

Council Bluffs Society

Bridal Affairs.
A very popular bride-to-be is Miss Elsie Tinley, whose marriage to Folsom Everest will be a social event of the week.

On Tuesday Mrs. Arthur Mayne entertained at an afternoon bridge for Miss Tinley, the guests numbering 10. Mrs. Bernard Reno had high score, Miss Lorene Hammel won the "cut-for-all" and the honor guest received a prize.

Wednesday morning a breakfast was given at the Country club by Mrs. Glen Wilcox and Mrs. Richard Bennett of Lincoln, complimentary to this June bride. Delphinium combined with Queen Anne's lace made an attractive table piece and the places of the 22 guests were marked with corsage bouquets of Russell roses.

Mrs. Eldon Lougee entertained at a beautiful luncheon Friday for Miss Tinley, and that evening she and her fiancé were honored with a dinner of nine covers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Damon.

As a compliment to this feted young lady, the Misses Irene Kintz and Beatrice Tinley were hostesses at a morning bridge Saturday, followed by a luncheon at the Country club.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brainerd entertained at bridge for Miss Tinley and Mr. Everest at the Brainerd home. Their guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Eldred Hart, Harry Menold, Bernard Reno, Henry Jennings, Roy Garner, George Spooner, Des Moines, Ia.; Misses Elsie Tinley, Beatrice Tinley and Marian Turner; Messrs. Folsom Everest and Erskine Mitchell.

Tomorrow evening a dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everest for their son and his fiancé, and the following day the wedding will be solemnized.

Mrs. George Spooner, nee Miss Gertrude Tinley of Des Moines, Ia., and Mr. Spooner, arrived last week and will be at the Tinley home until after Tuesday.

Bridge Series.

The third in a series of bridge parties planned by Mrs. W. V. Mayne was given Thursday afternoon at her home on Grace street.

At bridge Mrs. Karl Kehrler won the high score prize and Mrs. W. E. Ash the consolation.

The following guests were present: Mesdames Fred Baumeister, Clarence Emptick, Scott Covatt, Robert Organ, C. I. Palm, A. V. Hennessy, M. C. Hennessy, J. I. Kehler, Edith Beardsley, Karl Kehrler, W. E. Ash and her guest, Miss Irma Townsend of Atlantic, Ia.

Dinner.

A beautiful dinner of 10 covers was given by Dr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae at their home Wednesday evening.

Pink roses, marguerites and blue delphinium made a charming centerpiece, and pink candles in crystal candlesticks were used on the corners of the table.

Tea.

One of the largest of the summer functions was the tea given last Tuesday by Mrs. Mathew A. Tinley, who received over 200 guests during the afternoon. Quantities of garden flowers and asparagus fern made the rooms most attractive and inviting.

Assisting the hostess in the parlors, dining room and at the punch bowl were Mesdames Donald Macrae, John Galvin, Angeline Brindsmid, J. A. Clark, E. A. Wickham, W. S. Rigdon, Dillon Ross, Grant Augustine, Frank Keeline, William Maurer, Edward Schoentgen, Robert Wallace, R. C. Williams, Pusey McGee and Harold Ross. Misses Ruth and Dorothy Felt, Margaret Keeline, Mittie Pile, Jane Schoentgen, Dorris Ross and Agnes Wickham.

Bridge.

Mrs. I. B. Rohrer entertained five tables of guests at bridge Wednesday afternoon at her home on Sixth avenue.

Mrs. Caroline R. Theinhardt won the prize for high score and Mrs. A. E. Brock the cut-for-all.

For Mesdames Brainerd and Clark.

Honoring Mrs. Howard Brainerd and Mrs. Ruth Clark of Omaha who leave soon to make their home in California, the members of the Kintz club, to which these matrons belong, gave a picnic at Elmwood park Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Ash Entertains.

Mrs. W. E. Ash invited 16 friends to meet her house guest, Miss Irma Townsend of Atlantic, Ia., Wednesday, and the afternoon was spent with bridge.

The high score prize was awarded Mrs. J. A. Clark and Miss Dorothy Felt received the consolation.

Friday Bridge Club.

