Buffaloes Take First Game of Joplin Series

Witches Lose and Now Lead Omaha by Half-Game-Glaiser Relieves Davenport in Seventh.

Barney Burch's Western leaguers moved a notch toward the top of the percentage ladder yesterday aiternoon when they trounced the Jopin Miners in the first game of the series by the score of 11 to 8. One hig inning—the fifth—in which the Omaha entry shoved six tallies across, proved more than enough to decide the issue.

Manager Burch selected long, lean Ciaude Davenport to turn the Miners back in the wash-day attraction. Other than ability to get the ball over the plate, the six-foot Buffalo twirler had very little in a pitching way. At that Davenport weathered through the first six innings and is credited with winning the game. But, aiter Cady's crew had laced his slants for three counters in the seventh on two doubles, a pair of singles and an error, he was der-ricked in favor of Mr, John Bert

When it comes to relieving pitch-ers, Glaiser is right there. When the rest of the Buffalo hurlers fall down, Burch always calls Bert to the front. He went to the front yesterday, and although it looked dark for him and his mates in the eighth, he succeed-ed in holding the Miners in check until the last Joplin player had his ime at bat

Young started for the Miners, but he received a first-class drubbing during the four innings he faced the romping Buffaloes. He allowed the locals exactly six hits, of which three were doubles.

Lingle Hits Double.

Southpaw Berger, who was trotted out from the bench in the seventh stanza, was nicked for five hits, one of these being a double by Lingle in the fifth.

D. Williams, Joplin left fielder, pulled the unexpected in the sixth frame when he clouted the ball to deep left for a fluke home run. It happened, however, that the bags were empty. To "Pug" Griffin, the heavy-hit ting Buffalo right fielder, goes the honors of collecting the most tallies of the afternoon. The husky Omaha slugger is credited with three times at bat, knocking a double and single. He walked twice and reached the initial station once on a pass, scoring a total of four runs.

Favorites Take Babe Ruth Kocks Lead in State Tennis Tourney

Match-Brown, Goodschool, Powell and Coffin Go to Second Round.

Favorites jumped into the lead in the first round of the state open tennis tourney at the Field club yesterday, but many came through after difficult battles in which the majority of the games went to deuce. The play in the tourney yesterday showed the wealth of material in this year's meet, and nothing in past years has ever come up to the standard of tennis that the present entrants are setting.

Large galleries turned out to watch the invading players, and the majority of the Missouri, California and out-state lads accounted for themselves very well. One of the hardest-fought matches of the day was between Fred Grosse of Kansas City Athletic club and Ced Potter of Lincoln, the former winning two of three sets, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2. Potter is a veteran and the most experienced player of the two. Both players did poorly the first set, although Potter did show some flashes of superb tennis that swept the Mis-sourian off his feet. But Grosse made a strong comeback in the latter part of the second set and in the third set, he showed an array of pretty shots, and rushed Potter ho was beginning to tire.
