

Society

Carlin-Hofman. Miss Gladys Hofman, daughter of A. Hofman, will wed Clarence H. Carlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Carlin, Wednesday evening, 8 p. m., at the St. Johns Episcopal church, Rev. Edwin Brown officiating.

Mrs. A. Hofman, jr., and Miss Mary Lowin will attend the bride, who will be given away by her father, A. Hofman, jr., will be the best man.

The bride will wear a white satin and will wear a veil of lace and tulle. She will carry a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

A reception at the home of Mrs. A. Hofman, jr., will follow the ceremony.

After a short trip east, the young couple will return to Omaha, where they will reside.

For Mrs. Woerner. Mrs. N. H. Tyson and Mrs. J. T. Pickard entertained at luncheon Tuesday at Happy Hollow club in honor of Mrs. Belle Woerner of Medford, Ore., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Mason.

Covers were placed for Mesdames Woerner, Mason, Horace Jeffrey, Arthur Giles, John Giles, W. A. Wilcox, Ray Lawson, John Shannon, Andrew Lowe, E. H. Fair, Miss Hazel Wilcox and Miss Esther Woerner of Medford, Ore.

Mrs. W. A. Wilcox will entertain informally for Mrs. Woerner Wednesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. Woerner will be honored guest at a luncheon Thursday given by Mrs. E. H. Fair and on Friday Mrs. Dell O'Brien will entertain at luncheon for this visitor.

For Mrs. Coleman. Mrs. J. F. Adams will entertain at luncheon at the old club Friday in honor of Mrs. Frank Coleman of Denver, who is visiting Mrs. Henry T. Clarke.

Covers will be placed for Mesdames Coleman, Clarke, James L. Paxton, W. F. Allen, Clarke Coit, Frank Field, J. E. Fitzgerald, Herbert Gannett, Luther Kountze, Miss Jean Field and Miss May Tully of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Herbert Gannett entertained at a supper at her home Monday evening complimentary to Mrs. Coleman. Covers were placed for 10 guests.

For Miss Waterman. Mrs. Howard Baldrige will entertain at luncheon Thursday at her home in honor of Miss Phyllis Waterman, whose engagement to William Latta of Tekamah was recently announced.

The guests will include Mrs. Charles Burgess, the Misses Josephine Schurman, Louise Clarke, Claire Daugherty, Edith Latta of Tekamah, Regina Connell, Virginia Pickley, Mary Fuller, Gretchen and Geraldine Hess of Council Bluffs.

Party at Okoboji. The Misses Thelma and Melba Burke of Omaha will entertain at a week-end home party at the cottage, Comforest, on Lake Okoboji, Ia.

The guests will be the active members and pledges of the A. K. club of Central High school: Marjorie Corey, Marguerite Forrell, Viola Forrell, Barbara Christie, Babe Christie, Mildred Olson, Mrs. Theobald, Virginia Frantz, Geraldine Wycoff, Frances Johnston, Mrs. Loran, Ruth Lindsay, Amy Stevenson, Arline Rosenburg, Valeria Rohr, Margaret Willard.

Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gordon will entertain 10 guests at the Country club dinner-dance Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Annette Bardwell of Minneapolis, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Warren Breckenridge.

E. A. Baum will entertain a party of 14 at the dinner-dance Wednesday evening.

Open Day at Field Club. Thirty women golfers are expected to participate in the open day at Field club Wednesday. Mrs. C. F. Johnson and possibly others will come from Fremont. Mrs. M. LeVings is chairman of the Field club woman's organization.

Happy Hollow Club. At the Happy Hollow club dinner-dance Tuesday evening parties of six were entertained by Leslie Patt, E. A. Pegau, E. G. McGilton, D. H. Bowman and George Roberts. Smaller parties were given by George B. Darr and H. W. Ellis.

Wednesday Affairs. Petersen-McCarthy wedding. Malva Shrine, annual picnic at Elmwood park. Church benefit social at Sacred Heart grounds. Dancing and motion pictures.

Chadron Club Picnic. The Chadron club will hold its annual picnic at Elmwood park Saturday afternoon, July 23. All former residents of Chadron are invited. Mayor James Dahlman will be the speaker of the day.

