Kimball Banker Says Railroad Discriminates

Tells State Commission That Union Pacific Rates on Wheat Transportation Favor Kansas City.

Lincoln, June 22.-(Special.)-Discrimination of the Union Pacific in freight rates favoring Kansas City. Mo., and working injury to Omaha and Nebraska towns is charged in a letter received today by the State Railway commission from W. S. Rodman, cashier of the American

State bank at Kimball, Neb. In his letter, Rodman declares that the Union Pacific is charging 21.6 cents per bushel for shipping wheat from Kimball to Omaha, a distance of 442 miles. Then, he states, that the same railroad is charging 15.9 cents per bushel for shipping wheat from Chemung, Colo., to Kansas City, Mo., a distance of 448 miles. Rodman tells the commission that the alleged favoritism has thrown ball into a frenzy and demands action that will result in more equitable freight rates. Walter Hogue of the Farmers' Grain, Coal and Live Stock association, in a letter to the commission demands that an order be issued forcing the St. Joseph and Grand Island railway to repair its cattle pens at Anan, Neb. Henry Jorgensen, secretary of the Farmers' Union Shipping association, demands that the commission order the station agent at St. Paul, Neb., to cease fattening his own hogs in the cattle pens there.

The commission today issued an order permitting the Hamilton County Telephone company to continue charging its present rates for six months in 1921. The commission received a letter today from the Southern Nebraska Power company of Superior notifying it that the company had appealed to the supreme court from the commission's ruling which held that the

Wants New Furniture For the New City Jail

The Omaha police department is ready to move into its new jail house vet there is a hitch in the program. Instead of new furniture to go with the new building the department must get along with the old furni-ture which has been in use at the makeshift station at Eleventh and Dodge streets.

New York Coffee,

In "Mother Carey's Chickens," playing at the Brandels theater this week, one member of the Princess Players, is given her first real part. This is Lillian Bryce and to put it into street vernacular, "she licks the tar out of it." As Mrs. Popham, but while she is there you don't forget it. She is perfect as the country type. You know there are tidies on the back of her chairs at home and the parlor ior is kept, closed and there is an alarm clock on the shelf in the kitchen. Miss Bryce gives a corking good performance and if you don't like another thing about the play you'll enjoy Mrs. Popham.
