Organize New Ball

Season Will Open July 20 and stated Close in September-Eight Teams in Loop.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 18.— (Special.)—The Southeastern South Dakota Base Ball league, which has just been organized, promises to be one of the most successful of the the northwest. The season for the league will open July 20. A 14-game chedule will be played. The season will close in September.

It is proposed to play two games each week—on Wednesdays and Sundays—and to divide the receipts 60 and 40 per cent, the 60 per cent going to the home team. It also is lanned to play home men if possible, with provision that a battery may be hired at a salary of not to exceed $250 per month. The idea is to make it a clean game, played for Play Over All Heads.

Possibly the Braves were playing over their own heads, but they also played over the heads of everything on the older league. They whirled through to the championship in October and climaxed the year's achievement by crushing the Athletics in four straight.

A year later the one-time lowly Phillies rose up, kicked their rivals hither and you with reckless abandon, but remarkably crumpled and flattened precision. Whereupon the heretics velled: "They're playing over heads. The Phillies won. In 1916, when the Dodgers go away to a good start, increased it as time flitted onward, the .chorus from the other towns was:

"They're playing over The Dodgers won. None but careful students of the game took the early work of the 1919 Reds seriously. Most everyone else thought it was just a spurt; that the men of Pat Moran were "playing over their heads." Yet they became world's champions in October Whenever a base ball club which doesn't "dope" out in the spring as a pennant certainty, flashes brilliant base ball into July or August, the form students become puzzled. They rarely will concede they erred in judgment in not naming that club as the pacemaker-and probably the winner of the race. They explain
