Fullerton, Neb., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—
In the reports of base ball results in a recent paper. Central City, in reporting the result of a game between Fullerton and Central City, stated that it forfeited the game to Fullerton by reason of a decision by Fullerton's umpire when he called a foul ball a fair ball, thus permitting three base runners to score.

In contradocting that statement it is only necessary to state the play as it actually occurred:

With three men on bases, the batter bit a high fly between the home plate and the pitcher. Both catcher and pitcher went after the ball and both stopped Just short of where it was to fall, and as it neared the ground the catcher in attempting to men ran in with a close decision on the second man, and while the Central City, knowing that it was at this time that some one mentioned the fact that the ball had rolled to foul ground, and Central City, knowing that it was a foul, refused to play unless the umptre would agree with them. This we refused to do, and they left the ground, forfeiting the game to Fullerton, 3 to 6.

Ken Reed, John Morris, Foys Porter and L. W. Young, playing in a four-some, did some of the most expert playing that the caddles have witnessed for some time. Morris, shooting 11 straight pars, failed to gain a cent on syndicates, so nifty was the shooting of Foye Porter, who went around in 77. It took John 79 taps to reach the 18 holes.

New York, Aug. 22.—Excellent pitching by Pertica and home runs by McHenry and Hornsby enabled St. Louis to defeat New York to-day, 6 to 0. Pertica allowed the Giants three hits. McHenry's drive was made in the first inning with two on base and Hornsby's in the fifth with one on. Score:

They're both perfectly happy now.

E. A. Schurman, R. E. Wilcox, H. Allen, J. Hussie and J. A. Gilmore are getting so used to the eccentricties of one and other that they can play in a perfectly peaceful foursome now.

But D. M. Edgerly, H. G. Kelly, J.
K. Morris and R. W. Hayward make up the real healthy gang when it comes to foursomes. A foursome, Willie Wotherspoon soliloquizes, is a bunch of playpers who yodel the word "Fore," four at
