Young, Peters and Foye Qualify in Championship Flight of Transmississippi Browns Win 19-Missouri Youth

Is Medalist In Denver Tourney

"Jimmy" Ward Shoots 151 For Low Score-McKee Follows Ward-Young And Peters Make 166.

Denver, Col., Aug. 9.—J. C. (Jimmy) Ward, 20-year-old Kansas City, (Mo.) golfer, today led the field in the qualifying rounds of the Trans-mississippi Golf tournament on the Denver Country club course with a score of 151 for the 36 holes, and became the association's medalist for the year. Ward had a 77 for the 18 holes Monday and today turned in a card of 74, two above par. On the first nine holes this morning he shot a 34, two under par. Robert McKee of Des Moines, Drake university student and present champion of the association, was three strokes behind Ward and George Von Elm of Salt Lake City. Utah, state champion, was third with 155. None of the three leaders is over 21 years old.

* Harry G. Legg of Minneapolis, was the first veteran to rank, getting fourth place with a score of 156.

Match Play Today. Thirty-two players qualified for the championship flight, which begins tomorrow morning with elimination match play. Eighteen holes will be played until the semi-finals Friday and the finals Saturday, when the matches will go 36 holes.

None of the players considered contenders for the championship failed to qualify, although the play today was below that of the open-ing round Monday. Frank Godchaux, New Orleans youth, who led the field Monday with a score of 73, was in trouble several times today and his putting was bad. He took a 91 for the 18 holes today, being tied for fourteenth place with a total score of 164 for the 36 holes. All Champs Qualify.

All of the state champions qualified with comparative ease. J. A. Kennedy of Tulsa, Okl., was in sixth place with 158; Alexander Graham of Wellington, Kan., followed him with New York 159; L. D. Bromfield of Denver scored 78 today for a total of 160; Blaine Young of Omaha was in seventh place with 166, winning honors as low medalist, Ward repeated his feat of 1918 when he was medalist at the Transmississippi tournament at the age of 17. In the 36 holes yesterday and today he had par or better on 25 holes. His card showed six birdies. J. S. Brown of Denver, J. P. Frederickson of Oklahoma City and G. Palmer of Denver were tied with scores of 173 and had to play a

Davis Hurls Entire Game-Holds Senators Hitless During Last Nine Stanzas-Mogridge Starts.

Washington, Aug. 9.-St. Louis defeated Washington today, 8 to 6, in 19 innings, a new record for the league this year. An error by O'Rourke in the ninth prevented the locals from winning in the regulation period. Both clubs tallied once in the 10th and there was no scoring thereafter until the 19th inning when the visitors registered twice on a single by Sisler, a pass to Williams, Jacobson's safety, an inten-tional pass to Severeid and Gerber's infield out. Acosta finished the game in the box for Washington after relieving Mogride in the 10th. Davis pitched the entire route for St. Louis and held the locals hitless in the last nine innings. Score:

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The rule just adopted by the New York state boxing commission making 38 years as the age limit for bexers may not affect Jess Willard, who is seeking to regain the champlonship.
The ex-title holder asserts he was born in 1887, which would make him 34 years old. The ruling will prevent Jack Britton and Jack Johnson from appearing in that state.

Harry Greb has given up his Pittsburgh home for a residence at New Brighton, about an hour's ride from New York. He has rigged up a fine gym, with a hand ball court, showers and everything else that goes along with modern training quarters. Eddie O'Hare, Leo Flynn's sensational middleweight, who is former A. A. U. champion, is anxious to invade this region. Eddie has won 35 matches, never lost a decision and has never heap held

Saints Slug Out 16-2 Win Over Buffaloes

St. Joseph Western League Entry Collects 20 Hits for Total of 36 Bases-Second Game Today.

HE St. Joseph Saints breezed into town yesterday morning, and after a big meal at one of the local chop houses, roamed out to the Fifteenth and Vinton street lot where they engaged the Omaha Buffaloes in a nine-inning exhibition of the national pastime and at the same time demonstrated to the patrons of the Omaha base ball club just how easy it is for them to three pitchers. Plenty of things happened during the nine rounds of base ball. The big thing, however, was the score and the second was the pitching of McCall for the Saints.

swat out a 16-to-2 victory against

The game, customers, was one of those kind of contests which are featured by heavy hitting on one side and weak pitching on the other. St. Joseph made three Buffalo hurlers, namely Bert Glaiser. Barney Burch and "Heavy" Henshaw cough up a total of 20 hits, two of these being home runs and two three-baggers, to say nothing of the two-base blows spanked out during the afternoon. The Saints collected a total of 36 bases on their 20 swats, which Glaiser Starts.

Glaiser started for Burch's em-ployes. He navigated through three and two-third innings and then was derricked in favor of Burch, who tossed his mask and catcher's mitt aside and took the mound. Buffaloes' boss hurled one and onethird stanzas and then gave way to Henshaw. The latter is a new bird around these parts, especially with the Omaha club. However, he managed to stick out the remainder of the game, although nicked quite frequently by the representatives of St. Joseph. Everything went along in good style until the third. The Saints threw over a barrage of doubles, bunched with a three-bagger, sacrifice and stolen base in this round and scored three tallies.

The Buffaloes filled the bags in the third, but Hurler McCall tightened and the locals were left perched on the sacks when the side was ST. JOSEPH.
