Up-to-Date News and Gossip of Interest to Sport Fans

Champ to Face Lew Tendler on Philly's Diamond

Herman Taylor, Philadelphia Promoter, Signs Pair After Seven Months of Wrangling.

By RAY PEARSON.

When George L.—and that means "Tex —Rickard pulled that wonderful battle between Champion Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier at Jersey City on July 2, a battle that smashed to smithereens all other fistic attraction records in the matter of gate receipts, this man Rickard set a mark for other aspiring promoters to shoot at. There are plenty of other promoters, but where in the world is there a man who would take the chances that Tex

When he leased Madison Square Garden in New York for a period of 10 years there were a lot of people who said that Tex was iraming to go broke. But instead of going broke, Rickard in the short time be has controlled the garden has made a lot of money, showing definitely that playing for big stakes is a profitable game—at least for Rick-

Introducing Mr. Taylor. But this is not meant for a story about Tex Rickard, it is meant to tell of the efforts of a man other than Rickard. The facts mentioned above are necessary because they show just how difficult is the task of any man who seeks to rival Rick-The man we have in mind is a young man in Philadelphia. His name is Herman Taylor, and he hops into fistic prominence at this time because he is going to stage a world's championship of his own in the Quaker city on the afternoon of Taylor has lined up Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia southpaw. who is given a chance to dethrone Leonard, Leonard, of course, will be the favorite in the betting, but Tend- is evident that he was not "the pet ler has a chance for wictoroy, and a mighty good one, at that.

Reticent Sort of Promoter.

Taylor's intimates in the east years ago nicknamed Taylor, "Muggsy" says nice things about other people.

While in Atlantic City a couple of well-merited.

months ago camp of Jack Dempsey, I became acquainted with Taylor. At that time he was staging the Saturday night, boxing shows at Atlantic City. Pecoming friendly, "Muggsy" and the writer engaged in boardwalk conversation, and Taylor told us a few things which at that time were not for publication,

Here's what he said: "Well, I hopped over to Philadelphia today and I leased the Philadelphia National league base ball park. I'm planning to hold some good battles there, and don't be at all surprised if I put on a world's championship shortly."

championship he had in mind.

Leased Philly Park.

"I have been working on Leonard months, trying to sign them up for a any headway. But I'll tell you one thing, and that is that I'm going to land this match. I've gone ahead and leased the Philly park, because I am confident that I'll clinch it. That is how confident I feel about it.

Less than a month after that conversation we heard from Philadelphia (not from Promoter Taylor) that Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler would battle for the world's championship for Herman Taylor on the afternoon of August 12.

Goes A-Fishin; His First Cast

Fish stories are now being comfishing at Forest and Sylvan lakes, durance and dash. He hooked a bass so large that it made him nervous and instead of

Then the rod was jerked from his where the water is both swift and hands and went zig ragging through deep. the woods with Sanborn after it. the rod and following the line to the more of a bottom feeder than the by folks nowadays. end he discovered he had hooked a large rabbit through the ear.

No, he isn't carrying that rabbit's foot because rabbits, while plentiful the casting rod, he should use lures around the lakes, are out of season.

Carpentier Is an American Boxer, as Regards Style

In one way, Georges Carpentier is more of an American boxer than a European. Away back in his boy-Lood Carpentier was first taught the came Willie Lewis, American mas-

Matches Leanard and Tendler When Other Promoters Give Up

HERMAN TAYLOR.

English Unfair

Act Unsportsmanlike at Wimbledon Where Tilden Retained Tourney Title.

