Reduce Admission To State Circuit

Fremont, Neb., July 17.-Admis-July 26, 27 and 28, have been refor the purpose of drawing larger crowds and to impress upon the pub-lic that the "business of horse racing" has also returned to normalcy.

Eighty-five harness horses will increase the list of 100 other well known track steeds that are scheduled to appear in Fremont. Some of the foremost among the famous horse of this section which will come to Fermont are Dixie Achdale, belonging to C. E. Negus, Nickerson; Rags and Alto, formerly owned by Fremont men; Alwin Patch, son of the great sire Dan Patch, owned by J. P. Larimore; Tip Frisco, Peter Supple, Little Dan and Bingen Direct, owned by Roy Owen. Any profits derived from the track meet will be used to pay off the old debt of the Fremont Driving club.

Have Easy Time With Stocking And Brotherton

Champions Play Fast Game And Win Three Straight Sets-Tourney is Most Successful City Meet.

"Con" Young's record string of victories will be equalled soon if Ralph Duke Powell and Will Adams, city and state doubles champions, continue to add scalps to their belts, Yesterday afternoon the two youngsters added another championship by trouncing George Stocking and John Brotherton in the finals of the city tournament at the Field club, winning in three straight sets of 6-1,

The champions had little to fear in the match, and gave the large gallery just a peep of the style of tennis they expect to play in the state tourney against such men as Vin-cent Richards, Philbrook Smith, Cary Meyers and other of the lead-ing players of the central states. Powell and Adams lost more points on kills and drives than they lery can expect the champs to play bang-up, terrific driving game from now on, The victors started right in Brotherton and Stocking, taking the first five games. The first set would have been a love set, but for a few erratic shots by Powell and Adams in the sixth game. Win Double Bill To Stage Aquatic Meet Here July 25