A new schedule has been inaugurated by the Friday Bridge club and during the summer months meetings will be held at the lake instead of at the homes of the different members. Mrs. Don Waller and Mrs. W. A. Cutler were the hostesses last week, and following luncheon at the Country club cafe the afternoon was devoted to bridge, tables being arranged in the club house.

Personals.

Mrs. F. D. Farmer is visiting in Beatrice, Neb.

Mrs. W. E. Ash leaves today to visit relatives in Atlantic, Ia.

Miss Theda Beresheim has returned from California where she spent the winter.

Mrs. E. A. Wickham and son, Bernard, returned early in the week from Mason City, Ia., where they Delphian Society of Genoa Closes Season.

The Delphian Society of Genoa recently closed its first year's work with a reception at the home of Mrs. Homer Davis, with the Current Events club of Genoa and the Delphian chapter of St. Edward as guests.

The Delphian colors, black and gold with a background of green, were used in the decorations. The chapter presented "The Pageant of Early Nations," in costumes typical of each nation, showing their contributions to the civilization of today. The pageant was a dramatic review of the year's work, from the scene of the cave man and his family to Egypt, Babylonia, Assyria, Phoenicia, Persia, Palestine, Greece, Rome and Charlemagne.

Music was furnished by Mesdames D. A. Willard, W. J. Welch, Faye Olson and Miss Eileen Ceder.

Tea was served following the program.

THE DR. BENJ. F. BAILEY SANATORIUM Lincoln, Neb.

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own grounds, yet entirely distinct, and rendering it possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of noncontagious and nonmental diseases, no others being admitted; the other Rest Cottage being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases requiring for a time watchful care and special nursing.

HOW I INCREASED MY BEAUTY

And Astonished my Friends by an Amazing Beauty Secret of Old Egypt.

At last I found it—the thing for which I had searched for twenty years. If Cleopatra used anything like this old Egyptian beauty secret it is no wonder that she so completely captivated Caesar and Mark Anthony when you consider her other charms. I shall never forget the first night I use Kijia—I was going to the theater and wanted, of course, to look my best. My face was considerably wrinkled and I had a number of rather bad complexion blemishes, which I had been trying to get rid of for years and the skin on my neck and back was coarse and somewhat itchy. I tried Kijia with but little hope. But in five minutes after I applied it I was astonished at the change in my appearance. My skin looked soft and smooth and my neck and arms presented a beautiful soft white appearance and they looked so natural too—no made-up look—and best of all I appeared so much younger it seemed almost as if I were but a few years older. In five minutes' time, my friends were surprised. Several asked what I had been doing. I looked so much better and more youthful—they all wanted to know my secret. At first I did not tell them as I knew and I feel it has done so much for me that I ought to let its merits be known to every woman. By request the name of the writer of the above is withheld, but you can try Kijia on an absolute guarantee that if it does not produce successful and satisfactory results in every case, in three days' time the manufacturer will refund your money. Your dealer will give you each box of Kijia a valuable booklet entitled "How to Increase Your Beauty—Secrets and Arts of Fascination employed by Cleopatra, the greatest enchantress of all time or if you are not wish to purchase Kijia, a copy of this booklet will be given you anyway. After using Kijia we shall be thankful if you will write what it does for you for publication—your name will not be used. Kijia (pronounced Kee-sha) a remarkable beauty secret of old Egypt is for sale in this city by all leading department stores and drug stores.

HELP YOURSELF CLUB

KEEP AT IT

In just two weeks from last night, the Help Yourself Club Campaign will be a thing of the past and 32 members will have been made very happy through winning awards valued at $29,475.00. During the first of these two weeks, from June 13 to June 18, the 50,000 Extra Vote Offer is in effect. During the second week, from June 20 to June 25, there are no extra votes given. Subscriptions turned in before Saturday night, June 18, are worth 2,000 more votes on the dollar than subscriptions turned in during the last week of the campaign.

With so many of the members running neck and neck, it is imperative that members keep at it. Don't take it for granted that you have the best of the other members. You have put in some hard work and it would indeed be deplorable if you were to miss out on one of the big awards, just because you failed to utilize every opportunity during the last week when subscriptions had a big value. Keep at it. If you slack up for a day or an hour, you are just that much behind. Make every hour mean votes. The members who keep at it will secure the awards.
