

Youth Must Dig Post Holes and Fill Them Again

That's Sentence Meeted Out To Lad Who Took Newly Wed Young Woman Riding.

Ordinarily, when a young man takes two young women out for an automobile ride, and one of the women is the newly wed wife of another man, and the young man purchases five bottles of beer and a bottle of wine, and the young man endeavors to have the young women imbibe to excess, the young man's intentions are not altogether honorable, according to Judge Willis G. Sears' statement in juvenile court Saturday morning.

The judge was addressing Nathan Kaplan, 16, of 2111 Nicholson street, when he made this observation. The judge announced that Kaplan was guilty of delinquency and he committed the youth to Riverview home at hard labor until further notice.

Dig Post Hole.

In announcing the finding, Judge Sears said: "I will send you to Riverview home and you will work there until your ideas are revised. You will dig post holes and then fill them in again if they can't find something else for you to do. Find your way to Riverview home as quickly as possible. An officer will not go with you. Run away if you wish."

Stocks Up on Beer.

Kaplan was charged with escorting Rose Kohberg, 16, of 2111 Nicholson street, in company with Clare Thompson, a week ago Friday night on an automobile ride in the Kaplan car. The testimony was that Kaplan went to Thirty-ninth and Y streets, where he stocked up with beer and wine.

Senate Hearings on Tariff Bill Delayed Until September 5

Washington, Aug. 27.—Consideration of the tax bill by the senate finance committee will be delayed until about September 5. This was indicated by Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee, after it became apparent that the tariff hearings are progressing more slowly than anticipated.

Senator Penrose said that the witnesses on the metal, wood, sugar and agricultural schedules of the tariff bill will keep the committee engaged through next Thursday and possibly for an additional day or two. This will mean, he said, that it will be impossible to take up the tax bill until the beginning of the following week. Under this program the committee will have two weeks and a half in which to consider the tax bill before congress reconvenes.

Officers Confiscate Still, Moonshiners Steal It Back

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Aug. 27.—Turn about is fair play. Stoddard county officers have been defied by persons who believe that axiom. The officers confiscated a large copper still from the Ozark hills. The booze-brewing paraphernalia was too bulky for entrance into the jail building. It was placed on the porch of the "hoosegow."

Quite peeved, the officers are searching for the parties who stole it.

Munich Radicals In Riot Against Profiteering

Demonstration Participated in by 40,000 Said to Have Been Aimed at Premier and Police Head.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Demonstrations in Munich against high prices and alleged reactionary methods of the Bavarian authorities, participated in last night by 40,000 people, are announced in messages from Munich today. One man was killed and one wounded in the process of dispersing the demonstrators, which was effected by the police and soldiers without serious trouble. The demonstration is described as being aimed in particular at Premier Kahr and Chief of Police Pöchner.

When first news that the demonstration was brewing reached Berlin fear was expressed that the Bavarian government faced a serious crisis, as the radical parties are well organized and reported to be in a determined mood. The authorities had forbidden the demonstration.

Here in Berlin 7,000 workmen organized a procession yesterday and marched to Brandenburg, where former War Minister von Stein had been announced to speak under the auspices of the Nationalist ex-Soldiers' association. The workmen occupied the building in which the speech was to have been delivered and General von Stein left Brandenburg without delivering his address.

Mary Gives Recipe For Keeping Young; Happiness Secret

New York, Aug. 27.—"I'm never going to grow old," said Mary Pickford in her suite at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton. "Somebody asked me the other day what I did to keep my legs looking like a little girl's. I guess the good Lord must have known I was going to act little girls' parts when he gave them to me, because I don't do anything."
"I'm going to take my hat off," she said, tossing it into the corner and showing the familiar golden hair. "I was just going out to buy a new hat when you caught me. I feel like a farmer coming to New York in all my old clothes."
Happiness is the secret to Mary Pickford's youth, she said. She doesn't have to do anything about her legs, but to keep her face young she must keep happy. "You have to be happy like a little girl and think like a little girl," she said. And she and Douglas Fairbanks are very happy, she said.

Failure of Bank Spoiled Deal for Fake Bond Gang

Lieutenant for French on Way to Cash Checks When Crash of Trust Company Came.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—How Charles W. French, "king of swindlers," kept a constant stream of kited checks floating between banks in five cities and how the failure of Warren C. Spurgin's Michigan Avenue Trust company spoiled a million dollar deal for the French gang was discovered by federal authorities. The revelations were contained in documents taken from Rudolph E. Kohn, head of the American Rubber company, a "mushroom" corporation which had its birth in a dingy raincoat shop on East Sixty-third street. The documents included another $500,000 in "air castle securities."

Among the documents were a complete file of letters and telegrams from French to Kohn and vice versa from May 27 until August 12 of the present year. The letters will be used to prove that Kohn and French both knew that their transactions were illegal—through them all runs a streak of grim humor at the "outwitting" of the authorities.

Kohn was on his way to Spurgin's bank with $12,000 in checks when the bank was closed. Other checks drawn against this paper by French were sent back to Dayton and French was compelled to make good.

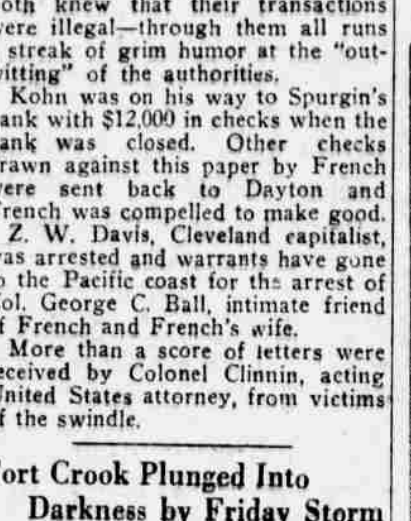

Z. W. Davis, Cleveland capitalist, was arrested and warrants have gone to the Pacific coast for the arrest of Col. George C. Ball, intimate friend of French and French's wife.

More than a score of letters were received by Colonel Clinin, acting United States attorney, from victims of the swindle.

Senator France Is Back From Russia

Is Firmly Convinced U. S. Should Open Diplomatic Relations.

New York, Aug. 27.—Senator France of Maryland, who returned Friday on the steamship Rotterdam, after visiting Russia, said he was firmly convinced that this country should open trade and diplomatic relations with Russia.

He declared that there was little communism in Russia, the "constructive party" of which Lenin is the head having forced the abandonment of extreme Marxian theories and restored sound capitalistic policies. As to trade the senator said the United States should not be alarmed over a relationship "which obviously holds no terrors for Great Britain and Germany."
