

Benson Society

Benson Correspondent—Call Walnut 5370

Union Services.
The regular union services of the Benson churches will be held Sunday evening, August 22, on the east lawn of the Presbyterian church. Rev. John Calvert, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver the sermon.

Entertains Baptist Junior Boys.
Mr. and Mrs. O. McGuire spent the week-end entertaining Mr. McGuire's class of junior boys of the Baptist Sunday school at an outing along the Elkhorn river.

Miscellaneous Shower.
Mrs. Joseph Gehring entertained Thursday evening at St. Bernard's hall at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Marie Mancy, who will be a September bride. Miss Mancy received many beautiful and useful gifts in plain and fancy embroidered linens. Fifty guests were invited.

Miss Kelland to Visit in Benson.
Miss Evelyn Kelland, who has toured Wisconsin, Michigan, North and South Dakota and Colorado with the Travers-Newton chautauqua circuit during the summer months, will visit friends in Benson and Omaha the latter part of the week. Miss Kelland is a graduate of Benson High school and also of the University of Drake university. Her work with the chautauqua was that of violinist in the Stafford orchestra.

Entertains at Luncheon.
Mrs. Ben Smith of Keystone park was hostess at a luncheon Thursday in honor of Mrs. Percy Gunn and her mother, Mrs. Clark of Omaha.

Picnic Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howe and family, and Miss Kate Swartzlander and Miss Ethel Biddick of Omaha enjoyed a beef-steak picnic dinner Thursday at Elmwood park.

Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sharp entertained at a dinner of 12 covers Wednesday at their home in Keystone park. Honor guests at the dinner were Mr. Charles Kendall of Portland, Ore., and Miss Louise Hammond of York, Neb.

Vacationists.
Mrs. O. Arthur Melcher and family and Miss Bernice Johnson leave Sunday for Beaver Dam, Wis. Mr. Melcher will join the family a week later and they will spend a three weeks' vacation at Beaver Dam.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Faris and children returned Friday from Seattle, Wash., where they spent three weeks. Mrs. Charles H. Sprague and sons returned Tuesday evening from an extended visit at Atkinson, Neb. H. L. Senger of Boise City, Idaho, visited a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. Loehner, and Dr. Loehner.

Birth Announcement.
Word has been received by relatives in Benson of a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wolff of Pine Bluffs, Wyo. Mr. Wolff formerly resided in Benson.

Luncheon Guests.
Mr. and Mrs. William Morse and sons, William and Richard, were Sunday luncheon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Oliver.

Entertain Bankers' Association.
The banking firms of the Bank of Benson and the Farmers and Merchants bank entertained the regular quarterly session of the County Bankers' association of Douglas and Sarpy counties, Wednesday evening, August 17, at the Happy Hollow club. The after-dinner speakers were Mr. Graham, secretary of the First Trust company of Omaha, and Rev. Charles E. Cobbe, pastor of the First Christian church. Mr. Joseph Barton of Benson rendered two vocal selections. J. T. Pickard, vice president of the Bank of Benson, had charge of the program and introduced the speakers of the evening.

Medical Missionary to Speak.
Dr. Claude Mason, returned medical missionary, will give a religious address at the Presbyterian church of his work and experiences among the people of Siam. Music will be furnished by the choir.

Dinner for Miss Mancy.
Mr. and Mrs. John Tuttle entertained at a Sunday dinner party in honor of Miss Marie Mancy, who is to be a September bride. Covers were laid for 10 guests.

R. N. A. Picnic.
Thirty members of the R. N. A. kensington entertained at a picnic at Krug park Tuesday.

Theater Party.
The Misses Hazel, Grace and Marian Giles were guests of Miss Thyra Fair at a theater party Saturday afternoon. One o'clock luncheon was served at the home of Miss Fair for the members of the party.

Dinner Guests.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pickard and son, Eugene, were among the guests entertained Friday evening at dinner at the home of Dr. J. B. Ralph of Dundee.

English Lutheran Aid.
Members of the English Lutheran Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, August 24, in the church parlors. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Hans Johnson and Mrs. Rosander.

Entertains at Dinner.
Mershon Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch entertained at dinner Monday at Cherry Croft in honor of Miss Thelma Wood of Topeka, Kan. Miss Wood is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. H. R. Bowen, and Mrs. Bowen of Omaha.

