wells are being worked under a trustee.

The Honolula Oil company owned and was working the land when President Taft set the reserve aside. The company contined to claim title under the mining laws and applied for a patent. The commissioner of the general land office held that the company was entitled to patent but Navy department, through the Department of Justice, objected and Secretary of the Interior Payne denied the patent.

Riddick bought the plane, a standard, from the Dayton-Wright company for $3,000. He flew passengers for a time in Texas and about two months ago started for Chicago. He earned "gas" money by giving passengers a "hop" for anything they'd stand for and arrived in Chicago.

With eight gallons of gas and no money he left Chicago. The gas gave out at Gary, Ind. nied the patent.

Secretary Fall was recently requested by the company to reopen the case and he granted the present oral hearing in which the Depart-ment of Justice is represented by Special Attorney C. D. Hamel, San Francisco, and the oil company by its officials and attorneys.
