

Fire Warden Asks Co-Operation in Annual Message

Warning Issued as Schools Open to Make Sure Every Hazard Has Been Removed.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—Pursuant to the approaching opening of the Nebraska state schools and colleges, C. E. Hartford, state fire marshal, today issued the following proclamation suggesting the careful study of fire prevention in the schools.

"In a few days the schools of Nebraska will be opened and every school room will be occupied by the children of our state. Those who are charged with the responsibility of the care of these children should be sure that everything has been done to insure their safety. Be sure that every fire hazard has been removed; that the heating plant in each building is properly installed and in correct repair; that approved fire extinguishers have been installed when and where needed; that the installation of the electrical wiring has been thoroughly inspected and that same is in good condition, and that exits and fire escapes are in proper shape.

"Each year a great many of our school houses in Nebraska burn. Don't let it be said that any school house burns, or a child loses its life, as a result of your neglect or inattention.

"Fire drills are extremely important and should be held at least twice a month, but perfection of drilling is of little value if fire exits are omitted or improperly designed, or if doors are locked or do not open outward. All doors to school buildings should open outward and should be equipped with panic release bar latches.

Janitors Cautioned. "The janitor is an important factor in the prevention of fires and should be made thoroughly acquainted with the vital need of careful house-keeping.

"It should be remembered that the degree of attention given to fire protection in the school buildings themselves will to a large extent determine the importance of fire protection in the estimation of the child.

"Let each and every citizen of the state use his endeavors to reduce the fire waste which visits our state each year."

Plans for Advancing $1,000,000,000 in Farm Credits Completed

Washington, Sept. 6.—Preparations for advancing upwards of $1,000,000,000 in agricultural and live stock credits under recent legislation have virtually been completed by the war finance corporation, officials said tonight. The corporation probably will be ready within a week or so to function under its enlarged powers designed to afford needed credit relief to the farmers, it was said.

To expedite the advances, executive committees are being formed in agricultural and stock raising sections and will attend to preliminary details of applications, making the necessary investigations and determining the adequacy of securities offered.

The corporation's policy for financing advances, officials asserted, has not yet been definitely decided, but it is believed little of the $400,000,000 balance with the treasury will be used for agricultural credits. Demands may be made on the treasury to make the first loans, officials declared, but when the volume of needed credits can be gauged, it is believed the corporation will begin issuing.

Jury to Probe Charges Against Sidney Officers

Special Investigation Ordered By District Court Judges at Request of County Attorney.

Lincoln, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Grand jury investigation of alleged mistreatment of transients at Sidney, Neb., will be launched shortly, according to a letter received today to Governor McKelvie from A. E. Warren, county attorney of Cheyenne county. The district court, he says, has consented to call a jury.

The principal charge is against a Union Pacific watchman, who, it is declared, attacked a man bumming a ride on a freight train, who proved later to be a member of the American Legion. Five reports, according to Warren, were that the man was nearly killed, but this has proved to be untrue, the letter states.

Warren tells the governor that this watchman has been placed under arrest and is out on bond. He commends the governor for refusing to take any action on complaints sent to his office, stating that the officials of Cheyenne county are ready, willing and able to handle the affair themselves.

"So far, there never has been brought a single complaint to this office regarding the action of police officers in this county," Warren states.

Harlan, Ia., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—After being on the district court docket for months, the charges of manslaughter against Architect Chubb and Contractor Hansen, designer and builder of the Harlan High school building, growing out of the accidental death of a school boy, Leonard Merritt, have been dropped. The boy was almost instantly killed when hit by a falling cornice as he was entering the building. The grand jury indicted the architect and contractor for manslaughter on the ground they were negligent in the designing and construction of the building. Numerous delays were effected by attorneys for the defendants and now the case is dropped entirely.

Retail Profiteers Are Blocking Return To Normalcy, Says Bryan

Chicago, Sept. 6.—W. J. Bryan branded retail profiteers as the chief obstacle in the way of the country's return to normalcy in a speech Monday at a mass meeting under the auspices of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

He said that the fault was not with labor, which was willing to do its share in effecting a readjustment, but with the men who perpetrated the inflation of living prices, making it impossible for the working classes to live on reduced wages.

"Labor's chief difficulty in readjustment," he said, "is in the fact that retail prices have not come down as they should. This makes readjustment impossible. It is difficult to reduce wages while living expenses remain at wartime levels. Woolen goods are now selling at retail 100 per cent above the price they were before the war."

Madam Lyra Corsets—"The Beauty Which Endures"

Virge Harrison, an acknowledged authority of art, has said: "The beauty which is to endure must be sane and wholesome, because the human race is sound at heart and can be counted upon in the long run to reject anything that is unhealthful or decadent."

Proper Corsetry Governed by These Fundamental Laws

When once a woman understands fitness, violent contrasts and eccentricities of fashion are distasteful to her and she will unerringly corset herself in becoming good taste.

She will understand corsetry as a very personal problem, necessitating the careful selection of a garment that follows and refines the natural lines of the figure, while diminishing and hiding its disharmonies with those faultless proportions to which nothing could be added or removed and leave the form better or equally good. And this graceful corsetry which Madam Lyra artistry introduced recognizes as many types of feminine beauty as there are types of feminine figures. Corsets designed for your figure will hold their original shape for a time beyond the life of the average corset. Madame Lyra corsetry is offered as a service to those women who are seeking true beauty. Individual attention given in our corset department. That Madam Lyra corsets are consistently priced within the reach of every woman is but another evidence of our desire to serve you.