William T. Tilden II. It will be re- games to the lowly teams, but they're membered that when he landed from England some days ago he refused to make any comment or criticism upon his treatment at the hards of to make any comment or criticism upon his treatment at the hands of Tendler, the Philadelphia southpaw, Tendler is the one man in the world match at Wimbledon. By so doing Tilden has revealed himself the true champion in more ways than one. It of Wimbledon" this year. Frank Poxon, an English expert, writes in the London Daily News as "First of all, the crowd could not accurately be described as a sporting Taylor, but why such a handle one. Many people evidently went to should be slipped to Herman is hard Wimbledon to see Tilden beaten, and to figure out. When he talks-and it is deplorable, indeed, when it behe doesn't talk very often-he has comes necessary for the umpire to something to say that is worth lis- rise in his chair and ask an English tening to. He is quiet spoken and crowd to "play the game." That hap-

These are the days when the fes- ing bait. The deep water rig, detive vacationist, possessed of two scribed in this department last week, of a record muskellunge, goodly strings of black bass, or heavy bastorrid summers like the present, he is doomed to more or less disappointregion of the great lakes and British a general favorite. He is to the adult to small boys.

Another valuable feature of the due to the fact that he may be fried baked, or boiled with equally pleasing results. Yes, the wall-eye is

The writer has caught wall-eyes over the greater part of their natural range, at all seasons of the year and with all sorts of tackle and methods: Catches Rabbit there is no fish that varies greater in game qualities. We have caught more spirit than a bag of drowned bined with "out of season" game kittens. Then, just when we became varns. V. J. Sanborn, a Cleveland convinced that the wall-eye is a false sportsman, had an experience that alarm as a fighter, we have hooked beat all yarns, while enjoying a day's some that fought with amazing en-

By preference the wall-eye is a fish playing it, he gave the rod a yank of deep water with sand or gravel the earth, seems to be made probthat unbooked the fish and threw bottom, resorting to the deep "holes" his hook into the bushes behind him. in lakes, but coming into the shallows goslings bred by the sun's heat, and Judge his surprise then when the to feed, especially towards evening. hook started a strike that kept his In rivers they generally are found in hatched of trees." reel buzzing until the end of his line the vicinity of dams, in the pools at the foot of riffles, and other places breeding from dew and young geese

Ordinary black bass tackle is suit-After again gaining possession of able for wall-eye fishing. Being more absurd than many views held bass, the wall-eye is not as willing to If the angler wants to take him with

> A good-sized minnow, well weight ed, with or without a spinner, and

Winner of Match to Receive Gold Belt Emblematic of Title

Garden or the big Jersey City arena the European and American eels.

Manager Gibson Keeps Pirates

Says Players Must Play Better Ball to Beat Giants Who Follow in Next to Top

New York, July 30.—(Special.)— George Gibson, manager of the Pirates, has kept his men out in front, save for a brief 24 hours, in which the Giants held the lead, since the opening of the season, and he means to keep them there right through to the New Orleans "string bean," who the finish, but he realizes that to do was one of Dempsey's sparring partso will be far from an easy task. "The race has been pretty tight so far," he said, "but its going to tight-en up considerably from now on. We've managed, by playing consistent ball, to cling to first place so far, but if we are going to stay here himself alone and we've got good results because every man is helping everybody else. There isn't a troublemaker on the team."

This Giant team is a real team. They've got a lot of ability and a lot of pluck, like Giant teams always have had. Once in a while they fall into a slump and are made to look bad, perhaps, but just just when you think they're starting to slip, they bounce right back to you. New York, July 30 .- (Special.) - Like all Giant teams I have seen, Americans, of whatever sporting and I've seen a lot of them, they are proclivities, may well be proud of pressed. They may toss off a few

> Tribute to Greatness When Fans Ferret Out Jock's "Buried" Name

CINCE his victory over the best golf talent of John Bull's own back yard in the British open, Jock Hutchison, the Chicago professional, has thousands of admirers. As a tribute to greatness, the fans of the country are getting acquainted with his middle name, which, although nearly buried by Jock, is "Fowler"-Jock Fowler Hutchison in full. And in keeping with his name, Jock is considerable of a shotgun artist.

