It is not often that a horse's market value changes as this little gelding's has changed. After Walter Cox and W. J. An-drews thad tried in vain to make a trotter colt of him he was sold at auction for $50. A. C. Pennock, who picked him up for this insignificant sum, passed him on to Captain Shaw for $145. In the hands of Mike McDavitt he became a stake horse, winning the classic Transylvania and other great traces and making a record of 2:0314.