Extended Motor Trips.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch, who returned Wednesday from a motor trip to Louisville, Ky., are planning to leave September 1 for an extended trip over the Canadian Pacific to British Columbia and down the Pacific coast to southern California. Mrs. Joseph Gallagher, returned by train Saturday from a five weeks' motor trip to Los Angeles, Yellowstone park and to Los Angeles. Mrs. Gallagher and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, former Benson residents, while in Los Angeles. Mr. Gallagher and son, Clyde, who were members of the party are returning by auto.

Picnic at Big Lake, Ia.
Among those from Benson who picnicked at Big Lake, Ia., Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knudsen,

Renovating the Home

BY LORETTA C. LYNCH.

Every housewife feels the need from time to time of some definite information as to how to renovate the various things that go toward making up the household.

A letter has come to me from a woman who has to clean some stains from a new French Wilton rug. It seems that her 3-year-old baby had a nose bleed and the blood unfortunately fell upon the rug. If the rug were washable her problem would be comparatively easy. For to remove such a stain from any washable article soak it first in cold water; then soak it in warm (not hot) water, to which a little ammonia has been added. If these methods are not effective, immerse the article in well-diluted Javelle water for a few moments and rinse thoroughly. Then wash with soap and water.

But in the case of a rug which cannot be washed, make a paste of starch mixed with water. Spread the paste over the blood stain. When thoroughly dry, brush off. If all the stain has not disappeared, brush the spot carefully with chloroform after having put absorbent paper underneath.

Paint, tar or varnish succumbs to chloroform after all else has failed. One woman writes of a careless maid, who, in attempting to apply paraffin to the tops of jelly glasses in the dining room, spilled it on the carpet. What shall she do?

First, scrape off the excess. Then warm a little alcohol over hot water and apply it. Gum of most any kind may be removed by soaking in gasoline.

Another woman tells me that there are some unsightly yellow stains from vaseline on one of her baby's best pillow slips. Vaseline stains should be soaked in kerosene before washing.

While ordinary ink will usually wash out to 24 hours' soaking in sour milk, if it happens that the regulation fountain pen ink gets upon your best tablecloth, the milk treatment is but a waste of time. One of several treatments may be resorted to in an effort to remove fountain pen ink. First, use phosphoric acid followed by a bath of dilute ammonia. If this is not successful, try it once again. If still unsuccessful, one of the following may be tried. Dilute hydrochloric or oxalic acid followed by ammonia, or equal parts of peroxide of hydrogen and ammonia, and, lastly, Javelle water.

Sometimes the over-ambitious kiddies get out the red ink before the tablecloth has been removed. Suddenly there is a spot. What then?

First, soak the stain in cold water and then in dilute ammonia. Try this several times. If the stain does not respond to treatment, try Javelle water.

Rust is another stain the housewife has to fight. Lemon juice, salt and sunshine will usually clear up a rust stain. If not, try hydrochloric or oxalic acid or Javelle water.

Hemstitching Produces Witching Effect When It Forms the Edging of Tricotine Looped Panels.

The Ideal Button and Pleating company, third floor Brown block, Sixteenth and Douglas, has suggested a remarkably unique trimming for milady's fall tailoring frock. No more, no less than hemstitched edging on loops of the same material, these hemstitched loops placed side by side to a width of three to two-inch loops in four panels, two at the side front, two at the side back, the entire length of the skirt. The one I saw was navy blue tricotine, hemstitched in navy with Hunter's scarlet duvetyne vest, just a slash down from the throat with a cunningly rolled collar faced back underneath with the same color, the necktie of the two colors, the girle of a scarlet shell formation in flat linkings of unusual shape. Novelty pleating designs, unusual motifs and motifs are presented in the catalog set out by this big shop.

Dining Room Furniture One-Half Former Prices.

At the H. R. Bowen Furniture store, Sixteenth and Howard, one will find offered in the August sale dining room suites at one-half their former pricings. Period suites elaborately executed in designs true to the period, are fashioned wrought in dull walnuts and mahogany's, furniture such as one has dreamed of. For the small home or apartment, a modified translation of the frivolous breakfast set, a heavier edition of the dainty little hand-painted gategate tables and Windsor chairs combining durability with a certain daintiness of style, desirable in a home of limited space. Separate pieces, tables, chairs, buffets and tea carts offer exceptional opportunities for buying quality furniture at sale prices.