WOODS and WATERS

golden weeks of LIFE, liberty and baited with a night crawler, is a the pursuit of happiness, treks to the killer for taking wall-eyes in streams. north woods. If he be of piscatorial It may either be cast and reeled proclivities, he goes with high hopes slowly or dragged behind a drifting kets of trout. Often, especially in What Do You Know About Eels? The eel does not rank high as a sporting proposition. In the waters ment unless he packs a potent horse- of the middle west this fish is genshoe, but while those major game erally taken by chance when bait We listened with polite attention and then asked "Muggsy" what fishes may sulk, said vacationist will fishing for commoner kinds. It is a generally find the old reliable wall- fact, however, that when an eel is eye doing business at ye old stand. taken it is considered a great prize, Truly the wall-eye is a fish of the perhaps because of its comparative people. His wide distribution-he is scarcity, as well as its deserved and Tendler for seven and a half found from the Susquehanna, the reputation as a choice food fish.

While few of us ever go eel fishchampionship tilt. A lot of other America, southward to Georgia—as ing, all of us have wondered about promoters have been trying to do the well as his willingness to bite when the habits of this most mysterious same thing, but don't seem to make other fishes are "off feed," make him of fishes. In fact, the eel has always aroused the curiosity of man vacationist what his smaller cousin, and to this day many of the absurd the yellow perch, and the sunfish are beliefs of the ancients concerning this fish are still accepted as truth by many uninformed folks. The Greeks, who were among the wall-eye is his high quality as a food earliest students of fish life, found His flesh is snow white, flaky the breeding habits of the eel a great and of fine flavor; in the opinion of mystery. Being both a poetical and some experts he is without a peer, a practical people, they solved the problem, to their own satisfaction at least, by aftributing the eel to Jupiter, who was supposed to be the father of every child of doubtful paternity.

Aristotle thought that eels sprung from the mud of the sea, while Pliny was of the opinion that they came from slime rubbed off the fish. Twelve hundred years later Albertus good-sized ones that displayed no Magnus agreed with Pliny's theory, although Aristotle's views were generally accepted for more than 2,000

> Said good old Izaak Walton in 1653: "But that eels may be bred, as some kinds of worms and some kinds of bees and wasps are, either of dew or out of the corruption of able by the barnacles and young the rotting planks of old ships and

Don't laugh. The idea of eels growing on trees-Gerhard showed a picture of a tree bearing geese in his "Herball," printed in 1633—is no

It was not until the 18th century rise to the surface for casting lures, that the female eel was differentiated, and the male eel remained a mystery until 1873. Incidentally, a male eel never exceeds 15 inches in Eels are catadromous. That is, they live in fresh water, and go to the sea to spawn, as distinguished ble for technique. He is French bred and weight class are the only ones not species breeds a little west and south had to be content with begrimed batting, according to the New York two or three years ago. The 'lively logs from head to foot team.'

Rickard Denies Jack-Bill Bout

In First Place Latest Challenge of Brennan Is Burke, Dempsey's Sparring Partner.

> New York, July 30 .- (Special.)-Tex Rickard denies that he has signed Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight champion, and Bill Brennan, the Chicago boxer, for a title hout to be held somewhere in the metropolitan district on Labor day, A new challenger of Bill Brennan has bobbed up. He is Matty Burke, ners when the champion was preparing for his bout with Carpentier. Burke says he now is ready to tackle Brennan, Fulton, Mike Gibbons or any other top-notch heavyweight but he prefers to take on Brennan. Burke has had plenty of experiwe'll have to do even better. I real- ence, but his light weight was a big that and so do the players. We handicap to him. Recently he has all feel that the next two months filled out considerably and now is and a half will be the hardest, but sturdy enough to tackle any of the we're ready for the hardest kind of big fellows. After taking Dempsey's battling. There is a finer spirit on thinks he is fully capable of assimiany club. No man is pulling for lating anything that may come his The New Orleans candidate for heavyweight honors is 23 years old,

Giant Rookie Making Hit With Gotham Fans

Bill Cunningham, the Giants' rookie outfielder, who is more than making good, was purchased from Seattle and joined the Giants last stands 6 feet, 3 inches and weighs month. Since then he has shown all To Tennis Champ Maker on the team.

With all due respect to the Braves and the others, right here is where we must look for the toughest proption.

With all due respect to the Braves and fishing condition. He is a very clever boxer and faster than most of the big fellows.

