

Pal of Man Who Betrayed Priest Sought by Police

Confidence Worker Who Used Curate's Friendship to Defraud Thought to Have Had Accomplice.

That another confidence man assisted John "Jack" P. McCabe, secretary to Rev. Father William Borer, in juggling the books of Our Lady of Lourdes church, Thirty-second avenue and Francis street, is the opinion of investigators working on the case.

Father Borer reported to Chief of Police Dempsey yesterday that a man named William Klauer, believed to be from Sioux Falls, S. D., came to Omaha last April to join McCabe. Search is being made for Klauer.

McCabe disappeared with his wife and two children two weeks ago after Father Borer had befriended him and established a little home at 3083 South Thirty-second street for the stranger.

Whether McCabe took any of the church funds has not been determined. A careful audit is being made of the books, Father Borer said.

Complaints of bad accounts and bogus checks bearing McCabe's signature began to pour into the office of Chief of Police Dempsey yesterday from various department stores which had extended McCabe credit through Father Borer.

Chief of Police Dempsey has wired police in cities throughout the country to be on the lookout for McCabe.

Penniless and hungry, the stranger came to Father Borer's home one bitter day last winter. He asked for shelter and showed letters of recommendation from prominent business houses in the east stating that he was an expert bookkeeper.

Moreover, the stranger showed a letter of recommendation from Father Mat Cummings of Chicago, a former college chum of Father Borer. Father Cummings' letter stated the stranger was deserving of charity.

McCabe said he was from Utica, N. Y., and that he came west for his health.

Talks of Family. The heart of Father Borer was touched and he found a place in his father's home at 2229 South Thirty-second street for McCabe.

The stranger talked of his wife and kiddies back in Utica and four months ago Father Borer advanced him $450 to have them brought to Omaha.

Father Borer told Chief of Police Dempsey he didn't see much of Klauer when he and McCabe were together in Omaha.

Suspicious Aroused. Father Borer told Chief of Police Dempsey he didn't see much of Klauer when he and McCabe were together in Omaha.

"40 Hommes, 8 Chevaux" to Carry Vets to Legion Meet

This is how the Lincoln American Legion men who are members of the new organization "40 hommes—8 chevaux" will travel to the state convention of the legion at Fremont on September 2.

The "40 men or eight horses" organization is made up of "vets" who traveled that way in those little box-cars in France.

The organization is taking well in Iowa and clubs have been organized in many cities.

Omaha legionaires hope to have their organization perfected before the state convention. If they do, they will travel in a boxcar as they did in France.

Will the New Tariff Bill Start Business Booming?

The effect upon American industry being the most important question in the minds of men who are drafting the new tariff law, it is essential that spokesmen for industry let their representatives in Congress know what they think the effect of the proposed schedules will be. In order to help the Senators, who are toiling so diligently during these torrid weeks in Washington, THE LITERARY DIGEST has asked a number of representative trade journals to tell just what effect they believe the schedules under consideration will have on their respective industries; whether they will help to restore prosperity, and whether they will tend to raise or lower prices.

Repeal of Excess Profits Tax Is Upheld by Green

Iowa Congressman Points Out Inconsistency of Democrats In Fighting Measure Recently Advanced by Party.

By E. C. SNYDER, Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee. Washington, Aug. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Green, in a spirited colloquy today in the house, answering attacks made by democrats on the provisions repealing the excess profits tax and reducing the higher surtaxes, in turn attacked their position and showed their inconsistency.

He pointed out that every one of the three secretaries of the treasury under President Wilson and the president himself had recommended the repeal of these taxes and given sound and cogent reasons for their repeal. He called attention to the fact that Mr. Cox, their candidate in the election, had gone all over the country declaring that if he was elected the excess profits tax would be repealed and the surtaxes on the higher incomes reduced to a reasonable level.

He read from the democratic platform showing that it denounced the republicans of the last congress for not carrying out these recommendations.

He said that under this bill this would be the only nation in the world where the poor man paid no tax on necessities of life, for all taxes of that kind had been removed.

At the 5 Sherman & McConnell Drug Stores

With 125,000 articles to purchase or manufacture, and then to price and have conveniently at hand to sell; all days are busy ones with us.

It is a long way from Portland, Me., to Portland, Ore., and yet we purchase goods in each of these cities every calendar month of the year. It is a still longer call from the "Simples" that were culled by the ancients to the "Concoctions of the Modern," more or less bitter, and sometimes more or less sweet, some very attractive, some quite the opposite, but each considered indispensable to its users.

That's why the face of the old-time druggist sometimes has a weary and "busy-day" expression, and the newer disciples of this semiprofession appear bewildered, even after several years' experience.

COME TO US for the articles you cannot obtain elsewhere, as well as for all the other items. We'll save time and money for you. Buy at any one or all of our five prominently located drug stores.