Noted For Excellence of Home Cooking Offered.

HILLCREST, the cafe operated by Alfred Jones, 2811 Caldwell, entertained many merry groups of people on its airy screened porch last week. Such a delight to get a deliciously prepared meal, home-cooked without any of the attendant worries of a hot kitchen. Crisp brown fish one might choose, salads, sauces and vegetables to go best with it, or if particularly hungry, nothing quite takes the place of a luscious steak. Chicken, delicately fried, is a dish for everyone, never better cooked than at Hillcrest.

Escalloped Tomatoes and Corn.

Cut the edible pulp from five ears of corn and arrange in alternate layers in a buttered baking dish with four peeled and sliced tomatoes. Sprinkle between the layers a light dusting of crushed cracker crumbs, season with salt and paprika and dot liberally with butter (add a bit of powdered sugar to the tomatoes). Cover the top with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Colors.

Psychologists declare that color has a great effect upon people. Green is declared restful, blue is cold, red is disturbing and gray is spiritual.

If One Would Follow Fashion

HER new fall suit must needs have the accompaniment of a small fur choker. The extensive showing of chokers in the Thos. Kilpatrick & Company's August fur suit offers an unusually good opportunity to achieve smartness with small expenditure of money. Never more fashionable was the Stone Marten than it is today, its softly becoming taupe and brown becomingly combining with the season's most approved colors. Chokers of Stone Marten are offered at from $34.50 for single skin choker to $87.50 for the double skinned piece. Becoming well-known this year for the first time is the Baum Marten, softer and prettier than the Stone Marten, a bit more taupe in coloring. Several chokers are shown in the Baum Marten at $35. Always charming are the dainty gray squirrel peltries. Gray squirrel chokers range from a very pleasing little piece at $10.95 to those at $24.50.

For young girls who will wear many brilliant colors this season are the German Fitch chokers at from $16.75 to $29.50. Girlish beauty will also find an effective setting in the Isabella Fox scarfs at $59.50, the taupe fox scarfs at $29.50, and the pecky gray blue scarf at $39.50.

Jap mink chokers in natural and Kolinsky blendings are offered at from $10.95 to $39.50. Hudson Bay Sables from $59.50 to $98.50. While the loveliest of all are the real Russian Sables ranging in tone from delicate orange under the chin to deep black brown; these in elaborate choker styling range in price from $197.50 to $350.

Hartmann Trunk An Absolute Necessity For Miss School Girl.

EVERY school girl desires above all else to have what "the other girls have." And you may be sure "the other girls" will have Hartmann trunks, which they're now selling at the Freling & Stemle Trunk factory, Eighteenth and Farnam, at a newly reduced pricing which makes it possible to get a wardrobe trunk with the very newest conveniences for $47.50. One might select a smartly finished trunk whose two-toned blue lining is particularly delightful. The cushioned top keeps in place garments hung on exclusively designed hangers, coat, an one-piece dress hanger. There's an airtight shoe box which fits below the hangers, no chance of a leather smell from boots and shoes pervading the trunk. Over this side of the trunk hangs a clever laundry bag, neatly snapped together. In the right side of the trunk one finds large roomy drawers, dust proof, a hat box with padded bottom, a hat box with padded bottom. Just the trunk for four years at school!

Barbara Beaded Pumps of Chic Grace

IDEAL for wear with the new black gown milady has chosen for early fall wear are the new "Barbara" beaded pumps on display in the shoe department of the Thos. Kilpatrick Company's store, Fifteenth and Douglas. Delicately cut are the graceful high French heels, cleverly placed the high straps over the ankle, the rubber insets hidden by pointed little buckles of cut steel and jet. Beaded motifs on the vamp give the cut-out sandal effect so ultra in the fall fashion season 1921. In satin, dull kid and bronze the "Barbara" beaded pump is offered at $15 a pair with a war tax of 50c.

Rosette Cords An Attractive Decorative Note in Hanging Pictures and Mirrors.

THE art department at the A. Hospe company store, 1513 Douglas, has received a largely varied showing of silk rosette cords for hanging pictures and mirrors. Brown, gold and bronze, mulberry and old rose, light and dark blue, they offer an appealing touch of color to harmonize with polychrome tintings in frame to carry out color scheme expressed in drapes or contrasts to form a distinct contrast to the other colors in the room. These in price range from $2 to $6.