To Tennis Champ

Bob Fitzsimmons Socked Boxer So Hard That the Poor Chap Imagined He Had Won World's Championship commenting on the possible outcome of the trial in progress in Chicago

Walter Kelly, the southern "jedge," | Still dazed and with the cheers old boys, including Jeffries, Corbett. Fitzsimmons and the late Stanley Ketchel, Kelly was the constant companion of Jeffries when the big boilermaker was training for contest with Jack Johnson. The 'jedge" also happened to be on the same bill with old Fitz when the freckled fellow was was knocking them all cuckoo, offering $1,000 to any one who thought he could stay four rounds with him. 'Those were the sweet days," said Kelly. "Old Bob was a most interesting character, and how that spindle-legged fellow could sock! I can Wall Eye, the Vacationist's Fish precled slowly, makes an effective cast- recall with pleasant memories some of the didoes Bob would go through in pasting the ambitious boys who Partner Scares Challengers. fore they had a chance to see the hands against Bob. the champ is in an ugly mood today; would advise the aspiring one. knees would begin to knock.

Celt Not Intimidated, "But one night a sorrel topped, deep chested Irishman breezed into the theater determined to make a try for the thousand iron men. Hickey siastic about their skill in base line tried to put the works on the fiery stroking upon hard courts. Celt with his, 'how far do you want Fyzee brothers are regarded as to go' stuff, but the Irishman had his among the most formidable of long own ideas, and insisted that he was in range players in the world. there to get the thousand and give the champion a good licking.

that Irishman and Fitz had an awful time of it. The youngster was very strong and really could fight. They were tearing into each other in the third round with the Celt holding his own, when Fitz suddenly sunk his left hand through the Irishman and followed it with a terrific right smash to the jaw and the Irishman dropped like a thousand of brick.

"That fellow was out for about five minutes and when he came to he found the ring deserted except 16 and 17—the exact date will be ball" is near at hand. With other turn to former conditions is imperaworking furiously over him with the gloves against some good boy in the fear that he had been killed announced later—Benny will don the sure that the "old ball" is being Ale Thinks He's the Champion. "The poor fellow did not know

Giants Scramble for Clean Clothes; Earl Smith Receives Best

New York, July 30 .- (Special.)ludging by the appearance of several players on the Giant team a few days ago a small consignment of wash must have been received at the clubhouse, precipating a lively scramfrom amadromous fishes-salmon, thereof. Granted that there was such Fewster of the Yankees came up in shad, etc.—that ascend to fresh a scramble, Earl Smith must have the fifth inning with a bat that would water only to spawn. Just where won it, for he appeared in a spick not pass inspection by the umpire. the spawning of eels takes place was and span uniform, shirt and trousers Umpire Owens discovered that it a mystery until last year, when a obviously fresh from the mangling was reinforced at its batting end kood Carpentier was first tadgit to the famous game by Frank Erne, the famous American lightweight. Then he had Kid McCoy for a teacher. Then Gibbons world's light to the famous obviously fresh from the mangling distinguished Danish scientist, Dr. Johannes Schmidt of Copenhagen, in the free for all were Ross Young after many years of seeking, discovage and Frank Frisch, who hobbed up fewster get another bat. heavyweight championship bout, to after many years of seeking, discov- and Frank Frisch, who bobbed up ter, and finished what the first two be staged either in Madison Square ered the breeding grounds of both in clean trosuers, which fairly glistened by comparison with their Georges is, therefore, not contine the second week of October next, nental taught. The discredited English school, from which France took winner with one of his gold-studded grees north and 60 degrees west, al- missed out in a grab for trousers or nailing it up was to preserve the up the "boxe" sport within the last of the most in midocean, hundreds of miles couldn't find a pair to fit him. The bat, rather than any intention of reto den effectiveness is due to the restoration of the ball that was in use who loves a scrap about as well as ringing in his ears, the game young idea, however, is that the result of fellow made his way to the foot- the trial will have no marked effect lights and set himself for a little on the future of the game itself.

ness, and now that I have won the can public already has handed out fend my title against any man in scandal. the world.' Then they led the poor mug off. It was a day later before he found out he was not champion. "Yes, boys, those were the sweet days, and ah, how old Bob could soak. There wasn't any one grab-bing that thousand if he knew it."