Picnic. Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Muldoon entertained at Elmwood park Friday for their daughter, Helen. Moving pictures were taken of the 20 young people attending.

Miller Park Mothers. Miller Park Mothers' circle will hold a picnic in Miller park Wednesday afternoon. A basket supper will be served at 6:30 p. m.

Camp Fire Notes. The board of directors of the Omaha Camp Fire association will motor to Valley Friday to spend the day at the Camp Fire camp.

Picnic Supper. Mrs. C. C. Allison and Mrs. Fred Nash entertain at a picnic supper at Rosemere Sunday evening.

Mr. Crofoot Entertains. Edward Crofoot entertained informally at a party Monday evening at his home.

Field Club. Sixty members of the Eastern Star had luncheon at the Field club Tuesday. Reservations were in charge of Mrs. John Battin.

Among reservations for Tuesday dinner were Ed Fuhr, seven, and R. Hansen, 11. E. L. Phlips will entertain six guests at the dinner-dance Wednesday evening.

A covered jelly glass is just the thing in which to pack a baked apple in the kiddie's lunch.

Carter Lake

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Frazer entertained 12 guests at the club house for dinner Monday evening.

Miss Shirley Lewis entertained six little girl friends at luncheon at the club house, Monday, in honor of her eighth birthday. Her guests were Marie Clary, Virginia Jones, Dolores O'Reilly, Helen Kahler and Geraldine Van Ausdale.

The Professional and Business Women's league has made reservation for 45 guests at dinner Wednesday evening.

No reservations will be made for the special ladies' luncheon Wednesday, after Tuesday evening.

Miss Clara Lindley is spending a month in Colorado.

Miss Pauline Parmelee has returned from a week's visit at Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore had a week-end guest, Joe Leverancy of Wichita, Kan.

Miss Louise Dorough of Atlanta, Ga., was the week-end guest of Mrs. J. D. Hiss, Miss Dorough, and a niece of Mrs. Hiss, Miss Adeline Craig of Dallas, Tex., and another girl from San Antonio, Tex., served overseas during the war in Y. M. C. A. entertainment. They were known as "The Dixie Trio."

Miss Nancy Hulst has gone to Lake Okoboji to spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey have returned from an eastern motor trip.

Miss Pauline Burkett is visiting at Herman, Neb., with Miss Leah Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brandeis returned home Monday from a visit in Colorado.

Miss Esther Thomas leaves Thursday for a tour of Hawaiian islands and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Salisbury have returned from two weeks in Wisconsin.

Miss Dorothy Graham is spending the week at the Camp Fire camp at Valley, Neb.

Miss Patricia Naughtin leaves Sunday for a trip to Colorado and Yellowstone park.

J. E. Whitaker of Omaha is spending a few days at the Ambassador hotel in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Belle Woerner and daughter, Miss Esther, of Medford, Ore., are visiting Mrs. Woerner's sister, Mrs. E. A. Mason.

Dudley Wolfe, son of Mrs. J. M. Baldrige, leaves this week for the summer home of his parents at Rockland, Me.

Miss Catherine Hastings, who has been in Minnesota for the past few weeks, will return home the latter part of this week.

Harriet K. Hunt of Boston, was the first woman in this country to practice medicine until her death in 1875, at the age of 70.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Muldoon are in Sioux City. Dr. Muldoon will return Wednesday. Mrs. Muldoon will remain for a week.

Miss Viola Muldoon left Sunday for Kansas City to be the guest of Mrs. J. H. Allen, formerly Miss Mamie Muldoon of this city.

Betty Paxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Paxton, who has been ill with bronchial-pneumonia for the past two weeks, is improving.

Miss Dorothy English has gone to Lincoln to spend a few days before leaving Omaha for Cincinnati, where she will continue in newspaper work.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters, Miss Gladys Peters and Miss Hilda Hamner motored to Lake Okoboji last week, where they are spending a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pegau and daughter, Miss Josephine Schurman, have returned from a few weeks at Lake Okoboji, where they have a summer cottage.

