

Priest Swindled By Man To Whom He Gave Charity

"Jack" McCabe Hunted by Police for Molesting Father Borer and Merchants of Thousands of Dollars.

When John (Jack) P. McCabe, 25, believed to be from Uica, N. Y., appeared penniless and hungry at the home of Rev. Father William J. Borer, pastor of the Our Lady of Lourdes church, Thirty-second avenue and Francis street, one bitter day last winter, the priest took the stranger into his home and started him on the road to contentment.

Today McCabe is being hunted by police throughout the country for molesting Father Borer and other members of his family as well as merchants in Omaha of thousands of dollars.

McCabe disappeared from Omaha with his young wife and two children two weeks ago after having given up a comfortably furnished home which Father Borer rented for him at 3083 South Thirty-second street.

Discrepancies in Books. How much of the church funds McCabe absconded with, if any, has not been determined. Father Borer stated yesterday. A careful audit is being made of the books.

"There are discrepancies in the books," declared Father Borer, "but whether they are by McCabe's mistakes or design, I don't know. So well was McCabe recommended to Father Borer as deserving of charity and so much confidence did the priest place in the stranger that he permitted McCabe to establish a set of books for the church funds. McCabe showed letters of recommendation from prominent business houses and manufacturers in the east stating that he was an expert book-keeper. Father Borer said:

"He told me he came west for his health," said Father Borer, "though I am not so positive now that he appeared in bad health."

Priest Loses $450. Father Borer is out $450 personally, which he lent to McCabe to bring his wife and two kiddies to Omaha and to establish a home for them. The priest's father lost $1,000 to McCabe, while Miss Isabel Borer is out $300 which the stranger borrowed from her.

Father Borer and several business houses also hold bad checks issued by McCabe. So well did the priest take to the stranger on account of his apparently forlorn condition that he introduced McCabe to prominent business men in the city in an effort to get him a job. Father Borer also established credit in several department stores for McCabe, of which the stranger took unlimited advantage.

Convicts Use Lasso To Scale 30 Foot Wall Of Sioux Falls Prison

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—A convict with a lariat which he threw around a projection on a 30-foot wall, permitted Joe Forman and a companion, Lewis Whitmarsh, to escape from the South Dakota penitentiary. The two men were employed in the prison barber shop and their absence was not noticed until their services were needed. The men used a false key to gain entrance to the prison yard. Foreman, who is part Indian, then lassoed a projection on the top of the wall and they climbed the rope to freedom.

Two men answering their description were seen by a farmer walking toward Brandon.

Home for Employed Women And Girls to Open October 1

Willard hall, home for employed women and girls on the site of the old Brownell hall, Tenth and Worthington streets, will be opened October 1 with accommodations for 250 occupants, according to announcement made yesterday.

David Cole paid $75,000 for the building and is holding title until the Willard Hall association shall have raised the purchase price during a campaign to be held this fall. The association announced that $43,000 has been raised.

York National Guard Units Leave for Camp

York, Neb., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The First regiment band of 33 pieces and the service company numbering 97 members and four officers, assembled Tuesday for field inspection and started for camp. On both sides of the cars were large banners in blue and black letters bearing "National Guard, Stationed at York, First Infantry, N. N. G." Their 14-day annual encampment will begin Wednesday.

Mrs. Carrie E. Grattan, widow of the late Charles H. Grattan, passed away at her home, 5633 Florence boulevard, yesterday. She is survived by one son, George Edward, and one sister, Mrs. Fred N. Peterson. Funeral services will be held from the home at 3 p. m. today.

Funeral Friday for Dr. George Tilden

Dr. George Tilden.

Funeral services for Dr. George Tilden, pioneer Omahan, who died Tuesday night, will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at his late residence, 3220 Harney street.

Capitol lodge, No. 3, Masonic order, of which Dr. Tilden was the oldest member, will have charge of the services. Dr. Tilden was a member of the order for 50 years, having joined in April, 1871. He was entitled to the Jordan medal, awarded to the oldest living member, but was too feeble to attend the ceremony held recently.

The Rev. D. E. Jenkins will pronounce a eulogy at the service Friday. Burial will be in Forest Lawn. Dr. Tilden, who was 79, was a resident of Omaha 53 years. He began active medical practice in Omaha in 1868. For 40 years he served on the Douglas county board of insanity commissioners.

He is survived by a brother, Joshua Tilden, living at Fulton, N. Y.

Man Arrested With $3,500 Worth of 'Dope' In His Possession

Detectives arrested a man who gave his name as H. L. Kellner at the Paxton hotel yesterday with $3,500 worth of "dope" in his possession. He was suffering from an overdose of heroin and was taken to St. Joseph hospital after a trip to Central station, where he was booked for investigation. He will be held for federal authorities.