Hindu Players To Play in U.S.

India's Best Racquet Swingers to Compete for Davis Cup.

New York, July 30 .- (Special.)-While American lawn tennis players would step up for a try at the may momentarily hold to disappointment because of the decision of France not to send its Davis cup "Fitz had Dan Hickey for a part- team to this country, there is due ner in those days, and it was Dan's compensation in the fact that the duty to greet the aspiring ones be- sensational players of India will ar-Of course the rive here shortly. champ. Dan would 'put the works' defeat of the French team was foreon the poor hicks and scare them shadowed by the statement of Wilfrom England. The famous Ameri-Dan would greet him with a full arm lieve that Andre H. Gobert and the slap on the back, shaking a year's others were not equal to standing growth out of him. 'Now, listen, kid, against the men from southern Asia. By all odds the brilliancy and rehow far do you want to go?' Dan markable playing of the team representing India has been the outstand-"Generally the simp wanted it ing feature of the season on Euroright over with, and, to add to his pean courts. There are a number confusion, Dan would yell an aside to of skillful players in the group, Fitz, 'That fellow who went on last headed by A. A. Fyzee and his night has not died, as first reported.' brother, Dr. A. H. Fyzee. Among About this time the challenger's the others are S. M. Jacob, who is the captain of the team; Mr. Sleem, L. S. Deane, Singh Barpur and Das Mersingh. Theose who have watched these players from India bave been enthu-

"They could not do a thing with Leonard to Box for Entertainment Of Wounded Soldiers

New York, July 30.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, has gone to White Sulphur Springs, where he will train for his eight-round bout against Lew Tend- land Alexander, star pitcher of the hitting games. But as the season heats in 1:59, 2:00, and 2:0034. ler in Philadelphia on Friday, Au- Chicago Cubs, believes that the progresses, I think you'll see better gust 12. On the following Monday, alimination of the progresses, I think you'll see better gust 12. On the following Monday, Tucsday or Wednesday, August 15, big boxing tournament which will be staged at United States hospital No. 61, Fox Hills, Staten Island, for "The poor fellow did not know where he was and the audience gave him a great hand for his game fight.

No. 61, Fox Hills, Staten Island, tor that up to July 4 the ball used in the entertainment of the 1,000 sick the National league was "lively," epidemic of long-distance batting. Says the famous righthander. "I says the famous righthander. are confined there. never experienced the slightest dif- of the ball still insist, however, that Leonard is only one of a score of ficulty in controlling the ball prior it has not been altered famous ring celebrities who have promised to be on hand to help the to that date. The glossy cover didn't hamper my delivery at all. I boys at Fox Hills forget their aches, was able to curve the ball as well pains, troubles and worries. as ever, and I used as much speed

Find Fewster of Yankees Using Nail-Studded Bat could handle. The ball would take a game of the recent big se- one or two swift bounds and shoot ries between the rival first place over the heads of the infielders, who claimants of the American league- didn't have time to get near it. clean uniforms or parts Cleveland and New York-Chick Somewhat less fortunate with numerous small nails, and made

The one Fewster had to discard is the one with which he made four

Public Rallies To Support Of Purged Majors

Fans Turn to Sox Despite Second Division Rating-Gandil Octet Cannot Kill Game.

It is rather significant that, while the cheap, sordid details of the world's series scandal of 1919 were being aired in the courts of Cook county, the clean members of the aggregation involved in those proceedings have been going along about their business and drawing unusually large crowds for a second division outfit. And, in passing, it may be mentioned that the Cubs, one of whose games really brought the present scandal into court, have been patronized better than they would have been in any other city, in a similar position in the race,

Much has been spoken and considerable written about the ill effects on the national pastime from the turning up of the crooks of 1919. Results have shown that the base ball public still is confident of the honesty of the diamond sport, and the great majority of the players.

Nation's Safety Valve. The nation's outdoor safety valve will continue to operate and thrive as long as the fans are of the opinion that the doubtful characters have been eliminated from the game. There must be no hesitation on the part of club owners to hand out the same punishment to any of their men that was given the eight sus-pected White Sox, if there is a reasonable doubt of their honesty.