John Neff of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Neff, has been visiting for the past few days with his parents and his fraternity brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Mrs. W. D. Clark has sold her home on Decatur street and leaves soon with her son for Tonopah, Nev., for a visit. Later they will go to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Clark's brother, Philip Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Loomis have gone to New York City for a two months' stay. They will also go to Hartford, Conn., for a visit with Mrs. Loomis' sister, Mrs. Sidney Smith, and Mr. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Davis, who have been honeymooning on the Pacific coast for the past few weeks, are now at the "Chateau," Lake Louise, Canada, where they will be for four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Barton Millard spent Saturday at Fremont with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of New York, who are at the home of Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. R. B. Schneider.

Mrs. Moritz Meyer returned Friday from a month's visit in Chicago with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Cohn, and Mr. Cohn. Her granddaughter, Felice Shreter, returned with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Gilmore announce the birth of a son, George Francis, at the Methodist hospital Monday. Mrs. Gilmore was Miss Hazel Evans before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sessue Hayakawa will spend Friday in Omaha as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shaji Osato. They will be en route to California from New York City.

J. J. Curtin, state president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, left Sunday to attend the national convention at Detroit, Mich. On his return trip he will visit with friends in Chicago.

By CORINNE LOWE.

New York.—(Special Correspondence.)—What is not crepe de chine this summer is taffeta. The latter is worn extensively for both afternoon and evening occasions and in the course of this activity it pursues many routes to the terminus, Fashion. It is often combined with georgettes in a way that contrasts bands of this latter material upon skirts and bodice and sleeves with the color of taffeta.

Frequently it is embroidered. Always it is one of the chief factors in developing the wide-skirted, old-timey modes so widely emphasized just now.

We show today a dance frock of green taffeta in the lettuce shade with points of black taffeta outlined by self-material in yellow. The wide elbow sleeves are of silver lace and the oddly entrenched neck line is carried out in black.

of her hair and rouged so outrageously because he insisted upon her doing it?

"You Are Absolutely Unjust." "Ye-es," Dicky admitted, "but while she humored Harry in little things like that, you forget that in their menage she was it. Harry always deferred to her judgment in her affairs and his own, and I never knew a man to put so high a value on a woman's mentality as he did on Lil's. And, you know Lil. She's the best old scout in the world, and I owe her more than I do anybody in the world outside my family, but if she can't be the 'bride at the wedding and the corpse at the funeral,' life has no savor for her."

"You are absolutely unjust," I flared, for he had struck this note of criticism of Lillian so frequently in the last year that it had become a goal. I suspected that it was conceived in an absurd jealousy of my dependence upon her, and I resented it all the more strongly on that account.

"Look Out!" "Of course," he gibed, but with a disarming smile.

"And, besides," I went on with feminine inconsistency, "even if she is inclined to be a bit—er—dominant—"

"Go to the head of the class," Dicky interrupted. "That word is all to the mustard!"

"I can't see what difference it would make in Robert Savarin's case."

"You can't, eh?" Dicky rejoined scornfully. "Well, just let me tell you something! Robert Savarin's one of the greatest artists of his time, a real by himself. He ought to be put on a pedestal and revered, and his genius guarded. Can you see old Lil taking a humble attitude toward anybody?"

I glanced at him curiously. It was not the first time I had heard this note of reverent admiration in his tone concerning Robert Savarin. That it was a feeling absolutely distinct from his very real personal liking for the man, I knew. It was an impersonal sort of homage to a genius which he humbly acknowledged as something far above his own undeniable talent.

"I don't pretend to understand your attitude," I said, "but I imagine Lillian does. You forget that she was his pupil years ago, and that he gave her the first chance she ever had to cultivate her own talent. I think she shares your admiration for his genius. And as for guarding it—"

"Oh! She'll do the maternal, all right," he admitted. "That's her strongest characteristic. But let me tell you that when unusual people like these two get into the marriage game there's bound to be interesting fireworks. It's bad enough with dubs like us, but when real genius offerees, look out!"

I did not answer him, because I totally disagreed with him, and knew

HOLDING A HUSBAND

Adele Garrison's New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife"

The "Cause for Thought" Dicky Gave Madge.

"I say, Madge."

Dicky spoke abruptly after a silence which for him was unusual. It had lasted two or three minutes, and I was beginning to wonder if I had said anything to offend him.

I slowed the car down immediately, in which we were going to meet Robert Savarin, and answered dutifully.

