OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 31, 1921. Oklahoma City Redskins Turn On Buffaloes and Win Second Game, 3 to 1

Mitchell Hurls Good Contest For Visitors

"Slim" Davenport Allows Southerners Seven Hits-Errors Costly for Omaha; Double-Header Today.

Dick Breen's Redskins from Oklahoma City turned on the Omaha Buffaloes yesterday afternoon at the Fifteenth and Vinton street pasture and chased the herd out of a 3 to 1 victory in the second and final game of the series.

The contest was a pitching duel between "Southpaw" Mitchell of the Oklahoma City tribe and "Slim" Davenport of the Buffaloes, with the victory going to the lanky Redskin. An error, a single and double ruined the local's chances of cleaning the series with the Indians. Wright was first up in the fifth, He lined one down to "Mike" Massey. The heat must have troubled the Suffalo shortstop as he permitted the sphere to glide through his mitts. Parker singled to right and Wright

ond. Runser popped out and then the fireworks started for fair. Pitt spanked the ball out to left for a two-base blow and Wright and Mitchell breezed across the platter with the two runs that put the Indians in the lead to stay.

when Mitchell forced Parker at sec-

One Buffalo trotted over the pan in the fourth in the person of "Little" Fred Haney. The Buffalo thirdsacker drew a base on balls to start the spasm with and advanced to secend on Lee's sacrifice. Lelivelt clouted out a double to left and Haney scampered down to third. "Pug" Griffin dragged himself up to the plate amid the cheers of the customers and knocked a beaut of a sacrifice out to Mr. Moore. In the meantime Haney scored the lone Buffalo tally.

Chicago, July 30.-Young Jack Schaefer, it was learned today, has taken up golf to improve his billiard play, which threatened last winter to outdo the wizardry of his father. The young balk line player has decided to make Chicago his home after living for some time in San Francisco. Charles Tennes, his manager, has posted a purse of $2,500 for a match between Schaefer and any other billiard player in the world.

Giants and Reds Split Double Bill

New York Wins First Game, 8 to 1, While Cincinnati Captures Second, 12-1.

Cincinnati, O., July 30.-New York and Cincinnati broke even today in a double-header, the local National club taking the first game, 8 to 1, and the Giants the second, 12 to 1. In the first game Marquard pitched a fine game for the Reds, while Toney was hit hard and was replaced by Ryan after the fourth inning, who lasted three rounds when Causey relieved him.

In the second game New York pounded Luque hard for four runs in a little over four innings when Eller and Geary followed and neither was able to stop batters. Barnes steadily. Kelly made his 18th home-

Johnston's Hitting Wins for Indians

Veteran Player Collects Homer, Triple and Single-Ruth Gets 37th Home Run.

New York, July 30.—The splendid hitting of the veteran, Wheeler Johnston, and good pitching by Coveleskie, enabled Cleveland to win an easy victory over the New York Americans, 16 to 1. Johnston clinched the game for Cleveland while Shawkey was pitching. His home run in the second drove in three runs, while his triple in the third sent in two more runs and knocked Shawkey out of the box. Johnston's single off Collins in the fifth sent in two more