Metal Eyelet Trim Fashion's Latest Edict.

MRS. TARPENNING of the Mode Pleating company, 4th floor, Paxton block, 16th and Farnam, tells me that quite the newest and most unique in embellishments is the trim of metal eyelets, these offered in blue, tan or red. She suggests that it is high time to buy that plaid novelty cloth for the pleated skirt. Fashion notes proclaim the plaid-pleated skirt quite the most approved bit of apparel for fall wear.

Dai Butsu—Great Buddha

STANDS in quiet dignity, an incense burner of green and bronze tinted pottery, a cleverly fashioned form, one foot high, central figure in the showing of incense burners at the Green Pharmacy, Sixteenth and Howard. This, the largest burner shown, is $4, while a tiny Buddha, a replica of the large one, may be had for 25c. Incense in East Indian is the trim of metal eyelets, these offered in blue, tan or red. She suggests that it is high time to buy that plaid novelty cloth for the pleated skirt. Fashion notes proclaim the plaid-pleated skirt quite the most approved bit of apparel for fall wear.

Exquisite Draperies to Beautify the Home.

COSY livableness, the motif of every successful living room does not come of vague, random treatment, rather is it the reward of intelligent planning and execution—a merging of taste and utility. The Fries Drapery Shop, Twenty-fourth and Farnam, offers an art service in color planning and drapery making which is unusually pleasing. Call Douglas 9042 and one of their men will call to suggest possibilities represented in your window treatments. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Midnight Blue Mantella Cloth With Deep Silky Beaver

UNDER the skillful fingers of L. Kneeter, exclusive ladies tailor, second floor Sixteenth and Howard, become quite the loveliest wrap I've seen. One of the season's beautiful brides will wear this coat when it's finished. Deeply bloused is the back of the coat over a circular skirt. Very big, very luxurious the great collar of fur, the cuffs of the new wide styling. But two weeks more of the sale pricings this popular tailor is offering.

Artistic Creator of "Natural Marcel"

Taking Appointments for Ak-Sar-Ben Ball Hairdress.

THAT'S a little girl at the Dredfold Hairdressing Parlor, 1001 W. O. W. building, Fourteenth and Farnam, whose work is so popular that she is even now taking appointments for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball hairdresses. Great widely rippling waves of hair flow from under her clever manipulation of the iron, a natural wave resulting, which is unbelievably lasting.

What They Are Wearing

Circular overskirts are being introduced. Fancy materials are being featured for skirts. Hand made lace in classic and fancy designs is feature of the smartest stockings.

THE world is so full of a number of things." How true it is of that endless array of articles known as accessories, so important to the costume of milady. Bags, parasols, fans, gloves, almost innumerable bits of jewelry. A wise choice of one of these apparently unimportant items will often make an attractive costume of an otherwise drab affair. And approved styles change quite as often as the length of a skirt or the width of a sleeve.

A lovely fan is of gold lace in an odd, elongated shape, a charming addition to any evening gown. It is of that happy variety which will harmonize with almost any color or fabric.

Some of the beaded bags are of a small flat envelope shape, in designs of stripes, diamonds or other geometric patterns, usually in two or three colors, simple and dignified.

And there are earrings! For they are assuming a position of importance which they have not enjoyed for a long, long time. In fact, one almost must have earrings. They may be found in countless varieties for every occasion. Many are simple drops in color or in jet or pearl. Other more elaborate designs are developed from jet and diamonds or diamonds and pearls. The more fantastic ones are some times in combinations of jade and silver, very elaborate and quite stunning if one has the semi-oriental type of face which such earrings require.

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

Can it matter to you and me
Where the hurrying years have fled,
Since they told me you ceased to be,
Since the day when they called you dead?

Death? As a cobweb spun
By night on the dew-drenched grass,
It vanished . . . I saw you pass
With your face to the rising sun.

"IT VANISHED"—By Grace Hodson Boutelle in Literary Digest.

MY DEARS:
BEGINNETH a new season when one's mind is full of—well, yes, frocks and things—such important things, too, you'll agree. Of absorbing interest is the fact that one's little friend of the ingenue type has selected a black frock of brocaded kitten's ear crepe with a smart touch of monkey fur. Can't you visualize rosy, girlish beauty in the season's "color?" If one might be permitted to drop a word of warning it would be that no woman but the fresh and girlish should wear black, no matter what Dame Fashion's dictates may be. Intriguing, too, one finds a whispered description of another's gown to be worn on the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, sequined panels to come way below the short-hemmed bouffancy composed of frill upon frill of silver-gilded tulle!

