Stockholders of N.-S.-F. Take Up Reorganization

Attorney Courtright Presents New Scheme to Pol Fremont Interests-Location of Headquarters Not Determined.

Fremont, Neb., Aug. 27 .- Resident stockholders of the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company met again last evening in conference with Attorney W. J. Courtright, who returned from Chicago with a different proposition than the plan sent out a few d ago from the committee which has undertaken the reorganization of the company in Chicago.

The important parts of the new program outlined yesterday evening before the stockholders contemplates a reduction of time on options from five to three years by a slight concession in price on the part of the stockholders who are parties to the agreement, and placing the great bulk of Fremont holdings, including those held by Frank Fowler and members of his family, into one pot.

All parties included in this agree-ment are treated alike. Either every one will sell his stock or none will be sold at all. All stock that comes under this agreement will be held in Omaha and will not leave Ne-

The total amount of stock to come der this agreement is limited to 10,000 shares, or $1,000,000. More than three-fourths of this

Ultimatum Sent To Ireland When Plan Is Rejected

Lloyd George Says Government Cannot Continue Mere Exchange of Notes, In Reply to De Valera.

By The Associated Press. London, Aug. 27.—David Lleyd George, British prime minister, today sent a prompt rejoinder to the letter of Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish republic, which reected the British government terms or peace in Ireland.

The premier's note constituted a firm reiteration of the government's former stand, that Ireland could not be permitted to withdraw from the

Mr. Lloyd George, in concluding his note, still held open the door for further negotiations with Mr. De Valera and his colleagues if they are prepared to examine how far the government's consideration "can be reconciled with the aspirations you represent." He declared, however, that the government "could not pro-ong a mere exchange of notes." A hopeful aspect of the situation as reviewed in London political cir-cles is that neither Mr. De Valera nor Mr. Lloyd George has yet closed the door on the negotiations,
