Former State Champion Loses To Country Club Player, 4 and 3; Reynolds, Young, Hughes Win.

Sam Reynolds, four-time state champion, lost the feature match of the tournament to Ralph Peters, present state champion, 1 up. The match was hard-fought throughout. Reynolds has not been playing his usual game on the Happy Hollow links since the tournament started. Reynolds is from the Field club, while Peters carries the banners of the Country club.

Two former state champions were removed from the rufining in the first round of match play in the state golf tournament at Happy Hollow yesterday. Other former champs, however, had easy sailing.

Kenneth Reed of Happy Hollow is one ex-titleholder, who felt the sting of defeat in the first round. He lost to C. H. Peters of the Country club, 4 and 3.

The result was something of surprise. Erratic as Reed sometimes is it was believed he would vanquish the Country club youth. Peters, however, was in fine form yesterday and took Reed to a neat

Guy Beckett of Happy Hollow, himself a former champ, removed John Redick, also a former champ and one of the Country club aces, Beckett defeated Redick 2 up. Sam Reynolds, Blaine Young, who was medalist in the qualifying round, and Jack Hughes were easy winners. E. D. Lyman, the University of of Elmwood, 5 and 4. He didn't even muss his hair. Ray Shields of the Field club was Blaine Young's victim, losing 7 and 5.

A. Pawnee City, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)

—Steinauer, Neb., is the only place in Pawnee county where base ball games can be played on Sunday. The voters of the county made Sunday base ball therein illegal last fall by a big majority. However, the town of Steinauer was one of the few places favoring the Sunday game, and after the election, they found that through the permission of the town administration, the game could be played inside the corporation in spite of the decision of the people. This permission was obtained and now the popular pastime is played in Steinbauer on the Sabbath. There are two diamonds just over the state line in Kansas where games are staged for the benefit of the defeated element of Pawnee county, but Steinauer boasts of the only Sunday game within the county.
