Police Department Shake-up in Prospect

Promotions, demotions and commotion are in prospect for the police department, Chief Dempsey announced yesterday, reserving details of the shake-up for a later date. Changes are expected in the ranks of sergeants and in the detective department. Joe Potach and Edward Slezewski were transferred from the moral squad to South Side detective duty. Neal Hayes and Joe Urbanek were suspended two days each for violation of rules.

Church Invites Pastor To Return for Third Year

Rev. Edgar Merrill Brown, pastor of Dietz Memorial Methodist church, has been invited by the church conference to return for the third year. The pastor has been granted a month's vacation, which he expects to spend on the Pacific coast, leaving for the west the first of August. About 150 new members have been received in the church in less than three years and the Sunday school attendance has increased 100 per cent.
