

Dan Gaines, State Bank Chief, Dies

Fever in Philippines During Spanish-American War Indirect Cause of Sudden Death of Financier.

Was Ill Only Two Hours

Dan W. Gaines, 47, vice president of the State Bank of Omaha, receiver of the Pioneer State bank, and former owner of the Merchants hotel in this city, died yesterday afternoon following an illness of only two hours at his home, 528 South Fifty-second street.

Omaha Bank Official Who Died Suddenly

Dan W. Gaines

House of Lords Resumes Debate On Irish Tangle

Consensus of Opinion Is That Government Proposals Made So Far Will Not Solve Problem.

London, June 22.—The House of Lords today resumed debate on the Irish situation adjourned from June 16. Lord Salisbury blamed the government for its failure to postpone the elections in the south. He said the elections had simply provided an opportunity for the Irish people to declare in favor of a republic, for moderate opinion was controlled by extreme opinion.

Was Foot Ball Star

Mr. Gaines was born in Galesburg, Ill. He attended school and college there and later was a student at Iowa university, where he won a reputation as a foot ball star and athlete. At the beginning of the Spanish-American war he volunteered with the First Iowa regiment and served in the Philippines.

Opponents of Lumber Duty Pin Hopes on Favorable Majority

Washington, June 22.—Opponents of a duty on lumber pinned their hopes today on a possibility that a majority of the republican membership of the house may direct the ways and means committee to allow it to remain on the free list.

Speculators Ousted From Municipal Market Stalls

Speculators occupying street stalls owned by the city on Jackson and Eleventh streets, have been rudely ousted, according to City Commissioner Butler.

Beer Regulations Soon To Receive Consideration

Washington, June 22.—Announcing today that he would consider as soon as possible regulations permitting the use of beer for medicinal purposes, Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair said he did not believe the bureau should wait indefinitely on congressional action on anti-beer legislation. The beer regulations are now before Mr. Blair.

Vanderlip Reaches New York With More Red Concessions

New York, June 22.—Washington B. Vanderlip arrived today on the Olympic stating that he had received more concessions from the Russian soviet government. These, he said, comprised two bases which might be used for naval purposes—one in Avatcha Bay, within 24 hours of the Japanese coast and two days from Japan, and the other in Oil Cove harbor, near Vladivostok.

Communists Cannot Join Labor Party of England

Brighton, England, June 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—The British labor party at its conference here today rejected a proposal introduced by the radical wing to allow the communist party to affiliate with the labor party.

Gen. C. H. Taylor, Editor of Boston Globe Dies at Home

Boston, June 22.—Gen. Charles H. Taylor, editor and publisher of the Boston Globe, died at his home today. He had been fairly active until recently, but two shocks within a week of each other preceded the end. He was 75 years old.

U. S. Is Not Informed on Jap Treaty

Secretary of State Denies Report Great Britain Has Promised Special Consideration.

Not Expected By Hughes

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Licensed Wire. Washington, June 22.—Great Britain has not consulted the United States on the question of renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, has given no assurance of special consideration of American interests involved therein, has not informed Washington of the progress of the negotiations and has not been expected by the Harding administration to do any of these things.

House of Lords Resumes Debate On Irish Tangle

Consensus of Opinion Is That Government Proposals Made So Far Will Not Solve Problem.

London, June 22.—The House of Lords today resumed debate on the Irish situation adjourned from June 16. Lord Salisbury blamed the government for its failure to postpone the elections in the south. He said the elections had simply provided an opportunity for the Irish people to declare in favor of a republic, for moderate opinion was controlled by extreme opinion.

Police on Guard

Police lines were drawn several blocks north and south of the pier entrance. Not even when Woodrow Wilson returned from the peace conference were more thorough preparations made.

Opponents of Lumber Duty Pin Hopes on Favorable Majority

Washington, June 22.—Opponents of a duty on lumber pinned their hopes today on a possibility that a majority of the republican membership of the house may direct the ways and means committee to allow it to remain on the free list.

Speculators Ousted From Municipal Market Stalls

Speculators occupying street stalls owned by the city on Jackson and Eleventh streets, have been rudely ousted, according to City Commissioner Butler.

Beer Regulations Soon To Receive Consideration

Washington, June 22.—Announcing today that he would consider as soon as possible regulations permitting the use of beer for medicinal purposes, Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair said he did not believe the bureau should wait indefinitely on congressional action on anti-beer legislation. The beer regulations are now before Mr. Blair.

Vanderlip Reaches New York With More Red Concessions

New York, June 22.—Washington B. Vanderlip arrived today on the Olympic stating that he had received more concessions from the Russian soviet government. These, he said, comprised two bases which might be used for naval purposes—one in Avatcha Bay, within 24 hours of the Japanese coast and two days from Japan, and the other in Oil Cove harbor, near Vladivostok.

