

Fraser Scores His Opponents At Convention

Sovereign Commander of W. O. W. Outlines Program to Combat Elements That Try to Disrupt Lodge

New York, July 5.—W. A. Fraser of Omaha, sovereign commander of the Woodmen of the World, in his annual report submitted to the Woodmen's national convention here today, described the "obstacles which were thrown in the way of the management by those who are always opposed to any new departure regardless of its virtue," and explained what measures were to be put forth to combat the insubordinate elements.

"To harass the management the insubordinate faction brought numerous suits in different states, all of which were decided in favor of the society," Commander Fraser said.

Solvency Increased.

In the prelude he set forth the evolution from what he termed the "unscientific plan of rating fraternal societies from their inception until the present date, when most societies are conforming with the laws requiring adequacy of rates."

It was through his suggestion, the report continued, that the Woodmen of the World made a substantial increase in rates as far back as 1901, and at almost every national convention since that date he strongly urged plans for adequacy and accomplished his purpose "to perpetuate the society at the convention of 1919, which in one stroke increased the society's solvency from 60 to 101 per cent."

Makes Recommendations.

The uniform rank is an important adjunct to any fraternal organization, Mr. Fraser stated, and he strongly recommended reorganization of this branch on an extensive scale.

Other steps recommended included the erection of a monument in France for the organization's soldier dead, establishment of a home for aged and a sanitarium for members tubercularly afflicted.

"The task of rerating a society with a membership of nearly a million members is not accomplished without eternal vigilance upon the part of the management," Mr. Fraser concluded, "and as the burden of the responsibility rests upon the organization's managing head, its president, the worries and responsibilities during the last year have been great. I feel, however, fully compensated through the enthusiastic endorsement given me by the large majority of the membership, together with many commendations which I have received from the different state insurance departments."

Irish Sympathizers Parade in New York

New York, July 5.—Fifteen thousand Irish sympathizers, each carrying an American flag, paraded Fifth avenue Monday in a demonstration of recognition of the "Irish republic." Many of them were women and children. There also was a good sprinkling of former service men in uniform. Only American flags were carried.

Only one placard was in the procession—that of John Bull holding a whip over the manacled figure of a woman, representing Ireland, pleading for justice. John Bull was represented as saying, "I am justice."

The marchers were reviewed by Mayor Hylan and disbanded at the Mall in Central park, where addresses were made by former Governor Martin H. Glynn and Congressman Thomas J. Ryan.

7,000 Coke Workers' Wages In Penny Cut 10 Per Cent

Connellsville, Pa., July 5.—Approximately 7,000 coke workers in the independent plants of the Connellsville coke region were affected today by a 10 per cent reduction in wages, the second announced this year. The new rate is about 33-1/3 per cent below the rate paid January 1, but according to coke men, 45 per cent higher than the prevailing rate in 1912. Only about 7 per cent of the independent ovens are in operation.

Woman Near Death; Arm Is Torn Off by Brushing Bridge

San Bernardino, July 5.—Mrs. Charles F. Wiley, 59, of Los Angeles, is reported to be dead today at a hospital here from an unusual injury in an accident. A motor bus in which she was riding brushed against the side of a bridge near here Monday. Her arm which was resting on the outside of the car was severed at a point near the shoulder. The arm dropped into the river below.

She Caught Costume Now She's Wearing It

Miss Eileen Young

It isn't every woman who can go out and catch or trap her own costume. Among the costumes worn at San Francisco's "Booster's Ball" was one especially interesting. It was that worn by Miss Eileen Young, a Mono county Diana. It was made from the skins of wild animals she trapped herself and attracted more attention than the sweetest bird wearing the very latest importation.

Eight Die, 36 Hurt In Oil Explosion

Property Loss Will Reach $200,000 as Result of Blast At Refining Plant.

Chicago, July 5.—Eight men are dead today, 36 others are injured, 10 so seriously that they may die, and property damage is unofficially estimated at $200,000 as the result of yesterday's explosion in the Standard Oil company's refining plant at Whiting, Ind.

Two huge steel stills burst, the brick walls inclosing them crumbled and a sheet of burning oil and gas spread for a radius of 200 yards, trapping the night force. Five men were burned to death, three died later in Chicago hospitals and the condition of 10 others is serious.

Most of those injured were caught in the shower of flame, but others were struck by the falling brick and steel walls of the stills. Excessive pressure or a tiny leak of gas were the two probable causes of the explosion advanced by those familiar with the operation of the stills which are filled with crude oil under pressure in the manufacture of gasoline.

Motors Take Heavier Toll On Fourth Than Explosives

Chicago, July 5.—Reports from all parts of the world on Fourth of July celebrations indicate that probably the most intense old-fashioned American observance with fireworks and explosives was in Germany, at Coblenz, where American "doughboys" held forth with noise galore. Most cities of America reported more deaths from automobile accidents and drowning than from ill-timed explosions of firecrackers and Roman candles, which gives birth to the news that the age in which the explosives' toll of the Fourth was greater than the casualty list in the battle of Lexington is finally a matter of history. Philadelphia and Boston both reported yesterday as the "safest and sanest Fourth" of history, and most other large cities of the east reported only a few mishaps.

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Who Has Lived Ages of Horror Permitted to Land as Sponsor Found.

Chicago, July 5.—Frank (lately Franz) Fetzler, 12, has realized his ambition. He has been admitted to the United States, which, to him represents heaven and the ultimate of all desires.

After travelling all the way from Czechoslovakia by himself he was held up at the immigration office until some one was found who would give the government assurance the boy would not become a public charge. Frank Fabigan of Chicago promptly gave that assurance and the boy stepped into the land of the free on July 4, a most appropriate occasion.

Lived Ages of Horror.

Although but 12 the boy has lived ages of horror and suffering which show in his face. In the little town of Atrabitz his father was a small merchant. With the outbreak of hostilities he marched away with his regiment. A French bullet killed him.

Then Atrabitz was invaded and the boy and his mother fled to Vienna. Hunger, grief and privation were too much for the mother and she perished. The lad then had to shift for himself and in a country where everybody was on the verge of starvation. He managed to exist on scraps he found in the streets, bits of food occasionally handed him by sympathetic people, and his clothing was such as he could salvage from the channel recalls.

He does not recall just how he got to the seashore and managed to stow himself away in an ocean liner. He made a little money selling papers and the officers of the boat brought him to Quebec. From there he worked his way to Detroit, where immigration officers stopped him until Mr. Fabigan came to the rescue.

"This lad has had experience that will make him a good citizen of this country," said Mr. Fabigan. "He will appreciate the blessings of the United States. The first thing I did was to change his name from Franz to Frank, and he will be taught English as rapidly as possible. He thinks the United States is heaven after what he has gone through, and I intend he shall grow up with that same thought."

Girl Falls Off Elevated Platform But Is Lucky

New York, July 5.—Nine-year-old Anna Cunningham fell off a station platform in front of an elevated train in Brooklyn today. In falling, she missed the approaching cars, dropped between the rim of the platform and track, glanced off an electric feed wire and landed on the street pavement 35 feet below. She cried as a policeman picked her up. Physicians found her only injuries were three broken teeth and some scratches.

So I wouldn't lose no time from my job," explained Mr. Cummins.