"Yes, Dicky, what is it?" "D'ye think Lil really means to ditch old Harry and marry Savarin?"

I winced at his query. Dicky is not prone to crudity, but evidently his disapproval of Lillian's attitude had goaded him into the uncouth speech.

"It isn't a question of her 'ditching' Harry," I replied coldly, my distaste for his expression betraying itself involuntarily.

"A thousand pardons, Miss Puritan schoolma'am," Dicky nodded. "I didn't mean to shock your refined ears. I suppose you mean Harry already has performed that little job, and you're right. I don't pretend to defend him, but you mark my word, Lil was happier with him than she ever could be with Savarin."

"I fail to see how you make that out," I said spiritedly. "Her life with that man was one long martyrdom of her own tastes and instincts. Why! Don't you remember how she dyed her hair and rouged so outrageously because he insisted upon her doing it?"

"You Are Absolutely Unjust." "Ye-es," Dicky admitted, "but while she humored Harry in little things like that, you forget that in their menage she was it. Harry always deferred to her judgment in her affairs and his own, and I never knew a man to put so high a value on a woman's mentality as he did on Lil's. And, you know Lil. She's the best old scout in the world, and I owe her more than I do anybody in the world outside my family, but if she can't be the 'bride at the wedding and the corpse at the funeral,' life has no savor for her."

"You are absolutely unjust," I flared, for he had struck this note of criticism of Lillian so frequently in the last year that it had become a goal. I suspected that it was conceived in an absurd jealousy of my dependence upon her, and I resented it all the more strongly on that account.

"Look Out!" "Of course," he gibed, but with a disarming smile.

"And, besides," I went on with feminine inconsistency, "even if she is inclined to be a bit—er—dominant—"

"Go to the head of the class," Dicky interrupted. "That word is all to the mustard!"

"I can't see what difference it would make in Robert Savarin's case."

"You can't, eh?" Dicky rejoined scornfully. "Well, just let me tell you something! Robert Savarin's one of the greatest artists of his time, a real by himself. He ought to be put on a pedestal and revered, and his genius guarded. Can you see old Lil taking a humble attitude toward anybody?"

I glanced at him curiously. It was not the first time I had heard this note of reverent admiration in his tone concerning Robert Savarin. That it was a feeling absolutely distinct from his very real personal liking for the man, I knew. It was an impersonal sort of homage to a genius which he humbly acknowledged as something far above his own undeniable talent.

"I don't pretend to understand your attitude," I said, "but I imagine Lillian does. You forget that she was his pupil years ago, and that he gave her the first chance she ever had to cultivate her own talent. I think she shares your admiration for his genius. And as for guarding it—"

"Oh! She'll do the maternal, all right," he admitted. "That's her strongest characteristic. But let me tell you that when unusual people like these two get into the marriage game there's bound to be interesting fireworks. It's bad enough with dubs like us, but when real genius offerees, look out!"

I did not answer him, because I totally disagreed with him, and knew

A PIANO SALE that is Making History

Hundreds have taken advantage of the Big Reduction in Piano Prices in effect during our $50,000 Remodeling Piano Sale. Over 200 High Grade Instruments have been reduced in price so greatly and the terms have been made so liberal, that anyone, even of the most moderate means can well afford to "BUY A PIANO NOW."

SAVE $150 to $200

That's just what you save. These reductions are made in addition to the cut in price which occurred last Spring.

$600 New Player Pianos Reduced to $385 Terms $2.50 Per Week. $450 New Upright Pianos Reduced to $265 Terms $1.50 Per Week.

Make your selections from such world renowned Pianos as Hardman, Lindeman & Sons, McPhall, Emerson, Steger & Sons, Behr Bros., etc.

Exceptional Bargains in USED PIANOS $300 Marshall & Wendell $125 $425 Schmolzer & Mueller $240 $400 Sterling $158 $475 Schmolzer & Mueller $250 $375 Valley Gem $175 $450 Prescott $255 $400 Davis & Sons $185 $500 Clarindon $275 $400 Richter $195 $700 Steger & Sons $350 $950 Schmolzer & Mueller Grand $600

We Ship Pianos Everywhere If you live out of town fill in and mail this coupon NOW!

