IVE to four, gents, is the score the Omaha Buffaloes chalked up for themselves yesterday in the first game of the series with the Wichita sluggers. Which, taking into consideration the fact that the Witches play a mean bit of base ball on their own account most of the time, stamps the performance of J. Fagen Burch's employes as considerable of an

The initial contest of the fourgame series goes into the record books as a win for "Smiling" Bert Glaiser. Bert took the mound at the start, and although he was on the erge of being derricked a couple of imes, succeeded in weathering the torm. He allowed the league leaders 10 safe swats.

"Dad" Gregory was the victim. He went the route, and outside of four bad innings, got by with credit. On the mound, that is. He was nicked by the Buffaloes for 14 hits, of which two were triples-by Lee and Lelivelt-and two doubles, by Lingle and

The hero of the day was Jack Lelisphere for a triple and a double. Not

More than 100 entries for the 10th annual open state tennis tournament have been received.

Because of the large number of outstate entrants, army tents and cots will be provided to all out-of-town players who wish to sleep "in the open" during, the tourney. Fifteen players took advantage of the offer last year, and the colony is expected to be much larger this year.

The loyal Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will entertain the players at the den Monday night. The annual association banquet and meeting will be held at the Field club Tuesday night. The Field club will be host at a dance Wednesday night, and Thursday will be auto and Krug park day. A party has been arranged at the Carter Lake club for Friday night. The finals of the tourney will be the main attraction of Saturday and Sunday.

Stands, accommodating 3,000 people will be erected south of courts 4, 5 and 6. Season tickets, admitting one to the ver-anda or stands, will sell for $1.50. Sin-gle tickets will sell for 50 cents.

All entries must be in by 10 p. m.

The tourney is to be run in big-league style this year. So all entries MUST be in by Sunday night. Men's entries should be sent to George Stocking and women's entries to Miss Mary Gant.

In Ball Trial

Hearing.

> By The Associated Press. Chicago, July 22.-The first story of the actual placing of bets during the 1919 world's series by men charged with the alleged conspiracy for White Sox players to throw the games was told from the witness stand in the base ball trial today by John O. Seys, secretary of the Chicago National league club. Mr. Seys identified Louis Levi of Kokomo, Ind., and Des Moines, Ia., a defendant, as one of the betters. Seys said he and Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington base ball team, held stakes for bets made by Abe At-tell and Levi, totalling $2,250. Seys testified he met Attell in the Sinton hotel in Cincinnati the night before the first game. Attel; and