Fear of lese majesty prevents ommenting on the possible outcome when this is typeritwten. Perhaps it would be better to say that respect championship I stand ready to de- to the players implicated in the 1919

No Time for Cheap Cheating. The panhandler and the dip, who go out after small change, are not greatly respected by even the crooks of America. But the guy who can get away with a million dollar steal some sentiment favorable to the banished White Sox among a certain class of Chicagoans until the details of the trial brought out the report that they were willing to cheat for small change. If they had gone wrong for something like $100,000
wrong for something like $100,000 All, or nearly all, of the horses of coaches will bend every effort to send well drilled elevens on the field.

Maroons and Purple Clash.
Northwestern and Chicago will start preparations for their clash being forgiven, but not for $100,000 the stables of Harry Payne Whit-split eight ways, when they didn't even get that. Where base ball will profit most from the exposures before the Cook county court fans, and by pitiless newspaper publicity throughout the country, is the realization that must be forced on the patrons that it requires a lot of crooks to pull anything crooked in base ball. Takes Many for Frameup. One or two men on a team cannot deliver the goods to the gamblers if the rest are on the level, and, in half to death before they put up their ham T. Tilden, II, upon his arrival spite of the disclosures of the present County Jockey club's summer meetmonth, or perhaps because of them. "The moment one of them showed can at that time was inclined to be- base ball patronage has not fallen off in the spot where the spotlight is fiercest.

The Devlin quartet could not kill base ball in the '70s, when it was an infant compared to its present stature. The Gandil octet cannot kill the game in this century.

Star Racehorse Rivals

Return as 4-Year-Olds Now that both Purchase and Eternal, strong rivals as 3-year-olds in 1919, have successfully returned to the turf as winners on eastern tracks there is a probability of a renewal of their rivalry during the campaign at Saratoga, Purchase beat Eternal the first time they met as 3-year-olds, but gradually substituted for the "rab- who

"There isn't a doubt in my mind as in former years. But the batters lined out safe drives that nobody

"Home runs were frequently made by batters who once were unable to three bases. No matter how hard the pitchers worked, the result was the same-abnormal slugging and big scores. I began to notice a difference in the ball soon after July and now I am dead sure that a

"Many good pitchers now are beginning to check the hitting and run

In my ouinion, their sud-change is contemplated by the pow ers that be.

drive the ball for more than two or

Alexander Predicts Elimination Of elimination of the so-called "lively the National league circuit.

"Lively Ball" Is Soon at Hand

Secretary of State Welfare Department

Lincoln, Neb., July 30.—(Special.) -H. H. Antles, secretary of the department of welfare for the state of Nebraska, will keep an "eagle eve" on the boxing and wrestling bouts held in Nebraska under the new bill legalizing the sport.

Although "Lum" Doyle, commissioner, will issue permits and grant licenses, Secretary Antles will see that the state is protected when-ever a show is held.

Famous Horses to

Spent on Famous New York Upstate Course.

New York, July 30 .- The thoroughbreds that are to make the impending August session of the is looked up to by a certain percent- Saratoga association a greater inage of the population. There was terstate and international race meet- important early season games of the some sentiment favorable to the ban- ing than any of the last 12 cr 15 year, and, as victory for either will

> Payne Whitney, Spalding L. Jen-kins, Dr. M. J. Cromwell, A. K. Macomber, William R. Coe, Thomas W. O'Brien, Hal K. Knapp, Samuel D. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. give battle to Purdue on Stagg field Jeffords, J. S. Cosden, Edward F. on the same day. Simms, Hal Parr, Joseph E. Widener, George D. Widener, Mrs. F. Am brose Clark, John Sanford and Ioseph E. Davis were shipped up from Aqueduct and Belmont park immediately after the finish of the Queens

Fred Fulton Trains "Whitey" for Match

Wymore, Neb., July 30 .- (Special.) -Additional interest has been awakened in the 10-round boxing match in Wymore August 19 between Whitey fulton and Johnny Sudenburg of Omaha by the arrival of Whitey's big brother, Fred Fulton of Minneapelis who will train Whitey for the match