Hats For Fall Wear Reblocked and Retrimmed.
THE Kruger Hat Shop, 303 Barker block, Fifteenth and Farnam, is busily engaged in freshening up milady's velvet, duvetyne and felt hats for early fall wear. A hat service unexcelled.

Reports A Visit to the Nu-Bone Factory.
HATTIE PUTNAM, Nu-Bone corset shop, fifth floor Karbach block, Fifteenth and Farnam, has just returned from a trip to the coast. While there she visited the Nu-Bone corset factory at Los Angeles, bringing home corset news of interest to women who wish to combine fashion with comfort. (The corset talks will be continued next week.)

Unique new bags are fashioned of tortoise shell links suspended from framework of novel shaping, $7.50.

Some of the new riding habits are made of "suedelike," a material resembling suede.

Barbara Beaded Pumps of Chic Grace

IDEAL for wear with the new black gown milady has chosen for early fall wear are the new "Barbara" beaded pumps on display in the shoe department of the Thos. Kilpatrick Company's store, Fifteenth and Douglas. Delicately cut are the graceful high French heels, cleverly placed the high straps over the ankle, the rubber insets hidden by pointed little buckles of cut steel and jet. Beaded motifs on the vamp give the cut-out sandal effect so ultra in the fall fashion season 1921. In satin, dull kid and bronze the "Barbara" beaded pump is offered at $15 a pair with a war tax of 50c.

Rosette Cords An Attractive Decorative Note in Hanging Pictures and Mirrors.

THE art department at the A. Hospe company store, 1513 Douglas, has received a largely varied showing of silk rosette cords for hanging pictures and mirrors. Brown, gold and bronze, mulberry and old rose, light and dark blue, they offer an appealing touch of color to harmonize with polychrome tintings in frame to carry out color scheme expressed in drapes or contrasts to form a distinct contrast to the other colors in the room. These in price range from $2 to $6.

Metal Eyelet Trim Fashion's Latest Edict.

MRS. TARPENNING of the Mode Pleating company, 4th floor, Paxton block, 16th and Farnam, tells me that quite the newest and most unique in embellishments is the trim of metal eyelets, these offered in blue, tan or red. She suggests that it is high time to buy that plaid novelty cloth for the pleated skirt. Fashion notes proclaim the plaid-pleated skirt quite the most approved bit of apparel for fall wear.

Dai Butsu—Great Buddha

STANDS in quiet dignity, an incense burner of green and bronze tinted pottery, a cleverly fashioned form, one foot high, central figure in the showing of incense burners at the Green Pharmacy, Sixteenth and Howard. This, the largest burner shown, is $4, while a tiny Buddha, a replica of the large one, may be had for 25c. Incense in East Indian is the trim of metal eyelets, these offered in blue, tan or red. She suggests that it is high time to buy that plaid novelty cloth for the pleated skirt. Fashion notes proclaim the plaid-pleated skirt quite the most approved bit of apparel for fall wear.

Exquisite Draperies to Beautify the Home.

COSY livableness, the motif of every successful living room does not come of vague, random treatment, rather is it the reward of intelligent planning and execution—a merging of taste and utility. The Fries Drapery Shop, Twenty-fourth and Farnam, offers an art service in color planning and drapery making which is unusually pleasing. Call Douglas 9042 and one of their men will call to suggest possibilities represented in your window treatments. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Midnight Blue Mantella Cloth With Deep Silky Beaver

UNDER the skillful fingers of L. Kneeter, exclusive ladies tailor, second floor Sixteenth and Howard, become quite the loveliest wrap I've seen. One of the season's beautiful brides will wear this coat when it's finished. Deeply bloused is the back of the coat over a circular skirt. Very big, very luxurious the great collar of fur, the cuffs of the new wide styling. But two weeks more of the sale pricings this popular tailor is offering.

Artistic Creator of "Natural Marcel"

Taking Appointments for Ak-Sar-Ben Ball Hairdress.

