Frank Okrie Southpaws Buffaloes to 6 to 4 Victory Over Frank Isbell's League-Leading Wichita Witches In First Game of Series-Dcuble-Header Today

Okrie had good control of his underhand shoots throughout the nine innings, and had plenty of speed, too. The Witches collected nine scattered blows, and hit a flock of other balls on the nose, but right out where Buffaloes were grazing. Isbell's hirelings opened fire several times, especially in the sixth, seventh and eighth, but Okrie failed to retreat under the light bombardment.

Paul Musser, one of "Baldy" Isbell's best hurling bets, opposed Okrie at the start of the contest, bus after four runs and the same number of blows, two of these being circuit clouts, he was forced to flash the S. O. S. in order to keep the locals from knocking the horschide to all corners of East Omaha.
