Lloyd George Considers De Valera's Reply Almost Equivalent to Rejection of British Peace Offer.

Sinn Feiners Still Hopeful

By JOHN STEELE. Chicago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1921. London, Aug. 13.—Developments in the Irish situation have taken a new turn, as a result of Eamonn de Valera's reply to the British government's proposals for a settlement.

The secret as to the contents of the note is well guarded, but from a person in close touch with the situation it was learned that while the wording was confused and evidently the work of men not used to delicate negotiations, the prime minister considers that the writers have returned to the separatist position which it was understood they had abandoned.

Take Same View

A majority of the members of the cabinet, in their meeting this morning, were said to have taken the same view. The cabinet meeting was attended by Viscount Fitzalan, viceroy of Ireland, and General Macready, commander of the British forces in Ireland.

Sinn Fein Hopeful

The Tribune's correspondent in Dublin wires that feeling there is hopeful of peace. It is stated in Dublin that Mr. De Valera's note was the result of pressure brought to bear on him by extremist republicans, who believe that now is the time to secure complete independence.

Bandits Get $114,000 In Mine Wages

Deputy Sheriff and Company Officers Held Up and Robbed of Pay Roll for Illinois Workers.

Escape in Automobile

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—Four bandits in an automobile held up a deputy sheriff and mine officer of the Peabody Mining interests at Kincaid this afternoon and escaped with a pay roll of $114,000.

The pay roll was for miners of three mines in the vicinity of Kincaid, a mining town near Taylorville and southeast of Springfield. F. M. Jones, cashier of the Kincaid Trust and Savings bank, was struck over the head with a revolver by one of the bandits who grabbed the pay roll.

Jerome Lockhart, the deputy who accompanied him, was armed with a rifle and revolver, but was compelled to drop his weapons. Jones and Lockhart were on their way from the railroad station to the bank with the packages containing the money which arrived on an Illinois Midland train.

Automobile Waiting

After securing the money the bandits jumped into an automobile and drove in the direction of Springfield. The robbers are believed to be the same who robbed F. M. Cornthwaite of Decatur of his automobile on the highway 10 miles north of here. Highwaymen, at point of revolvers, bound Cornthwaite hand and foot and gagged him, leaving him concealed in a cornfield. They then drove away with the auto. He managed to release himself and notified the countryside. The robbers had not been captured late tonight.

Sheriff Dunbar of Taylorville, with a posse in automobiles, started in pursuit; Sheriff Mester of Springfield, with a force of men, was guarding roads into Springfield.

Money Sent from Chicago

Money for the mine payroll was sent from Chicago to Taylorville today. At Taylorville it was transferred to the Illinois Midland for Kincaid. The money was to have been held in the bank over Sunday and paid to the miners Monday.

The bandits appeared so suddenly and worked so rapidly that they were speeding out of the village before the inhabitants realized what had happened. Volunteers in automobiles started in pursuit.

Three of the men ordered Jones and Lockhart to hold up their hands. The fourth bandit stayed in the machine with the motor running. Jones was slow in following the bandit's command. Without hesitation one of them knocked him down with a revolver. Lockhart was overpowered by the other two men, who took his weapons from him.
