Buttaloes Trim Joplin in First Game of Series---Doubleheader this Afternoon

Burch Allows Visitors Four Hits, Wins 4-0

O'Brien's Fielding and Home Run Feature of Game-Two Contests On Card Today.

'Tis a sad, sad story, pardner, the defeat handed the Joplin Miners yesterday afternoon at the Fifteenth and street park. It all came about when Barney Burch and his slow ball took the mound." The Buffalo manager delivered his wares with such telling effect that the visi-tors from down Missouri way fell all over themselves trying to swing at the sphere as it zig-zagged from hill-top to Catcher Cyrus Lingle. As a result of all this fuss the locals trotted off the field with a 4 to 0

It might be said at this particular part of the yarn that Omaha landed back in fouth position in the standings as a result of its victory and Sioux City's defeat by Wichita, The box score follows:
