

Thrills in Store For Grownups at Parks This Week

Horseshoe Pitching and "Hot Dog" Feasts to Feature "Play Week" at City Preserves.

All sorts of thrills are being prepared by Park Commissioner J. B. Hummel for "grownups play week," which will be held in the parks every evening during this week. The fun will be fast and furious, according to the park commissioner. The event will be a tournament horseshoe throwing at Miller park Tuesday evening, beginning at 7. Mr. Hummel is something of a horseshoe tosser himself. All who can pitch equine footwear are invited to this tournament, which will be open to all residents of Douglas county.

Plan Croquet Games.

Among the Miller park horseshoe champs Clarence Paul, Harry Hoover, Will Barnett, Louis Marchant and John McClellan. Commissioner Hummel believes this event will bring out the talent. On the same evening and at the same park a series of croquet games will be arranged for those who do not throw horseshoes.

Another important event during this special week of play for the grownups will be a costume party and dance at Kountze park Tuesday night.

On Tuesday night at Fontenelle park there will be races for fathers and mothers, a circus for the kiddies and a "hot dog" feast for all.

Band to Give Fourth City Concert Today at Hanscom

City Concert club's fourth municipal band concert will be held this evening at 5 o'clock in Hanscom park. The band will consist of 35 pieces, directed by Arthur E. Smith. Thousands of persons have attended previous band concerts given in city parks under the auspices of the City Concert club. The number of these concerts to be given on the few remaining Sundays of the summer depends on the number of contributions which are sent the City Concert club, 940 First National Bank building.

Plans are now under way for a concert in Riverview park next Sunday.

Omaha Cat Club to Launch Campaign for Membership

Lovers, owners and breeders of Persian and Angora cats, pedigreed or not, will be approached soon in a membership campaign to be launched by the Omaha Cat club.

The next meeting of the club will be Monday night at 8 o'clock in Emmet street. Mrs. C. C. Stevens is president and Mrs. R. E. George secretary of the Omaha club, which is affiliated with the Cat Fanciers' association. Omaha has a number of catteries, among which are the Hill-side cattery, the Ak-Sar-Ben Cat kennels, the Omaha kennels and the Dreamer cattery.

Police Heads May Name Vanous' Successor Tuesday

Heads of the Omaha police department will hold a conference probably next Tuesday to determine a successor to Police Captain Anton Vanous, who died Thursday. Though Sergts. Al Samuelson and Russell are both eligible candidates for the position according to the seniority rule. Executive officials of the department are considering several other veteran members of the force for the place, according to information gleaned today.

Chief of Police Dempsey and Inspector of Police Pattullo declined to discuss the matter freely.

Omaha Jeweler Opens New Shop in Woodmen Building

Albert Edholm, pioneer Omaha jeweler, who recently closed his establishment at Sixteenth and Harney streets, has reopened a small shop on the second floor of the Woodmen of the World building. Here he intends to handle nothing but jewels and fine wares, he said. Special attention has been given to the lighting of the shop for inspection of gems. Capital invested in diamonds made it imperative he should continue his shop, Mr. Edholm said.

Boys in Hike Across U. S. Stop in Omaha Saturday

Hot-footing their way across the continent on a wager of $100, Forrest Eckernhoe and Elmer Squint, 21 and 19, respectively, of Reading, Pa., arrived in Omaha Saturday. They hope to reach San Francisco by September 15. The youths appeared before Inspector of Police Andrew Pattullo for a card verifying their arrival in Omaha. They left Reading with only $10, they said.

Deputy Sheriffs Continue Futile Search for L. V. Fox

Two deputy sheriffs who have searched three days for L. V. Fox, former president of the Omaha Refining company, have been unable to find him. He was out under $1,500 bond on a charge of giving a check for $1,490 without having sufficient funds in the bank to meet it. His arrest was ordered when reports came to the county attorney's office that he was about to leave the city.

Annual August Sale of Blankets

Offering Thousands of Beautiful Blankets at Approximately Half of Last Year's Prices

Opens Monday, August 8th, and continues throughout the month

FOR many years past, this has been an event of importance, not alone to our individual patrons awaiting this opportunity to replenish their closets at lower costs, but to hotel men and men who buy in large quantities. This is

---Because Burgess-Nash Quality Assures the Best

Months of preparation and keen understanding of market conditions have made it possible for us to offer complete stocks of beautiful blankets at the lowest prices in many years.

Our values challenge competition. Blanket prices are down—down even to one-half of last year's prices—down to that level which enables the housewife, wisely and economically, to fill her needs. And from these lowest prices, based on today's mill costs, we offer our sweeping reductions during this great August Sale.
