

Negligence In Highway Paving Job Is Charged

Good Roads Committee Asks County Board to Reprimand Engineer Adams and Dismiss Inspectors.

A resolution asking that a reprimand be administered by the board of county commissioners to the late Adams, county surveyor, and the discharge of the two men whose duty it was to inspect the mixing of concrete used on the new Lincoln highway pavement, was passed yesterday by the members of the joint good roads committee which met at the Chamber of Commerce.

The discussion of the various discrepancies which were shown in the pavement during the investigation last week, was carried on by the committee members for more than two hours.

It was the opinion of the men that no grafting had been evident but that there was evidence of gross negligence on the part of men in the employ of the county.

The committee declared that as soon as the pavement is completed, it should be tested by Prof. Clark Mickey and all portions not up to standards required by state tests, be declared useless and payment refused. The resolution as adopted by the joint committee follows:

Resolved, that it is the unanimous opinion of this joint committee, composed of the representatives of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, the Omaha Automobile club, the Automobile Trade association, the Omaha Rotary club and the Omaha Live Stock exchange, after hearing the evidence introduced before the board of county commissioners, at the recent hearing, in reference to the paving on Lincoln Highway, that we concur in the report made by State Engineer Johnson to the board of county commissioners, that the inspectors, who are employed and paid by Douglas county, to see that the proper mixture of gravel and cement was used, have been very negligent in their duty, and from their interview with the engineers, their interest is with the contractors, and not with the taxpayers.

We therefore would ask the county engineer, who has been very negligent in showing by his own testimony in his duty in protecting the interest of the county and taxpayers, who have been deceived to represent, believing it is his business to win the money contract, let it be done in strict accordance with the specifications and contract.

"Mourners' Bench Having Effect on Autoists Here

The mourners' bench at Central police court is a success. "Mourners" are motorists arrested for violating parking rules. Before the mourners' bench was established 15 arrests a day were made by traffic cops. Now the average is six and seven.

Those halted before Judge Wapich yesterday to study traffic rules one hour were: Elmer Neville, 3723 Jones street; Mrs. C. L. Keyser, 17, the Kingsborough apartment, 21st and Cavanaugh, 201 South Twenty-ninth street; M. E. Howard, 2569 Fort street; A. E. Cass, 4233 Douglas street, and Charles Henning, 404 North Forty-eighth street.

Body of Bert C. Murnan Buried in Forest Lawn

Funeral services for Bert C. Murnan of Denver, who died in a Council Bluffs hospital, were held yesterday with burial in Forest Lawn cemetery, Omaha.

Mr. Murnan was a well-known live stock man, formerly a resident of Lynch, Neb. He was a brother of Charles Murnan of Denver and Dr. H. W. Murnan of Winner, S. D.

More Truth Than Poetry

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE

YOU KNOW HIM

He sees you fall and wrench your arm
And bids you not to mind a bit.
Says he: "A sprain will do no harm
And if it's broken, it will knit."
He sits beside your bed of pain,
As on the brink of death you hover,
And murmurs: "If you stand the strain
The chances are that you'll recover."

If you have had a motor smash,
This bird is certain to appear
And say: "Oh that will be all right,
You'll have another car next year."
You lose your job, and do not know
However you can live without it.
He says, in soothing tones and low,
"It does no good to fret about it."

Your house burns, on a winter night,
And as you view it, in despair
He says: "Oh that will be all right,
There's lots of houses everywhere."
Your girl picks up another John
And leaves you plunged in tears of sorrow;
He says serenely: "Carry on!
You'll find some other Jane tomorrow!"

Your worries never make him blue
He's never worried or distressed,
Whatever troubles trouble you,
He says serenely: "Carry on!
And if you look into his eyes
And read the kindly thoughts that fill him,
If you are human, you will rise,
And take a rock or club and kill him."

HE'S LISTENING FOR 'EM NOW

Man Tells of Finding Wife With Other Man

Max M. Blau charges that he came home one day and found his wife with a "certain Omaha business man" whose name he will give to the court if required to do so.

