Buffaloes Win Final Game of Booster Series

Mead Receives Good Support And Hurls Teammates to 10-4 Victory Over Des Moines.

With "Slim" Mead twirling, the old battering brigade of the Buffaloes kept to its task the score of 6 to 1. Mead allowed 13 hits, of which two were doubles, but he possessed unusually good con-trol for him and issued only one base on balls. He hit one batsman and struck out three.

The Buffaloes, meanwhile, were driving the offerings of Beck to all corners of the lot. It was the old slam-bang attack that has marked the games of Burch's men of late and there was no withstanding it. Twelve safeties were garnered by the Buffaloes and a number of them were most opportune. Lelivelt and Grif-
