

Omaha Woman, Now Movie Star, Obtains Divorce

"My Husband Was Tired of Married Life," Mrs. Anson Told Court at Los Angeles.

Word that Mrs. Laura Anson, beautiful movie player and a well-known social leader in Omaha, obtained a divorce from her husband, Dr. John F. Anson, in Los Angeles, was received in Omaha yesterday. "My husband was tired of married life," Mrs. Anson testified before Judge Summerfield, according to the information received. Both Dr. and Mrs. Anson were popular in society in Omaha. They had a beautiful home at 5010 Chicago street. They were members of the Field club and took active part in social gatherings here. Less than two years ago, Dr. Anson went to California. His wife followed in an effort to effect a reconciliation. While awaiting the decision of her husband, Mrs. Anson obtained work in the movies. She has appeared in several big productions. She was recently shown in a prominent role in "Sweet Lavender," which played at the Sun theater. She plans to continue her screen career, she says. Whether Dr. Anson will return to Omaha has not been learned. He was connected with the Taft Dental parlors while living here. Mrs. Anson is a striking brunette, of plump build and beautiful tanned complexion.

Man Who Shot Wife at Movie Begs to See Her

Harry McCauley, 923 South Twentieth street, who shot his wife in a local movie theater last Saturday night, was brought back from Iowa yesterday and placed in the city jail. The county attorney will charge him with shooting with intent to wound and shooting with intent to kill. McCauley insists that his wife wronged him. He pleaded to be taken to see her at the Wise Memorial hospital.

Tots Suffering Here as Acutely As in Asia Minor

There Is Need Right in Omaha for Relief for Children And Babies in Poverty-Stricken Homes.

Millions of dollars were subscribed to relieve the suffering of poverty-stricken children in Europe. Thousands of good American women are still knitting sweaters and other wearing apparel for the ragged waifs across the Atlantic. Yet right here in Omaha there is suffering among children and tiny babies, just as acute suffering as in Europe or in Asia Minor. At heart we are buck passers. We drift on, counting on someone else to do what we know is our duty. YOU ARE AS MUCH RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LIVES OF OMAHA BABIES IN POVERTY-STRICKEN HOMES AS ANY OTHER ONE PERSON! Any physician will tell you babies suffer more during the hot summer days than at any other time. They also will tell you ice-cooled milk is the one thing which will relieve them. The Bee's Free Milk and Ice fund was established to bring relief to these tots. Subscriptions asked are not large. The limit is $5. All subscriptions will be acknowledged. Subscriptions are as follows: Previously acknowledged $79.00 C. A. Baker 1.00 W. Bondas 5.00 Irvin H. Millard 5.00 Total $90.00

Judge Wade To Sit In Woodmen's Suit

Federal Judge Martin J. Wade of the southern Iowa district, will come to Omaha Saturday to hear the suit of Texas and Missouri members of the Woodmen of the World against W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander of the organization. Judge Woodrough ruled himself disqualified to hear the case because he is a policy-holder in the order. The plaintiffs in the suit seek to enjoin Mr. Fraser from being chairman at the organization's national convention in New York.

Fumes Overcome Plumber Who Cuts Into Gas Pipe

Michael Lynch, plumber, 2218 Pacific street, was overcome by gas fumes yesterday when he accidentally cut into a gas pipe in the basement of a house at 1028 South Twenty-fifth street, where he was doing repair work. Lynch was working in a trench in the basement. The sudden rush of gas fumes soon overcame him and he fell prostrate to the bottom of the trench. Roomers in the house found him and called police surgeons who succeeded in reviving him and took him home. He will recover.

Youth Shot by Ex-Officer Is Removed to His Home

Clifton Hannon, 3324 Jones street, one of the victims of former Detective John Herdzina's bullets April 9, was removed from the Ford hospital to his home Tuesday following a second delicate operation on his brain. He failed to recover fully after the first operation for the removal of a bullet that pierced his skull.

Fortune Is Left To Omaha Girl

Louise Heitfeld Will See World On Interest of Bequest From Uncle.