Kellner's odd behavior attracted the attention of the hotel clerk, who notified the police. The man kept walking in and out of the hotel with a suitcase in his hand. Detectives Haze and Donahue, who made the arrest, said his eyes were dilated and he was barely able to talk.

In his room the detectives found eight bottles of cocaine and morphine and a couple of needles.

Buy Meals for I. W. W.'s; Lock Him in Refrigerator Car Stripped of his clothing, with the exception of a pair of trousers, by members of the I. W. W., whom he had "set up" to a meal in Grand Island, Neb., robbed of $103 in a money belt and locked in the ice compartment of a refrigerator car, according to his story, James Kennedy, Allison, Ala., was picked up in the railroad yards Tuesday night by police.

He was taken to the station where a collection was taken up to buy him some clothes.

Chance Given Ex-Soldiers to Get Valuable Farm Free of Any Cost

L. W. Cobbe, Omaha ex-serviceman who won a farm in the free drawing last fall will be one of the principal speakers at a meeting of Legion men to be held at American Legion headquarters in the court house Friday night. Officials of the railroad near the land which is to be opened to ex-service men also will speak.

Cobbe has written a letter in regular military style to all his buddies telling about the prize he drew last year. The letter follows:

From: A Lucky Ex-Soldier.
To: All Ex-Soldiers and Ex-Servicemen.
Subject: Terrific Land Drawing.

1. Here's your chance fellows and girls to gamble where you have nothing to lose and all to win. Every mother's son and daughter of you have longed to sit in a game where it would be "heads I win, tails you lose." Well, here's your chance. By putting up your money back, $10,000, or get your money back. Sounds like a dream? Uncle Sam is the dealer. He has dealt the cards. Now! come and pick a winning hand.

2. Last year (March 5, 1920) there were 50 units to be drawn and 2,018 men tried. Eighty men won. I was one of the lucky. I tried a number six; 163 others tried on number six also. So you see you can never tell when luck will turn your way. One out of 164 had to be lucky—the other 163 got their money back. Fair enough.

There are 205 units this year to be given away. The consensus of opinion is that there will not be any more try this year than tried last year. Figure it out—your chances are over twice as good this year.

3. Your service number you know. A few months on a homestead and you have a little nest egg. You will have a great life, a great climate and wonderful neighbors. Your neighbors will be from ex-service to ex-general or ex-service girls. Yes, you girls better get busy. The only trouble is if you girls should win and then

Seven Arrested In New York City In Camorra Plot

Details of Wholesale Murder Plots Revealed by Arrest Of Seven Men in New York.

New York, Aug. 17.—Seven Italians were arrested today in New York City and one in New Jersey, after the first of the prisoners had confessed that 16 of more than 20 recent murders had been planned and committed by the gang during the last four years.

Orders for the murders came from the Camorra in Italy. Nine of the killings took place in New York. It is said that 35 men have been marked for death. The police had been warned that plans were under way for a great battle. Not since the days when the five points of the Bowery rang with the pistol barks of the old-time gangs, has such a battle been imminent. The fight was to be staged in daylight and was to be the police threw out all sorts of feelers to secure advance information and arrest the leaders. The men picked up today are part of the gang.

Twenty Persons Killed. Twenty murders have already been committed in feuds originating chiefly over bootlegging operations. The Camorra desires to corner the lucrative business and it is said its leaders have decreed death for 35 men who have disobeyed orders or refused to "listen to reason."

Albert Alteri was the last to be killed. He knew he was a marked man and was preparing to drop out of sight, but the Camorra agent got him within a stone's throw of police headquarters. His two companions fled to Italy and word came back today that the Camorra had located and killed them.

Murders in Other Cities.

Barcola Foncano, who confessed today, said that Camorra killings had extended to Detroit, Philadelphia and New Jersey, although the majority had been committed in New York. Aside from the battle for control of the bootlegging business, the Camorra desires to control a profitable card game known as "zechini."

Still another of the seven prisoners confessed, verifying all Foncano had told. He says all the murders come from the little town of Castellamare del Golfo, in the province of Tarrapini, Sicily, a town of 20,000 inhabitants and in which the Camorra has committed more than 200 murders.

City Dads Make Inspection Of Improvement Projects

City commissioners took another of their semi-occasional tours of inspection of city improvement projects yesterday morning.

They visited the Dodge hill project, the St. Marys avenue paving, and also drove to North Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets, between Capitol avenue and Burt streets, where sewers have been laid, and the contractors have neglected to resurface the street.
