Married life isn't going to inter-fere with Constance Talmadge's screen career. So, cheer up, fans! There is no reason to be downheartcd. The Talmadge studio points out that only recently Constance and Norma Talmadge entered into a $20,-000,000 contract to make photoplays for an additional three years. And we don't believe she's going to pass this up. As proof that she means business, Constance completed "Lessons in Love," which was temporarily interrupted by her marriage, and this picture will be the choice offering at the Rialto theater next
