Wedding Plans.

Saturday, September 3, is the date which has been chosen by Miss Florence Kelley for her marriage to Francis J. Cool.

The wedding, which is to be a morning affair, will be solemnized in St. Francis Xavier church.

During the past week several delightful parties, some of which were 'showers" have been given for this bride-to-be. Tuesday, the Misses Mary and Martina Guanella enter-tained at their home, Wednesday evening Miss Helen Doyle of Omaha was hostess, Thursday Miss Katherine McCarthy honored Miss Kelley with a prenuptial and on Friday she was guest of honor at the McMahon home when Miss Helen gave a shower. Golf.

Fourteen of the women golfers were on the course last Wednesday for their weekly game, and one of the interesting features of the morning was the putting contest in which Mrs. E. E. Evans and Miss Marian Turner tied five times before Mrs. Evans finally captured the prize. Mrs. Oscar Baumeister won in the handicap.

Luncheons.

Mrs. J. J. Hess invited eight guests to an informal luncheon at her home last Thursday. On Tuesday Mrs. John Melhop, ir, had a foursome at the Country

A dinner of 40 covers was given at the Country club Wednesday evening by the Edmundson Hospital Alumnae association, honoring the Misses Mary Nesbitt, Martha Rogers and Harriett Price, all of whom are to leave the hospital soon. Miss Nesbitt has been the superintendent, Miss Rogers the night superintendent and Miss Price the dietician. Carnival Plans.

Social activities are sure to be on the wane the latter part of the week as all interest will then be centered on Baylis park where the Prosperity Pow-Wow will undoubtedly be drawing crowds every afternoon and evening. This carnival venture will somewhat resemble the famous street fairs of bygone days, in that our little park, with its natural beauty is to be the home, so to speak, of all the delightful features of the affair. However, so many new ideas have been worked out for this occasion, that it can not help but be a popular event, and many of our neighbor cities are planning to send big delegations on each of the four days.

Artists are now busy decorating automobiles for the monster floral parade, musicians are looking up the peppiest of jazz, a committee is arranging to satisfy the demands for a program of good music for one hour each afternoon, and with the not leave Washington and remain to looking after about 250 of these

Business Women Bring Noted Contralto

Those who are accustomed to refer with great emotion to "the bygone days of great singers" usually lament the fact that "there are no real contraltos nowadays." To a great extent this assertion is justified, yet in the past two years a young American singer has rushed to the front and clearly disproved it. This singer is Cyrena Van Gordon, contralto of the Chicago Opera com-

The brief career of this artist has been truly phenomenal. Blessed with a natural voice of the depth, richness and variety of color inevitably associated with the great contraltos of the past, she also possesses the statuesque beauty and the regal bearing essential to the success of the 'cello of women's voices. When she plays the role of Anneris in "Aida," she is in truth a princess in appearance as well as in tone. Miss Van Gordon will appear at the Municipal auditorium on Octo-ber 7 in the first concert of the series to be given under the direction of the Omaha Business Woman's club. Tickets for the series are now in 'he hands of the members of the club.

The Bedding Sale Opens Sept. 1

Mr. and Mrs. Sass have just returned from New York and enthusiasm is a mild word when applied to the purchases made.

This store may rightly claim supremacy in the character of Bedding sold, and Mr. Sass will no doubt be besieged as in former years by his many friends to lay away blankets, etc., in advance of the formal opening.

Let us give you a little preachment on values this fall:

Prices are much lower than for years.

Manufacturers are very conservative and many are hampered by lack of capital or labor trouble.

The result is that on popular lines one must patiently wait on duplicates until they are made. Therefore, it's a good idea to make your selections from our early stocks.