Long Rugby Trip. Australia's Rugby team, which is to tour England soon, left Sydof Sweep when they met in the for San Francisco on the first leg Atlanta Now Is Brooklyn handicap last year. Pur- of its journey. From San Francisco chase, in this race, attempted to make the Kangaroo players will go by a weight concession to his rival, and train to New York, thence to Eng-

Alexander is among those players "lively ball" was introduced with the idea that the public enthusiastic over

Remember _

Airedale Kennels

when in need of that better airedale. Visitors welcome. Puppies from our prize-winning strain ready

78th and Dodge

The Pappio

for you.

believe that

College Elevens To Take Earlier Start This Year

Need Drill for Big Game at Season's Outset - Notre Dame to Play Iowa University.

In another two weeks preparations for the opening of the 1921 feet ball season will be well under way. Calls for candidates will be issued and the foot ball paraphernalia hauled out of storage, Chalk lines will be laid on the gridirons and goal posts erected. Owing to number of important early season clashes, it will be imperative for a number of big col-STIEHM lege squads to start (Indiana Coach) practice earlier than usual. Although the Western conference teams are prohibited by rule from starting practice as organized squads until September 15, orders will be issued shortly for the men to begin individual training and report in the best physical condi-

Indiana will be the first middle west team to go into action in an intersectional game of importance. On October 8, the Hoosiers are scheduled to play Harvard at Cambridge, Coach Stiehm had a successful spring practice season and has a fairly good idea of the men whom he must depend upon for success

The Indiana menter will send instructions to all his candidates with-Race at Saratoga structions to all his candidates within the next two weeks to start trainspeech.

"'Ladies and gentlemen,' he be"'Ladies and gentlemen,' he began. 'I thank you for your kindgreater than that which the Amerigreater than that which the AmeriQuarter of Million Dollars

"American give to a defendant greater than that which the American greater than the great ing. Foot balls will be sent the punttheir skill when the official opening day of practice arrives. Indiana will be strong again this year, and Coach Stiehm has high hopes of giving Johnny Harvard an interesting early season battle. Notre Dame and Iowa, two of the leading elevens in the middlewest, are slated to clash at Iowa City on October 8. This will be one of the indicate a successful season, the start preparations for their class ney, John H. Rosseter, Walter J. immediately after the opening day Salmon, Admiral Cary T. Grayson, of practice. These elevens will meet Samuel Ross of Washington, Mrs. on Stagg field, October 1, while both have important contests on the following week-end. The Purple will meet Manesota at Minneapolis, on October 8, while the Maroons will

Ohio State, last year's Big Ten champions, will swing into conference action on October 15 by meeting Minnesota at Columbus, while Illinois will open its Big Ten season with Iowa on the latter's gridiron on the same day. Michigan will not play its opening game until October 22, when Ohio State will be met at Ann Arbor in a game which will dedicate the Wolverine's new sta-

While the above mentioned clashes will attract considerable attention, the intersectional battle be tween Chicago and Princeton on the latter's field on October 22 overshadow all other October games. It will be the first of a twogame series, as the contract calls for the Tigers to come west in 1922. Princeton will have a great team, while Chicago will be stronger than was figured by most gridiron fans who saw the team in action last

Harness Center

Atlanta has become the most popular southern meeting place for horsemen. The Lakewood plant is considered one of the country's best. The Atlanta track came into prominence in 1916 when Lee Axworthy set its record at 1:5934, which was not lowered until last year, when New York, July 30.-Grover Cleve- there, which accounts for the heavy world's record for three consecutive The fact that each year more horsemen with larger stables ship to Atlanta speaks well for the officials of the Southeastern Fair association, under whose auspices the meets there are held. Atlanta is the only southern city outside of Lexington that has Grand circuit racing, and the Southeastern fair and the New York fair are the only two fair associations that have ever attempted to stage a Grand cir-

Every Motorcycle and Bicycle OMAHA BICYCLE CO.