

4,000 Are Guests At Garden Party Of British Throne

Colonel and Mrs. House and Many Other Prominent Americans Are Included Among Those Present

London, July 22.—King George and Queen Mary today gave a garden party at Buckingham palace to some 4,000 guests. Included among the Americans present were Col. E. M. House and Mrs. House, Col. H. H. Rogers, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Millicent Rogers, Archibald Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt, Justice Mahlon Pitney and Mrs. Pitney and their son and daughter, Mrs. James Winslow, Miss Alice Perkins, a niece of Lady Astor, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler.

The spacious lawns presented a brilliant scene. All the members of the royal family were present, together with the foreign ambassadors and ministers, the dominion premiers, Indian notables, members of the government and others.

King George and Queen Mary shook hands with some 2,000 of their guests. The lawn party was to some extent a substitute for the county which the king and queen were unable to hold this year, and the informal presentations are equivalent to the usual presentations at court.

The gowns worn by the women were rather more subdued than those seen at Ascot and the Henley regatta. Most of the skirts were longer than those lately considered fashionable.

A feature of the meeting will be a monster parade, to be staged on the first day of the convention. Posts from various parts of the state will march in uniform. Motion pictures will be taken of the parade for historical records.

More Truth Than Poetry

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE

NO DANGER

A Western Board of Trade has passed a resolution against the employment of pretty stenographers.

Dear Phyllis—though the Board of Trade Has vowed that it is going to get you, Because your lovely face has made Top big a bit—don't let that fret you. It's true you girls with limpid lamps And melting looks that brook no curbing, Have been denounced as Office Vamps— Much less efficient than disturbing. But though you cause the handsome clerk To shirk his job, and to the stranger Who happens in, you give The Work, Your place is not in any danger.

A Board of Trade is many men From every thought of evil fleeing; Your boss is something else again He's just a single human being. A Board of Trade has moral sense; Bound by a strong commercial tether, Its members are a bunch of geese, Most proper (when they're all together). And though they have decided that You must be banished from the city, Paste this reflection in your hat: Your boss, himself, prefers you pretty.

You dolled yourself to get the job; Your charms you marshalled—which were legion The boss beheld, and felt a throb Arising in his cardiac region. A Board of Trade might have foreseen The help would too much have admired you— The while you tapped on your machine— Your boss, however, promptly hired you. We've been around most every place, Pursuing this and that vocation, And never knew a pretty face To cost a girl her situation!

Young Wife Prays As Bathers Work On Drowned Mate

Husband Found Unconscious In 20 Inches of Water at Lake Manawa—Efforts to Resuscitate Him Fail.

Helpless and afraid, the pretty young wife of Arthur James Wood, 22, prayed aloud Thursday night as she watched fellow bathers at Lake Manawa attempt to resuscitate her husband, who was found unconscious in 20 inches of water along the beach.

The Woods, with a party of friends, had gone to the lake for a swim.

Young Wood, who was employed by the Missouri Pacific in Omaha and lived at 1827 Fourth avenue, Council Bluffs, was subject to fainting spells because of a weak heart, according to his wife.

He was found unconscious in the water and fellow bathers carried him to shore, making efforts to revive him while awaiting Dr. J. C. Anderson, who had been summoned.

All efforts failed. Absence of any great amount of water in the young man's lungs led Dr. Anderson to express the belief he had suffered a fainting spell and died of heart disease while in the water.

The young wife is employed in the safety deposit department of the Council Bluffs Savings bank. Besides her, young Wood is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. H. Wood; two half-sisters and one half-brother. Coroner Cutler took charge of the body. No inquest will be held.

Body of Indian Boy Killed By Train Is Identified by Pal

Fremont, Neb., July 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The mangled form of the Indian youth found on the railroad tracks at Winslow Tuesday was identified as that of Clarence White, 16, of Winnebago and runaway charge of the Genoa school. The body was dug up from its grave at Hooper and identification established by the runaway pal, who was located at his home in Winnebago.

He stated that they had separated at Fremont to avoid arrest. White insisted on hopping a freight to Winnebago, he said, although he had decided to walk. He reached home in a nearly crippled condition as a result of his hike. Supt. W. C. Johnson of the Genoa school brought the victim's companion to Hooper to assure the identification.

The boys were on their way home penniless and with nothing to eat for many hours. White's body was taken to Winnebago for burial. Authorities are of the opinion that young White was the victim of violence at the hands of the I. W. W.

University Place Youth Dies of Diving Injuries

Lincoln, July 22.—(Special.)—Emil Deuser, 18, University Place, died today of injuries sustained in diving yesterday. Deuser's head struck a substance underneath the water and the impact broke his neck, paralyzing his lower body. Henry Yetter, a friend, swam out and brought the youth to shore. Deuser was a well-known high school athlete.

Wood Lake Hay Crop Is Below Average

Wood Lake, Neb., July 22.—(Special.)—Ranchers started cutting their hay flats here this week and the majority of reports received so far indicate a short crop. The Goose Creek country south of here is the exception, as the cutting along this valley appears to be about normal. Most of the smaller ranchers are working short-handed to save the heavy expense of putting up the crop. The larger ranchers are working full crews as fast as they can get the men and most of them need from two to six more men.

It is estimated that not to exceed two-thirds of the hay ground will be cut this year as the excessive freight rates prevent the usual amount of hauling for shipment on the market, so the hay men are planning on putting up just enough for their own cattle.
