14 Mingo Miners Again on Trial For 1920 Battle

Names of Sid Hatfield and Ed Chambers, Recently Murdered, Omitted From List of Defendants.

Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Two names that figured prominently early this year in one of Mingo county's most protracted circuit court cases—those of Sid Hatfield and Ed Chambers—were omitted today when the roll of defendants was called at the opening of the second trial of a group of men from Matoon, charged with complicity in the killing of seven private detectives in that town May 19, 1920.

Hatfield and Chambers were shot and killed a few weeks ago on the McDowell county court house steps at Welch. In connection with their deaths three men, including C. E. Lively, principal witness for the prosecution in the first Matoon case, were arrested and held in $10,000 bail each.

Today 14 men went to trial on an indictment charging complicity in the killing of W. J. Ferguson, one of the private assassins. They are Reese and Hallie Chambers, Arch Williams, Fred Burgraff, Doug and Ben Mounts, William Bowser Coleman, William Bowman, James and Clark Overstreet, Vanaley and Lee Coier, Jess Boyd and Charles Kiser.

The defendants in the first trial were acquitted. Maj. Tom Davis, Governor Morgan's personal representative in the Mingo county case, has announced that state forces will control the situation around the court house during the trials.

Sinn Fein Invited To Inverness

De Valera Asked to Send Delegates to Meet British Cabinet in Scotland on September 20.

By The Associated Press. London, Sept. 8.—The British cabinet has invited Mr. De Valera to send delegates to a conference with the cabinet ministers at Inverness on September 20, according to the Daily Mail's Inverness correspondent, who adds:

"Only one condition is imposed, namely, the understanding that Ireland must remain within the empire." Decision Reached.

Inverness, Scotland, Sept. 7.—A decision which may mean peace or war with Ireland was taken by the British cabinet at an all-important meeting today. The government's invitation to Sinn Fein, Irish republican leader, unanimously approved by the ministers, is being carried by Robert C. Barton, the Sinn Fein courier who brought the Dail Eireann's message to Premier Lloyd George and who was brought into the council chamber while the council was in session.

The nature of the government's decision has not been made known, but it is not necessary to await its publication tomorrow to realize an important step forward has been taken.

Directly after the ministers had reached their decision came the announcement that "a committee consisting of the ministers now in Scotland has been appointed with full powers to deal with the situation the moment Mr. De Valera's answer arrives."

The committee comprises the premier, Austen Chamberlain, Earl Curzon, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Winston Spencer Churchill, Edward Shortt, Robert Munroe, Lord Birkenhead, Sir Hamar Greenwood and Sir Robert Stevenson Horne.

This is taken to mean that the government has appointed the committee of ministers to meet the Irish plenipotentiaries, should Mr. De Valera's reply be accepted. It is contended that if, in the opinion of the cabinet, a rupture was likely to follow today's decision, it would hardly be necessary to appoint a cabinet committee.

Hope to Avoid Break. Dublin, Sept. 7.—Activity is apparent in moderate Irish circles to prevent a rupture of negotiations between the dominion league, headed by the late Premier Lloyd George's offer is definitely ascertained.

Hard Fight Expected On Tax Bill

Democrats Line Up Against Retroactive Repeal of Excess Profits Levy and Cut in Surtax.

Final Outcome in Doubt

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, Sept. 7.—There will be a desperate battle fought in the senate over retroactive repeal of the excess profits tax and the reduction of the maximum income surtax from 65 to 52 per cent.

The democrats are nearly unanimously opposed to these proposals and lining up with them there will be just enough republicans to make the contest exceedingly close.

Just how close it is, already is indicated by the fact that Chairman Penrose is counting on a majority of only one in the senate finance committee to approve an amendment making the repeal of the excess profits tax and the reduction of surtaxes effective January 1, 1921, instead of January 1, 1922, as provided in the house bill.

President Harding insists upon fulfillment of republican campaign promises that the excess profits tax and the reduction of surtaxes be repealed retroactively.

The opposition contends that business and industry already has made prices on a basis of recouping themselves for prospective 1921 excess profits taxes, thus passing on to the consumer a tax which will be pocketed by capital if the government fails to collect it.

The reduction of surtaxes would affect about 5,000 persons with an aggregate net income of about $1,200,000,000 in which the tax yield is now about $600,000,000, but would be only about $300,000,000 short of the sum the government must actually have, unless a deficiency is to be created; that with the excess profits tax repealed and the higher brackets of the individual income surtax reduced.
