The feature of the game were three triples by Schutt, Linstrum and Boettscher, which caused Olson to retire. Fullerton plays here Wednesday, July 13.

Elkhorn Loop Besults. Fremont, Neb., July 12.—(Special.)—
Scribner and Snyder lead the Eikhorn league of base ball with Frement bidding hard in second place. Arlington and Morse Bluff are tied for third position, while Hooper and North Bend are even for fourth place. Valley is in the cellar with three games played and lost. This is the standing of the new league of base ball formed in the Eikhorn valley as a result of the breaking up of the old league. Dodge, a former member of this league, was not asked to join the new organization and Morse Bluffs was invited to fill its place. The league rulers insist that not more than $25 should be paid for pitchers and they alleged that Dodge was breaking this ruling.

Bloomfield Neb., July 12.—(Special.)

Bloomfield defeated Crofton here yesterday in a loosely-played game, the score being 14 to 8. Dilts of Wakefield was on the mound for Crofton and was both wild and ineffective. He was replaced by Tucker in the sixth. Cook twirled for Bloomfield. He was hit hard but managed to keep the hits scattered. His support was very ragged. The local team has now won six and lost four games. The Walthill Indians play here next Sunday.

WITH THE PUGS,

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Chicago, July 11.—Babe Asher, A. E. F. bantam champion, is going to be a busy little boxer in the next few weeks. After his engagement Friday night at Aurora with Sammy Mandell be takes on Earl McArthur at Sioux City July 25. At Portland, Ore., August 12 he trades punches with Billy Mascott and on August 23 at Albany he takes part in a 15-round decision bout with Jabes White.

The East Chicago club is revemping its seat arrangements in accordance with its recent announcement that it will have more popular priced seats than at the last show, when a near riot occurred because of the lack of $3 pasteboards.

Joe Burman of Chicago tackles Charley Ledoux, French bantam, tomorrow night in New York. It is reported that Georges Carpentier will act as a second for his fellow countryman.

Powell Defeats George Stocking In Tennis Meet

Union Pacific Team Loses to Sidney, 2-4

Union Pacific Store Department team was defeated at Sidney, Neb., Sunday by the score of 4 to 2. Chamberlain and Luebke were the battery for the Union Pacific team and were opposed by Donaldson and Brown for Sidney. Spectacular fielding was made by both teams. The game belonged to no one until the seventh inning, when Sidney bunched four of their eight hits for two runs, which happened to be the winning runs for the game. The Sidney team is composed of several Omaha ball players and is managed by Ed Roben, who has with him such old stars of the game as Tomlison, Shippke, Brown and Ryan, former Omaha Western league players.

The Union Pacific Store Department team has July 17 and 31 open and requests all out-of-town teams wishing games with the Union Pacific team to get in communication with F. I. Holmes, 3617 South Twenty-eighth street, Omaha, Neb.
