All women golfers who have entered the tourney and who have been elim-inated, will be given another chance to win a prize, Charlie Johnston, man-ager of the tournament, has arranged a special competition to be held after the semi-finals are played.

Caddles are loyal to their employers. And thereby hangs a tale—Mrs. Sprague's caddle just knew she would win. Galloping in from the 10th hole, he yelled to one of his friends: "WE won, Tommy, WE won." Mrs. Sprague smiled and promised to engage the lad for today's play.

Mrs. Luther Larson of Fremont, who isst her match yesterday to Mrs. Ross P. Curtire of Lincoln had to leave Omaha Monday night for Fremont. She returned early yesterday morning by auto so that she could play.

Two out-state players broke their midirons yesterday, Mrs. Curtice of Lincoln won her play, but Mrs. N. C. Johnston of Fremont lost.

even Hastings can't stop 'em. When the news reached Minden that When the news reached Minden that the Hastings Legionaires had defeated the much-touted Giltner nine, some of the local fans were a little dublous as to the outcome of today's battle with Johnnis Fox and his gang, but, as later evenis proved, their fears were groundless, and they came out in the end at the long end of a? to 5 score.

Without a doubt, the features the street of the street was the street of game were the three homers his by Min-den siuggers, especially the first one by Rasmussen, which landed in the road a good distance across the left field fence, with Streek standing a little ways from with Streck standing a little ways from the fence looking sorrowfully after it. The aecond homer was made in the next inning by McCoy, who put one out past Peterson in center, and which was yet on the upward way when it sailed over him. Robb's circuit drive to left was not quite as long as Rasmussen's, clearing the fence on the first bound, but it counted better for the home boys, with two men on bases.

Milligan, 0; Bruning, 4. Bruning, June 21.—(Special.)—Brun-ing's air-tight ball, aided by numerous errors on the part of the visitors, result-ed in defeat for Milligan at Bruning park Sunday, The score: Philadelphia, June 21.—Hits by C. Walker and J. Walker, following a pass to Welch, won for Philadelphia today in the 15th, by 7 to 5.

Washington scored on B. Harris, error and Gharrity's double in the 14th, but with Perk's on third in the latter half, Brazill made a dash for second, causing Bruning, Atwood and Schulte.