Miss Louise Heitfeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heitfeld, 2019 Pinkney street, has inherited one-third of the estate of her uncle, Fred Rawitser, who died in Chicago last Friday. The estate is estimated to be worth between $100,000 and $150,000, according to information received by Miss Heitfeld from the Illinois Trust company. Mr. Rawitser was 60 years old and the retired head of the South Acton Woolen Mills at South Acton, Mass. He was a brother of Mrs. Heitfeld and regarded Miss Heitfeld as his favorite niece. Mrs. Heitfeld and her other two children, Fred Heitfeld and Bertha DeLaney of Belgrade, Neb., also will share in the estate. Miss Heitfeld, who is employed at the Edison Shop, 313 South Fifteenth street, stated that she expected to use the interest on her little fortune for travel.

Court Dockets Cleared of All Court House Riot Cases

County Attorney Shotwell has wiped the slate clean of all criminal cases growing out of the court house riot of September 28, 1919. Six out of 22 men tried were convicted, 11 acquitted and in five cases juries disagreed. Claude Nethaway and George Davis each were tried twice with disagreements. Davis was charged with assaulting Mayor Smith.

Asks Court to Give Her Waif Found in Her Hall

Mrs. C. R. Tate, 2604 Davenport street, formally applied to district court yesterday for legal possession of the 3-months-old waif she found in her front hall two months ago. The infant has been cared for at the University hospital where it has thrived under the treatment of a proper food formula. Mrs. Tate changed the name of the baby from "Helene" to "Edna Gertrude," the former having been suggested by the mother who abandoned the infant.

Dodge Street Paving Bids Higher Than Two Years Ago

New bids for the paving of streets and alleys affected by the Dodge hill grading show that the American Paving corporation is low with a price of $4.69, as against a low bid of $3.99 offered by the J. J. Parks company two years ago last month. The increased cost for this district in two years amounts to nearly $14,000, based on an estimate of 19,740 yards of paving.

Brief City News

In Receiver's Hands—John V. Austin of Omaha was appointed receiver for Fred R. Osborne, merchant, yesterday in federal court by the referee in bankruptcy. Talks to Nurses—Sara B. Place, superintendent of infant welfare work for the city of Chicago, addressed the Visiting Nurses association yesterday noon at the University club. She urged the promotion of infant work even before babies are born. Drake Estate $550,000—Vincent C. Hascall, appraiser, filed a report yesterday in county court, showing the valuation of the estate of the late Luther Drake to be $555,000. The will leaves all except a few small bequests to the widow, Grace Drake, 3910 Harney street. Gives Insurance "Dope"—Charles F. Schwager, of the American Life Stock Insurance company, gave his brother Rotarians the "inside dope" on stock insurance at a meeting of the club at the Hotel Rome yesterday. Ray Kingsley presided as chairman. Out on Bond—James Hayek, 19, who went gunning for a man who is said to have married a 15-year-old Mary Hayek, was released from the city jail on bond. Police learned yesterday that Charles Bolls, 1220

South Twelfth street, who married the girl, went to Ainsworth, Neb., with his child-wife.

Seeks Reinstatement—Police Commissioner Dunn, commenting on the Herdzina case yesterday, stated that the only charge he had against the detective now under suspension was that his reinstatement to the police department would be against "the good of the service." Herdzina wants to return to the department. Ask Boost of Pensions—H. C. Cook, retired sergeant of police, has requested Police Commissioner Dunn to take an interest in the proposition of placing seven retired members of the police department on a basis which will give them pensions of half of last salary received, instead of a flat $50 a month, as provided for in the old law.

Short-Weight Ice Is Sold, City Inspector Is Told

W. S. Metcalf, city inspector of weights and measures, is receiving complaints from citizens who report short-weight ice deliveries. "A woman advised me this morning that she paid for 25 pounds and received 19 pounds," said Mr. Metcalf. "I am going to make an effort to require ice men to observe the law with respect to the use of scales instead of the hit-and-miss method."
