

More Policemen Needed, But Force May Be Reduced

Twenty-Five Men May Be Laid Off Next Month Owing To Lack of Funds, Chief Dempsey Says.

Heads of the police department may be forced to lay off 25 members of the force next month on account of lack of funds, according to Chief of Police Dempsey.

Though the department has been in need of more men for some time, Chief Dempsey stated yesterday that even to think of increasing the force is folly.

The police department was $5,000 short last month, he stated. "We could use 30 more men," he stated, referring to a report in an evening paper. "Sure, we could use 200 and even 500 more men to good advantage, but who's going to pay 'em? Truly, there are parts of the city that have never had a policeman on a beat. There hasn't been a police chief in Omaha that ever had enough men to patrol and guard the city properly."

Since the Dahlman administration went into office, 26 police officers have been dismissed or laid off, the majority recently.

Not until next year will the department have sufficient funds to take on additional patrolmen and detectives, Chief Dempsey said.

So long as the present funds of the police department, Chief Dempsey declared, that the heads hesitate to appoint a successor to the late Captain Anton Vanous. Sergeant Russell is acting police captain without additional pay.

Rock Island Announces Revised Train Schedule

Rock Island officials announce new arrangements in the train service from Omaha into western Iowa as far as Des Moines.

No. 202, formerly leaving Omaha at 6 a. m., will leave at 8 a. m. No. 6, Chicago Express, formerly leaving at 3:15 p. m. and making no stops, will leave at 3 p. m. and operate as a local as far east as Atlantic.

The new train schedule is the result of a complaint made by Omaha shippers to Rock Island officials last spring, through C. E. Child, manager of the traffic bureau of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce. In the complaint the shippers declared Jes Moines, with three trains from the western territory, was being favored.

Knox County Bankers Hold Annual Picnic

Bloomfield, Neb., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—The annual convention and picnic of the Knox County Bankers' association, held at Center, was well attended. The program included addresses by J. L. Mitchell, a St. Louis City banker, and H. R. Aiken, a banker of Bloomfield. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: E. R. Poole, Crofton, president; H. C. Dierks, Bloomfield, vice president; W. W. Walton, Center, secretary-treasurer.

Nebraska Ranks First in Better Sires Movement

Nebraska ranks first among the states of the union in the movement for the use of better sires in stock breeding, according to word received today by Montagu Tancock of the publicity bureau of the Chamber of Commerce from the agricultural bureau in Washington.

Nebraska has 41,827 registered thoroughbred sires, according to the figures, with Virginia ranking second with 36,262 thoroughbred sires registered.

Man Refused Citizenship Because of Divorce Suit

Louis Rogers, owner of a confectionery store at Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets, a flower store at 10 South Sixteenth street and of other business enterprises was refused citizenship by District Judge Sears yesterday. Rogers' Greek name is Leonidas Michael Rovaltos.

It was Rogers' third attempt to become naturalized. His petition was refused because of evidence given in his wife's divorce action.

Cuban Authorities Hold Body of Omaha Engineer

Cuban authorities are holding the body of Millard Jenkins, Omaha engineer, according to Fred Peterson of the Peterson-Shirley Construction company, who returned from Cuba Thursday. Peterson declares officials told him the body would have to be held there one year before it could be sent home. Jenkins died of typhoid fever in a hospital at Preston, Cuba.

Footlight Lure Not Factor In Schnorr Divorce Case

The lure of the spotlight and a musical career had nothing to do with marital differences between Mrs. William F. Schnorr, the former Miss Harriet Metz, she applied for a divorce.

"I like my music but I have no intention of taking up a career," she said.

George M. Carey New Head Of Chamber Traffic Bureau

George M. Carey, former secretary of the Alliance, Neb. Chamber of Commerce, has been named secretary of the traffic safety committee of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce to succeed R. C. Hudson. The traffic safety work is to be carried on under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce and has been made a permanent bureau.

Asks $157,000 for Electric Equipment for New School

This bid was omitted by error from the list of other offers for electrical work on the planned

Gus Miller Named Reformatory Head

Lincoln, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—August W. Miller of Omaha today was appointed superintendent of the new state reformatory at Lincoln by the state board of control. He will assume his duties September 1 and will receive $2,500 a year and maintenance for himself and family. He is now a salesman for the Brea & Jensen Paper company, and formerly was probation officer in Omaha.

"His appointment was unsolicited," said Katherine Worley, chairman of the board. "He was selected because of his excellent record while probation officer in Omaha."