He says this in answer filed yesterday in district court to the divorce suit filed against him by his wife, Belle, 2659 Farnam street, two months ago.

He forgave her and took her back, he says, but a week ago she told him that she had merely become reconciled "to protect the business man" and that her husband was a fool to take her back.

Blau asks for a divorce and custody of their 3-year-old child. Mrs. Blau's petition states that she has always been a true and obedient wife but that Blau has cursed and threatened her. He earns $250 a month as a shoe salesman, she says, and she asks $125 a month alimony.

Colonial Worth Only $45,000 Owner Declares in Petition

The Colonial apartment house at Thirty-eighth and Farnam streets is worth only $45,000 and the ground on which it stands is worth only $9,000, declares Thomas D. Crane, vice president of the company that owns the property, in a petition filed in district court yesterday asking that the county assessor be ordered to assess it at these figures instead of $80,000 for the building and $16,600 for the ground.

Nebraska Clothing Salesman Sued for Divorce by His Wife

William C. Wingstedt, salesman for the Nebraska Clothing company, was sued for divorce by his wife, Marie, yesterday in district court. They were married April 14, 1920, and she says he has refused to provide a home for her, insisting that they live with his parents. She has been compelled to earn her own living, she alleges. She asks restoration of her maiden name, Bogenreif.

Lincoln Woman's Great Improvement Excites Remark Among Those Who Know Her

"I just can't begin to tell all the good Tanlac did me," said Mrs. Sarah Learmont, 2238 R street, Lincoln, Neb.

"I had stomach trouble in a bad form and nothing I ate agreed with me. My kidneys bothered me a good deal, too, and my back hurt, especially right above my kidneys. I don't believe anybody ever had such awful headaches as I did, and sometimes I had dizzy spells so I could hardly stand on my feet. I was always taking laxatives, but they didn't seem to do me any good."

"I had not been taking Tanlac long when my friends were amazed at the change and would ask me what in the world I had been doing to improve so much. The change in my condition certainly was remarkable, and I kept on improving until I was entirely well. I eat anything I want now and never have a touch of indigestion. I sleep as sound as a child at night and wake up in the morning feeling bright and happy. Tanlac has just been an untold blessing to me."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by the Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.

Home Without Milk Not Real Home for Baby

Bee's Milk and Ice Fund Has Benefited Hundreds During Sweltering Summer Months.

"No home is a real home without a baby in it," wrote V. H. Goerke of Burr, Neb., enclosing a $5 check for The Bee milk and ice fund.

But likewise, no home is a real home for baby without at least sufficient nourishing milk to make that infant life possible to grow to sturdy health.

It is with the knowledge that hundreds of little folk have benefited in this way that The Bee is closing its annual summer fund August 1, with total proceeds more than $1,000.

The fund includes:

Previously acknowledged	$1,018.86
V. H. Goerke, Burr, Neb.	5.00
Mary Clara Buchtel	1.50
Mrs. A. T. Kloppe	5.00
Total	$1,030.36

Bodies of Omaha Girls To Remain in France

Graves of Omaha girls who died and were buried in France during the war will remain undisturbed. Relatives of Miss Marion Crandall, the first American woman killed in active service in France, and of Miss Mand M. Butler, also buried there, have notified government officials they prefer to have the bodies left in France.

Miss Crandall was a graduate of Central High school. She was killed during a German bombardment on St. Menchould, and was buried the next day with full military honors in the soldiers' rest at St. Menchould—the only woman's grave among those of 6,000 soldiers.

Miss Butler, who went over in Red Cross clerical work and who died in Paris January 2, 1919, is buried in the American cemetery at Suresnes, a suburb of Paris.

Court Accepts Predivorce Agreements of Wrights

Percy A. Wright and his wife, Mabel, presented to District Judge Goss yesterday afternoon a predivorce agreement which they had both signed whereby Mabel gets the household goods, custody of their child, 8, and $10 a week for 20 weeks.

Though Percy was the plaintiff, the decree of divorce was granted by Judge Goss to Mrs. Wright on grounds of cruelty. The agreement was filed in the court archives with the decree.