THAT'S a little girl at the Dredfold Hairdressing Parlor, 1001 W. O. W. building, Fourteenth and Farnam, whose work is so popular that she is even now taking appointments for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball hairdresses. Great widely rippling waves of hair flow from under her clever manipulation of the iron, a natural wave resulting, which is unbelievably lasting.

What They Are Wearing

Circular overskirts are being introduced. Fancy materials are being featured for skirts. Hand made lace in classic and fancy designs is feature of the smartest stockings.

THE world is so full of a number of things." How true it is of that endless array of articles known as accessories, so important to the costume of milady. Bags, parasols, fans, gloves, almost innumerable bits of jewelry. A wise choice of one of these apparently unimportant items will often make an attractive costume of an otherwise drab affair. And approved styles change quite as often as the length of a skirt or the width of a sleeve.

A lovely fan is of gold lace in an odd, elongated shape, a charming addition to any evening gown. It is of that happy variety which will harmonize with almost any color or fabric.

Some of the beaded bags are of a small flat envelope shape, in designs of stripes, diamonds or other geometric patterns, usually in two or three colors, simple and dignified.

And there are earrings! For they are assuming a position of importance which they have not enjoyed for a long, long time. In fact, one almost must have earrings. They may be found in countless varieties for every occasion. Many are simple drops in color or in jet or pearl. Other more elaborate designs are developed from jet and diamonds or diamonds and pearls. The more fantastic ones are some times in combinations of jade and silver, very elaborate and quite stunning if one has the semi-oriental type of face which such earrings require.

Specialty Shop Welcomes Many Friends in New Location.

THE Lamond Specialty Shop, formerly located on the second floor of the Securities building, Sixteenth and Farnam, is now located in its new home on Seventeenth and Farnam. In an exquisite setting of ivory and blue are to be found unique offerings in exclusive models personally selected on Mr. Lamond's frequent trips to eastern style centers. Such ultra-smart models one last week—a dull blue wrap with all-over cutout design under which has been placed the new "Fall Mail" red duvetyne, giving the effect of an applied garment. Gray squirrel is the Russian collar, while the girthing of metal links is worthy of the smartest Parisienne.

Some of the new riding habits are made of "suedelike," a material resembling suede.

When One Makes Selection of a Bit of Glittering Cut Glass for A Gift

ONE would much prefer having it bear a trademark engraved into its designing. The John Henrikson Jewel Shop, Sixteenth and Capitol, have an extensive showing of Hawkes and Liberty cut glass especially attractive as wedding gift offerings. Dainty small pieces, exquisite in cutting and engraving, an adornment of loveliness for the bride's early entertaining, adorable pieces for the dressing table, unusual fittings for milady's desk as well as the more elaborate bowls, vases and trays so much in vogue at the present time. A glass showing ranging in price from $3.50 to $25. Cut glass is enjoying an unprecedented popularity at the present time, but, my dears, what a difference there is in the glass of the present day and the glass we used to see. There's a rare beauty in quality glass of today without parallel in the annals of glass making.

The Values of Distances Are Appreciated by the Interior Decorator.

SAM NEWMAN, 214 South Eighteenth street, is an interior decorator who truly values the impression of distances so important in house interiors. Impossible, one may think, to decorate an interior with a small home to simulate large vistas. But when the new heavy papers with dull, plain surface tintings are used one may look from room to room grown suddenly larger. The new fall stock of papers is offered in this shop, a stock more complete than it has been for a long time, and this is saying much, for this shop is known for its varied showing of domestic and imported papers. Character and personality may find expression in home decorations if one makes selection of papers under the skillful advice of Mr. Newman. I'll be glad to take up with this decorator your decorating difficulties, sending suggested color schemes and samples of papers which will combine artistically.

Essential to a Right Beginning of the Fall Style Season

IS a scientifically perfect cleaning of all garments to be worn. No matter how carefully they have been stored there is a certain amount of dust which creeps into the most dust-tight container, and the daintily fastidious person finds when the first chill winds blow that her necessary garments, suits, wraps and furs were not sent to the cleaner as she had thought and intended. Dresher Brothers' great modern plant on Twenty-second and Farnam has unusually complete facilities for cleaning and repairing all wearing apparel, cleaning and re-styling of furs, a hat service unusually complete, a service house for clothes of all kinds. You will find the service remarkably desirable. Phone Atlantic 6345 to enjoy their prompt delivery system.

