widely read. It is a wonderful story with a pointed moral and, delivered under the force of his magnetic personality, leaves a lasting impression on the hearer.

A man in the state of Pennsylvania became infatuated with diamonds and obsessed with a desire for their possession. Mortgaging his farm, he went to South Africa in quest of a diamond mine. Failing in his search, after innumerable hardships, he was forced to work his way home. Upon his arrival he was amazed at receiving an offer of a fabulous amount of money for his mortgaged farm. A thick vein of coal—black diamonds—had been discovered on his farm and that which he had traveled so far to find had all the time been right under his feet, if he had but dug for it.

There are many Help Yourself Club members like the chap in Dr. Conwell's lecture. What a great opportunity right here at home for those who "dig in." Unlike the Pennsylvanian, no one is coming to offer them the equivalent of one of the awards with a value running into the thousands of dollars, but, like him, they can "dig in" and secure one.

Some members have made a good start, but— Well, let's forget how foolish we have been. With the good start we made, there is still ample opportunity to get back into line for an award if we but determine to do our utmost. With the 50,000 Extra Vote Offer still in effect, we can run up a big score of votes before the close of the campaign and resume the place we should have held.

Your "Acres of Diamonds" are right at your door if you will but "dig in."

Great is the opportunity—greatest for those who realize that awards worth thousands of dollars are worth the hard work. Effort will get Bee subscriptions. Bee subscriptions will get votes. Votes will get Help Yourself Club Awards. Let's "dig in."
