

Boy Rescues 2 Men From 50-Foot Well

Freckle Faced Youth on Southern Plantation Risks Gas-Filled Shaft When Grownups Quail.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 12.—"It wasn't much, I just did it," and that's the way Buxier Jackson feels about going 50 feet down in a gas-filled well to rescue two men, both negroes. He risked his own life without the slightest hesitation after half a dozen full-grown men had declined, and sent both to the surface before he would permit men at the top to haul him up. One of the men lived, the other died.

The boy, barefooted, freckle-faced and pug-nosed, as is proper with boy heroes, told the story while undoubtedly thinking about a slice of watermelon, a game of marbles, the swimming hole and a half a dozen other things of far more importance in his mind.

Working on Well.
"The negro working on my father's well," he said, "went down there early to draw out some water. Mother was there and after a while she couldn't make the negro answer when she called.

"She came after my father and after a while a crowd gathered around the well, and then it was seen the negro was unconscious. We could smell the gas then. Another negro was let down on a rope to bring out the other negro."

"Why Be Afraid?"
"Ellis (the second negro) must have got scared. He couldn't listen the rope around the other negro. I told 'em I would go down with a rope. I wasn't afraid. Why should I be afraid?"

Fire Chief Cody, of Atlanta's Fire Department, said it was the bravest act he had ever seen. He has recommended the boy for a Carnegie hero medal.

Vacation Plans Of Congress Run Against Snags

House Action on Tax Bill May Delay Proposed Summer Recess to August 25.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The movement for a recess of congress received several setbacks yesterday and as a result the tentative date for beginning the 30-day vacation turned back from August 20 to August 25 or 26.

Probable delay in house passage of the tax revision bill was the principal cause of talk of postponement. Representative Mondell, Wyoming, house republican leader, informed Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, senate leader, that August 20 appeared too early for a recess and that it now was probable the tax bill could not be gotten through until August 24 or 25.

Another obstacle to the proposed vacation was rising opposition among both republican and democratic senators because of the status of several pending bills. Several democrats served notice in the senate they would oppose a vacation resolution, possibly to the extent of filibustering, unless the good roads bill is enacted.

Compromise Reached.
A compromise on this bill was reached yesterday by the senate postoffice and post roads committee, which agreed to report a bill next Monday, calling for $100,000,000 in government appropriations, $50,000,000 of which would be immediately available, with the balance in six months.

The committee adopted provisions giving authority to the states to lay out state roads systems subject to the approval by the federal commission.

Sixty per cent of the federal appropriation, which would have to be matched by the states, would be spent on interstate highways and 40 per cent on county roads required to connect with state systems.

Oppose Delay on Rail Bill.
Opposition to deferring the railroad debts funding bill also increased today, but it appeared probable

Newly-Wed Father Of Harding Gets No Word From Son

President's Parent and Nurse Employed Refused Marriage Permit in Canada—Efforts at Secrecy Fail.

Marion, O., Aug. 12.—Dr. George T. Harding, father of President Harding, who was married yesterday at Monroe, Mich., to Miss Alice Sevens, his office attendant, arrived at his office shortly before noon today, accompanied by his wife. He announced that he intended resuming his professional duties immediately and said that he and Mrs. Harding would reside, at least temporarily, in the residence which the doctor had maintained here for a number of years. Upon their arrival here last night from Toledo they went to their respective homes.

Dr. Harding announced at noon that he had received no word from the president since he had been informed of the marriage by telegraph late last night.

Newspaper men and photographers began arriving in Marion early today from nearby points and to Detroit and Mrs. Harding confessed to being considerably annoyed by persistent photographers.

Efforts to keep the marriage a secret, were of no avail, although not until after the couple reached Marion last night, six hours after the marriage, did Dr. Harding admit that he had become a benedict.

Dr. Harding, on arrival with his bride last night said that Miss Sevens and he left Marion together Wednesday morning and went to Detroit. "We were refused a license in Windsor, Canada, because we were not residents," Dr. Harding said.

"We spent Wednesday night in Detroit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Sanborn, who are relatives of mine. They accompanied us to Monroe, where we were married shortly after noon. I know I am not going to be lonesome now," he said.

At the doctor's suggestion, Mrs. Harding was taken to her home. He then asked to be driven to his home, four squares away.

First official announcement of the marriage was telegraphed to President Harding late last night by an employe of his newspaper, the Marion Star.

Dr. Harding, who is 77 years old, has been a practicing physician in Marion for 50 years. His bride was born in Marion county 52 years ago. Dr. Harding's first wife died 11 years ago.