Showmen Facing Wage Reduction

Managers of the Brandies, Orpheum, Empress and Gayety theaters conferred with representatives of the stage hands' and musicians' unions relative to a cut in the wage scales. The managers proposed a 40 per cent decrease. Stage hands offered to accept a 10 per cent cut.

The managers offered to compromise with a 25 per cent decrease. The offer will be put before the stage hands' union.

The managers declare they must have a 40 per cent cut in wages or get out of the show business. The musical situation has reached a more critical stage. Musicians have refused to accept more than a 10 per cent cut, which theater managers say is too small. Theaters probably will be without music when contracts with musicians run out.

The Gayety will open with all non-union crews, Manager Johnson has announced.

"Mizzura" Man Who "Hadn't Done Nuthin" Learns How Arrests Made

He hailed "clean from Batten county, Mizzura" and had never in his whole life of 35 years seen a man arrested.

And so curious was the son of the soil to learn just how they did it in the big city that Detective Joe Baughman urged him to go along to the police station yesterday with two prisoners.

To detectives who questioned him, he gave his name as Charles Williams. As tender-hearted as a youth, Charles trembled all over and shed real, salty tears profusely while he related how he happened to "butt in" when the detective made an arrest at the Union station.

In slow, southern drawl, Charles explained his presence. "I ain't a done nuthin' to nobody," he cried. "Not me. I wuz jes' a sittin' in that that station house w'en I sees th' officer 'res'in' a feller. Why, I ain't a never seed nuthin' like it."

Lincoln Contractor Had Suffered From Stomach Trouble For Twenty-Five Years.

"I don't believe there ever was a man on earth that had stomach trouble any worse than I did. Why, for twenty-five years it was the curse of my life," said Fred C. Miller, contracting painter, 718 J St., Lincoln, Neb., in discussing the remarkable benefits he had received by taking Tanlac.

"My long years of trouble just about wore me out and I finally got so weak and run down I had to lay off from work for days at a time. Since taking Tanlac, however, I am in tip-top shape and never lose an hour from work. I had every form of indigestion and at times suffered agony. I had awful headaches and dizzy spells too, and became almost a nervous wreck on account of my suffering. I had to live on soups and other liquids so that I fell off in weight until I was hardly more than a walking skeleton, and my condition was rapidly becoming worse.

Divorce Costs Wife of Broker $54,700 Estate

Parents of Robertson Martin, Killed in Auto Accident, Protest Will Leaving Property to Former Mate.

In a decision handed down by District Judge Charles A. Goss Friday, Sarah William Martin, former wife of Robertson C. Martin, wealthy stock broker killed in an automobile accident last year, was excluded from sharing in the $54,700 estate left by the broker.

Martin and his wife were divorced in 1914. Previous to this Martin made a will leaving his estate to Mrs. Martin. This will was filed in court. The will went unnotified for year. When Martin was killed and the will offered for probate, Martin's parents of Madison, Neb., protested. The estate probably will go to the parents and relatives.

Martin was killed when his automobile collided with a street car. Miss Madeline Nugent, stenographer, was riding with him. She is still suffering from injuries received. She has a suit for all her hospital and physicians bill as well as a suit for $25,000 pending against the estate.

Forty-Two Germans Admitted to American Citizenship in Omaha

"Deutschland über alles" was emphasized in the session of naturalization court which ended yesterday. Forty-two Germans were admitted to American citizenship, nearly twice as many as the number admitted of any other nationality, according to figures prepared by Sidney Gottneid, clerk of the court.

Altogether 198 were admitted, as follows: Germans, 42; Italians, 23; Danes, 22; Bohemians, 18; Russians, 17; Poles, 15; Swedes, 15; Irish, 11; Austrians, 5; Scots, 5; Englishmen, 5; Hungarians, 4; Canadians, 4; Belgians, 3; Croatians, 2; Syrians (Turks), 2; Norwegians, 2; Roumanians, 1; Moravians, 1; Greeks, 1.

Building Crafts Accept Wage Cut

Unions Make Move to Stimulate Industry, Contractors Say.

Several building crafts which had been holding out against a cut in wages have accepted a 20 per cent decrease, contractors say. The agreement was made by the craftsmen who are in favor of stimulating building, it is said, and holds until April 1, 1922.

Union carpenters have agreed to work for 90 cents an hour and iron workers for $1 an hour. Electrical workers have agreed to a 10 per cent cut. Bricklayers will accept a decrease of 1 1/2 cents.

Secretary John M. Gibb declares 75 per cent of the union crafts are benefited by the union rate working.
