The Field club representative became acquainted with every piece of rough and hazard on the Country club course. Long grass, creeks, trees, weeds, bunkers and more bunkers slowed Mrs. Arnold's game considerably. The feature of her play was her short work, which practically won the game for her. She depended on her irons very much using her wooden clubs only when absolutely necessary.

Mrs. Arnold steadied herself a bit, and, took more pain with her drives and wooden clubs. Her drive was the longest on the 12th hole, lying between two trees. She used her iron to a good advantage, lining her ball in the center of the fairway. An excellent approach gave her the hole, She took the next three holes, and the match was over.
