Amateurs Extend Playing Schedule Refuse to Play Twilight Games

-Loops to Close Season In August. A "Twilight" game is ancient history as far as the teams of the American, Greater Omaha, Commercial and Gate City leagues are The teams in these circuits have found it impossible to play the "twilight" affairs and have asked for permission to play any postponed games after the close of the season. Permission was granted these teams this morning to extend their season two weeks. However, the regular playing season is finished on July 23 and 24 in these re pective loops, but with the extension, the seasons closes about the middle of August. Secretary J. J. Isaacson an .ounced that no league games will be played by the amateur teams, Monday, July 4. However, a number of the teams will play exhibition games and several of them will journey out of town to celebrate the fourth. Four of the City league teams will be seen in action at Fontenelle park at the celebration July 4. In the first game, the Bowen Furniture Co.

and the Drive-It-Yourselfs will clash and the second game will be put on by the Riggs Optical and North Omaha Boosters. Holland Withdraws Protest; Daugherty Refutes Decisions

When Guy (Bunny) Holland, manager of the Townsend Gun Co., who protested the game with the Bowen Furniture Co. several weeks ago, withdrew his protest yesterday afternoon against John Dennison's crew, it was not necessary to hold the meeting of the City league managers, and the said meeting scheduled for last night at the city hall was declared off by President

Frank Jacobs. However, President Jacobs an-nounced that Manager Fred Daugh-erty of the Drive-It-Yourselfs, leaders of the City league, who lost a 10 to 7 game last Sunday to the Bowens, has entered a protest on the grounds of the umpire's decisions. A meeting of the managers may be held sometime next week at which time the argument will be thrashed out, and a date set to play off the postponed contests.

Revise Church Card President N. J. Weston of the Church league announced vesterday that the schedule in that loop for Saturday has been revised in order that the teams may play off their postponed games.
