Buffaloes Lose Game of Series To Packers, 1-2

Run in Ninth; Pitchers' Battle Between Davenport and Russell.

Sioux City copped the first game of the series from the Buffaloes yesof the series from the Buffaloes yes-terday when the visitors finished Ruth Smacks Out victors, & to I, in a pitcher's battle between "Slim" Davenport of the locals and "Lefty" Russell.

It was another one of those ninth inning rallied that casued victory to Does Trick With Peckinpaugh Umpire Emslie suffered a badly perch on the Packers' banner after he last Buffalo had his time at bat. The score was 1-all at the first of the final round and Steinbrenner of Sioux City at bat. This Packer singled to left field and advanced to second on Mason's error. Beau-miller whiffed and Graham drove in the winning run when he singled. Thus ended one of the best games that have been staged at the Fifteenth street lot thus far this season. Davenport pitched good ball throughout, but the Buffaloes simply couldn't hit Russell in the pinches. The Packer southpaw had a habit of tightening up with men on the bases and turned his opponents back more The Buffaloes got seven hits off the oerings o Russell, of these one was a double by Lelivelt and another triple by Gislason. Lelivelt's double to right field came in the initial round of the contest with Lee on first, and resulted in the speedy little Omaha left fielder covering the bags in Charlie Paddock fashion, thereby

In the third inning Gislason slammed the ball out to deep left field for a triple. He was left stranded on the third bag, however, as Haney grounded out and Lee popped out to short, while Lelivelt retired the side when he grounded out to Rus-

Davenport allowed the Packers a single in the first, but the blow came after two hands were down. Metz ended his team's chances of scoring when he grounded out,

The Packers started a little fuss of their own in the fifth stanza when Beaumiller doubled to left Graham hit the wind and the "Lefty" Russell parked the ball in deep left field for a single. Lee made a good pickup of the drive and also a good peg to Catcher Lingle but the latter let the ball get through his mitts, and in doing so Beaumille scampered across the rubber with th run that tied the count.

Sioux City threatened to score again in the sixth after two down when Metz singled and Steinbrenner followed with a single, but Marr Philadelphia forced the latter at second and the side was retired without further trouble. In the seventh Beaumiller walked and went to second when Graham sacrificed, but Davenport tightened and so did his support and the next two Packers grounded out. The ninth inning rally for which

Sioux City is noted, was started by Steinbrenner, who scored from secand on Graham's single. Lingle singled in the eighth inning and Davenport advanced him to second on a sacrifice, but the Buffalo catcher was perched on the
