$200,000 Worth Of Postal Loot Has Been Found

Man Said to Be "Brains" of Gigantic Robbery Trust Arrested by Government Agents.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—That the gov-ernment made no mistake when its agents arrested John W. Worthing-ton, alleged brains and head of a gi gantic mail robbery trust, was proven today when the seizure of two large suitcases, from his office in the "Central Securities company" yielded bonds and securities worth at least

Some of them have already been identified as some of the Dearborn street station loot, some were stolen in the Toledo raid and it is said there are some of the oil stocks recently stolen from the Sinclair company's office in New York.

"We absolutely have the goods on Worthington," said Col. John V. Clinnin of the government forces. "In addition to the Toledo, Sinclair and Dearborn station bonds, we found a considerable number of war saving certificates and canceled internal revenue stamps, 'washed' by an illegal process so they could be used a second time.

Ask New Indictments.

Bonds for Worthington and Evans have been set at $50,000 each. Under a new federal court regulation, real estate worth four times this amount must be scheduled before the men can be released. When additional indictments are returned, it is planned to increase the bonds.

"Lefty" Lewis, said to be one of Worthington's lieutenants, is said to be under arrest in Detroit. He recently made a sensational escape from a jail in San Francisco while awaiting trial for murder. In Bad Humor.

Worthington was brought in from Waukegan today. He had forgotten his false teeth and was in ugl humor. To a reporter who sought to interview him he replied:

"Fade away boy, fade away; you give me a pain. These charges are bum. They haven't a thing on me." More evidences of Worthington's activities came to light when the Alma Development company Alma, Mich., petitioned the tederal court to declare Worthington bank-It is claimed be failed to turn over $16,700 for first mortgages he had sold for the company.