Communists Cannot Join Labor Party of England

Brighton, England, June 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—The British labor party at its conference here today rejected a proposal introduced by the radical wing to allow the communist party to affiliate with the labor party.

Gen. C. H. Taylor, Editor of Boston Globe Dies at Home

Boston, June 22.—Gen. Charles H. Taylor, editor and publisher of the Boston Globe, died at his home today. He had been fairly active until recently, but two shocks within a week of each other preceded the end. He was 75 years old.

Live Stock Shippers Hearing Set for July 15

Washington, June 22.—Petitions of live stock shippers and others for reduction of freight rates on live stock was set today by the Interstate Commerce commission for oral argument July 15. The commission had been told that freight rates amounted to as high as 19.2 per cent of the selling price on cattle shipped from Montana to Chicago, according to a statement by John E. Benton, counsel for the National Association of State Railway commissioners, who represents the state commissions in the case.

Sims Arrives at New York; Leaves For Washington

New York, June 22.—Rear Admiral Sims returned home today to explain to Secretary Denby remarks attributed to him in his recent London speech on Irish-Americans.

Rear Admiral, Called Home by Secretary Denby to Explain Remarks, Carefully Guarded at Pier.

Police on Guard. Police lines were drawn several blocks north and south of the pier entrance. Not even when Woodrow Wilson returned from the peace conference were more thorough preparations made.

Six Boats Are Sunk by Storm Sweeping Gulf

Hurricane Along Texas Reported Moving Inland—No Loss of Life Is Reported.

Corpus Christi, Tex., June 22.—Six boats, including one large shipping board tanker, sank at Port Arkansas early today, according to information received tonight.

Train Crashes Into Auto Truck

Two Youth Escape Miraculously in Crash at Railroad Crossing.

Two youths escaped serious injury and possible death miraculously yesterday afternoon when a Missouri Pacific freight train crashed into an automobile truck in which they were riding at Thirty-third and Pratt streets.

League Hopes World Court Will Go Into Effect in September

Geneva, June 22.—(By The Associated Press.) The league of nations council is proceeding with arrangements for the installation of the permanent international court of justice, in full confidence that sufficient ratifications will be received to put the plan into effect before the assembly meets in September.

Says Shipment of Cows To Germany Was Mistake

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 22.—(Special.)—The recent large shipment of cows to Germany was a mistake, according to Henry Wotstock, a McCook county man, who accompanied the shipment overseas. He has returned to his home with a story of the trip.

Sub Plying Between U.S. and Ireland, Charge

New York, June 22.—Two submarines flying the Irish republican flag maintain an undersea passenger service between this country and Ireland for officials and agents of the Irish republic, according to Capt. B. J. Shanley, wounded veteran of the 69th regiment of New York. He is also secretary of the New York council of the American Association for the recognition of the Irish republic.

Station Is Robbed

Yankton, S. D., June 22.—Robbers who raided the Midway station in Yankton early today stole seven sacks of first-class mail. Its value is not known.

Another Hit

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Licensed Wire. Washington, June 22.—Developments today disclosed that the administration has met defeat in all its major contentions for an adequate national defense program before the onslaughts of economy-bent congressmen. Efforts to prevent a return to the state of unpreparedness preceding the war with Germany have been unavailing.

House Wins Fight For Small Army

Indignant Protests of Administration Fail to Stop Sharp Cut in Appropriation.

Harding May Use Veto

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Licensed Wire. Washington, June 22.—Developments today disclosed that the administration has met defeat in all its major contentions for an adequate national defense program before the onslaughts of economy-bent congressmen. Efforts to prevent a return to the state of unpreparedness preceding the war with Germany have been unavailing.

Two Soldiers Killed in Fight With Bandits

Laredo, Tex., June 22.—Two soldiers from the garrison at Nuevo Laredo were killed and four others wounded in a fight late yesterday near Huisachillo with 75 bandits under the command of Colonel Delgado and Luis Manero, according to reports today.

Indictments Against 'Big Tim' Murphy and 10 Others Expected

Chicago, June 22.—True bills are expected to be voted by the grand jury tomorrow against "Big Tim" Murphy and 10 of the men connected with him in the $350,000 Dearborn street station robbery. The bills will carry three counts—conspiracy to rob, robbery and possession of securities and valuables stolen from United States mails.

Increased Postal Rates Go Into Effect July 1

Washington, June 22.—By a vote of 11 to 1, the house postoffice committee tabled today the Longworth resolution to postpone the increase in second-class postal rates effective July 1. The resolution also proposed an investigation of second-class rates. The committee's action means that the measure will not go to the house.

Nomination of Kinler Is Confirmed by Senate

Washington, June 22.—The nomination of James C. Kinler of Omaha to be district attorney for Nebraska was confirmed today by the senate.