Schmolzer & Mueller Piano Co. Phone Doug. 1623 1514-16-18 Dodge St.

Home of the Steinway, the Standard Piano of the World.

The Rainbow Special Fine, All-Steel Train In daily service between KANSAS CITY AND LITTLE ROCK with through sleeping car between Omaha and Hot Springs. Every travel comfort and convenience is provided on this fine, all-steel equipped train—drawing-room sleeping cars—dining car—chair cars and comfortable day coaches—service to please all classes of patrons. Beautiful riverside ride leaving Omaha and into Kansas City. Good roadbed all the way.

CANADIAN PACIFIC OCEAN SERVICES TO EUROPE By the Picturesque St. Lawrence River Route MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW Sailings Every Few Days from Montreal and Quebec to Liverpool, Southampton, Glasgow, Havre, Antwerp, Naples, Genoa. Ocean voyage shortened by two Delightful Days on the Sheltered St. Lawrence River and Gulf. EVERYTHING CANADIAN PACIFIC STANDARD—NONE BETTER Apply to Agents Everywhere or to R. S. ELWORTHY, Gen'l Agt., Gen's Dept., 40 North Dearborn St., Chicago CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY TRAFFIC AGENTS

Bowen's Mattress Dept. Active Men and Women and Growing Children Need Sound, Healthful Sleep SOUND, restful sleep restores energy and builds up the body. Nature can't do the work properly if the mattress is lumpy or baggy or if it sags. To be certain of the right kind of sleep, put a Sealy on the bed. This is the famous mattress that is built layer by layer. Sealy mattresses are guaranteed not to mat, pack, get hard or lumpy. They are non-absorbent, dust, moth and vermin-proof. The Sealy label is your guarantee for better mattresses. See—H.R. Bowen Co. Howard St., between 15th and 16th

That there was no chance of either of us changing our opinion. But secretly, his cocksureness troubled me. Had he read Lillian and Robert more accurately than I? I had grown so accustomed to regarding marriage with Robert Savarin as the solution of Lillian's problems, that any doubt concerning its wisdom bothered me more than I liked to admit.

That Ugly Staircase Cupboard

If the housekeeper would rid herself of that ugly staircase cupboard, where overshoes and umbrellas, coats and school books get lost in deep, dark recesses, let her call in a carpenter or put her better half to work building drawers to fit into this space—not under the staircase, however, but at the side. The drawers may be painted in harmony with the room or hall from which they Clothes!

Plenty of clean ones are essential on hot days. But home washing is mighty hard. Send your whole family washing—have it done

THE WET WASH WAY Flat work ironed better than by hand, other pieces just damp enough for your own iron. Save time, money, temper and clothes.

EAT Red Top Macaroni Foods—the muscle builder—the food of the worker—the one dish of which the appetite does not tire. It is made GOOD for you to eat. It contains genuine Semolina, from which the best macaroni is made. For sale at all grocers.

MISSOURI MILITARY ACADEMY SUMMER SCHOOL AND CAMP MEXICO, MO. Summer Camp begins Tuesday, June 28, 1921. Term runs two months. Regular term begins, Thursday, September 15, 1921. Term runs nine months. Early enrollment in both Summer Camp and Academy is necessary, as capacity is annually taxed. Catalogue. Address: Col. E. Y. Burton, President Box 1111 Mexico, Mo.

For Back Ache The Original Product BAUME BENGUE (Baume Analgesique Bengue, Paris)

Relieves Pain Keep a Tube Handy Thos. Leeming & Co., N.Y.

Bowen's Special Sale of Living Room Furniture At Bowen's This Week HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS Had Dandruff and Pimples on Head. Cuticura Healed. "I had a very bad case of dandruff and there were pimples on my head. It would itch and burn at night so I could hardly sleep. My hair was dry and lifeless and I could comb it out by the handful. A friend told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to give them a trial, and when I had used three cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Albert Marshall, Box 373, Indianapolis, Indiana. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are all you need for all toilet uses. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum. Sample each free by mail. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. M, P.O. Box 103, South Norwalk, Conn. Soap, 25c. Ointment, 25c. and 50c. Talcum, 25c. Cuticura Soap above without soap.