A $2,000 PIPE. This remarkable pipe of carved meerschaum, on the stem of which stand the nine figures illustrating the experience of eight lads learning to smoke, formerly was the property of the Emperor of Austria. The pipe's owner, L. O. Shank, of Dayton, Ohio, who secured it in Austria following the war, recently took it to Washington to show it to President Harding. Keystone

AN UNCROWNED QUEEN OF SOCIETY—Radiant; charming; admired; envied; followed by a ripple of excited questioning. "Who is she?" ask men. "What is her age," murmur women. What is the secret of her charm? There is an indefinable subtlety of allurements. What is it? Her hair? Ah, the secret is out! That crowning glory proclaims her Queen. None can guess her age, but all bow to her undisputed reign. Her hair, once faded and streaked with gray, was tinted at home, with harmless "Brownstone," her talisman of beauty. Instantly that hair became her chief attraction—replendent in its rejuvenated color.

Any woman can easily tint streaky, gray, faded or bleached hair any shade of brown or black instantly with "Brownstone," the clean, odorless, greaseless, harmless preparation. Two colors: "Golden to Medium Brown" and "Dark Brown to Black." At drug and department stores, 50c and $1.50.