Board to Determine Today Location of Reformatory

Lincoln, June 22.—(Special.)—L. C. Oberlies, chairman of the state board of control, announced today that a decision on the location of the $300,000 reformatory, or fresh-man prison, would be announced by the board tomorrow. Representative Fred Hoffmeister of Chase county called on the board today to push the application of Ogallala for the prison.

Ship Loses Propeller

Houston, Tex., June 22.—The steamer William Doherty has lost a propeller in the gulf and has asked for help. An S. O. S. call was received by radio at Fort Brown as follows: "Propeller lost in storm off Cape Cavallo. Send help as soon as possible." Cape Cavallo is off the southern end of Matagorda island.

House Wins Fight For Small Army

Indignant Protests of Administration Fail to Stop Sharp Cut in Appropriation.

Harding May Use Veto

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Licensed Wire. Washington, June 22.—Developments today disclosed that the administration has met defeat in all its major contentions for an adequate national defense program before the onslaughts of economy-bent congressmen. Efforts to prevent a return to the state of unpreparedness preceding the war with Germany have been unavailing.

Two Soldiers Killed in Fight With Bandits

Laredo, Tex., June 22.—Two soldiers from the garrison at Nuevo Laredo were killed and four others wounded in a fight late yesterday near Huisachillo with 75 bandits under the command of Colonel Delgado and Luis Manero, according to reports today.

Indictments Against 'Big Tim' Murphy and 10 Others Expected

Chicago, June 22.—True bills are expected to be voted by the grand jury tomorrow against "Big Tim" Murphy and 10 of the men connected with him in the $350,000 Dearborn street station robbery. The bills will carry three counts—conspiracy to rob, robbery and possession of securities and valuables stolen from United States mails.

Increased Postal Rates Go Into Effect July 1

Washington, June 22.—By a vote of 11 to 1, the house postoffice committee tabled today the Longworth resolution to postpone the increase in second-class postal rates effective July 1. The resolution also proposed an investigation of second-class rates. The committee's action means that the measure will not go to the house.

Nomination of Kinler Is Confirmed by Senate

Washington, June 22.—The nomination of James C. Kinler of Omaha to be district attorney for Nebraska was confirmed today by the senate.

Board to Determine Today Location of Reformatory

Lincoln, June 22.—(Special.)—L. C. Oberlies, chairman of the state board of control, announced today that a decision on the location of the $300,000 reformatory, or fresh-man prison, would be announced by the board tomorrow. Representative Fred Hoffmeister of Chase county called on the board today to push the application of Ogallala for the prison.

Ship Loses Propeller

Houston, Tex., June 22.—The steamer William Doherty has lost a propeller in the gulf and has asked for help. An S. O. S. call was received by radio at Fort Brown as follows: "Propeller lost in storm off Cape Cavallo. Send help as soon as possible." Cape Cavallo is off the southern end of Matagorda island.

Forecast

Forecast table with columns for Hourly Temperature and temperature readings for various times of the day.

The Weather

Forecast. Fair Thursday, not much change in temperature. Hourly Temperature. 6 a. m. 72, 7 p. m. 77, 8 a. m. 74, 8 p. m. 79, 9 a. m. 76, 9 p. m. 81, 10 a. m. 78, 10 p. m. 83, 11 a. m. 80, 11 p. m. 85, noon 82, 1 p. m. 87.

Packers' Request to Make Wage Cut at Once Refused at Hearing

Chicago, June 22.—Hearings on the petition of the larger packers for a wage reduction of 5c an hour affecting approximately 75,000 employees were begun today before Federal Judge Samuel A. Schuler, arbiter.

Nebraska Youth Member Of Missing Tug's Crew

Washington, June 22.—The names of the four officers and 49 enlisted men aboard the tug Conestoga were made public today by Secretary Denby, who said he still refused to abandon hope that the tug or her company would be found. She sailed from Mare Island, March 25, for Samoa, via Pearl Harbor, and no word has been heard from her since despite a thorough search of Pacific waters.

Police Reserves Called To Quell Riot of Bathers

Chicago, June 22.—Police reserves were called to quell a disturbance at a bathing beach that resulted when Mrs. Mary Burner accused a life guard of having made a remark derogatory to the Jews and is alleged to have attempted to hit him with a hammer. A policeman attempted to arrest her and scores of bathers went to her rescue.

Arrest 8 in Belfast

Belfast, June 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—The police in the Upper Falls district of this city, heard firing in that area today, pursued eight men they suspected and captured three of them, who were found to have ammunition in their possession.

The Itinerant Lover

By May Edginton

schoolgirl innocence and southern impetuosity! That was Roberta. And Faraday's susceptible heart was, for the moment, free :: ::

Blue Ribbon Fiction The Sunday Bee