Midnight Blue Mantella Cloth With Deep Silky Beaver

UNDER the skillful fingers of L. Kneeter, exclusive ladies tailor, second floor Sixteenth and Howard, become quite the loveliest wrap I've seen. One of the season's beautiful brides will wear this coat when it's finished. Deeply bloused is the back of the coat over a circular skirt. Very big, very luxurious the great collar of fur, the cuffs of the new wide styling. But two weeks more of the sale pricings this popular tailor is offering.

Artistic Creator of "Natural Marcel"

Taking Appointments for Ak-Sar-Ben Ball Hairdress.

THAT'S a little girl at the Dredfold Hairdressing Parlor, 1001 W. O. W. building, Fourteenth and Farnam, whose work is so popular that she is even now taking appointments for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball hairdresses. Great widely rippling waves of hair flow from under her clever manipulation of the iron, a natural wave resulting, which is unbelievably lasting.

What They Are Wearing

Circular overskirts are being introduced. Fancy materials are being featured for skirts. Hand made lace in classic and fancy designs is feature of the smartest stockings.

THE world is so full of a number of things." How true it is of that endless array of articles known as accessories, so important to the costume of milady. Bags, parasols, fans, gloves, almost innumerable bits of jewelry. A wise choice of one of these apparently unimportant items will often make an attractive costume of an otherwise drab affair. And approved styles change quite as often as the length of a skirt or the width of a sleeve.

A lovely fan is of gold lace in an odd, elongated shape, a charming addition to any evening gown. It is of that happy variety which will harmonize with almost any color or fabric.

Some of the beaded bags are of a small flat envelope shape, in designs of stripes, diamonds or other geometric patterns, usually in two or three colors, simple and dignified.

And there are earrings! For they are assuming a position of importance which they have not enjoyed for a long, long time. In fact, one almost must have earrings. They may be found in countless varieties for every occasion. Many are simple drops in color or in jet or pearl. Other more elaborate designs are developed from jet and diamonds or diamonds and pearls. The more fantastic ones are some times in combinations of jade and silver, very elaborate and quite stunning if one has the semi-oriental type of face which such earrings require.

Purchases may be sent out either cash, by check or C.O.D.

THE world is so full of a number of things." How true it is of that endless array of articles known as accessories, so important to the costume of milady. Bags, parasols, fans, gloves, almost innumerable bits of jewelry. A wise choice of one of these apparently unimportant items will often make an attractive costume of an otherwise drab affair. And approved styles change quite as often as the length of a skirt or the width of a sleeve.

A lovely fan is of gold lace in an odd, elongated shape, a charming addition to any evening gown. It is of that happy variety which will harmonize with almost any color or fabric.

Some of the beaded bags are of a small flat envelope shape, in designs of stripes, diamonds or other geometric patterns, usually in two or three colors, simple and dignified.

And there are earrings! For they are assuming a position of importance which they have not enjoyed for a long, long time. In fact, one almost must have earrings. They may be found in countless varieties for every occasion. Many are simple drops in color or in jet or pearl. Other more elaborate designs are developed from jet and diamonds or diamonds and pearls. The more fantastic ones are some times in combinations of jade and silver, very elaborate and quite stunning if one has the semi-oriental type of face which such earrings require.

Purchases may be sent out either cash, by check or C.O.D.

THE world is so full of a number of things." How true it is of that endless array of articles known as accessories, so important to the costume of milady. Bags, parasols, fans, gloves, almost innumerable bits of jewelry. A wise choice of one of these apparently unimportant items will often make an attractive costume of an otherwise drab affair. And approved styles change quite as often as the length of a skirt or the width of a sleeve.

A lovely fan is of gold lace in an odd, elongated shape, a charming addition to any evening gown. It is of that happy variety which will harmonize with almost any color or fabric.

Some of the beaded bags are of a small flat envelope shape, in designs of stripes, diamonds or other geometric patterns, usually in two or three colors, simple and dignified.

And there are earrings! For they are assuming a position of importance which they have not enjoyed for a long, long time. In fact, one almost must have earrings. They may be found in countless varieties for every occasion. Many are simple drops in color or in jet or pearl. Other more elaborate designs are developed from jet and diamonds or diamonds and pearls. The more fantastic ones are some times in combinations of jade and silver, very elaborate and quite stunning if one has the semi-oriental type of face which such earrings require.