

Lincoln County Plans Big Fair

Present Entries Assure $100,000 Exhibition of Pure-Bred Live Stock.

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The Lincoln County Agricultural society will have one of the best fairs in the history of the organization September 20-23.

According to present indications the society has made special plans to care for auto tourists with free camping space on the grounds. Entries already in assure a $100,000 exhibition of pure-bred stock. The fair has been enlarged greatly this year and of the 75 departments the live stock has shown the greatest gain. An elaborate racing card has been arranged. The fair is on the "Buffalo Bill Circuit," with Lexington and Julesburg. The track is in the best of shape and over 100 well-matched horses have been entered. Ten vaudeville acts have been obtained to fill out the program. The days of the old west have not been forgotten by the Buffalo

Mayor Has His Son Arrested for Speeding

Hudson, S. D., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Mayor Bert Eli, of Hudson, is going to uphold the law regardless of who the offenders are. He caused the arrest of his own son for an infraction of the speed laws. His son, Earnest, in his car, was racing with Oscar Johnson, who was in his racer, and the mayor promptly instructed the marshal to arrest them. The justice was out of town at the time, and the mayor said he would change of venue to Justice Tuller's court, taking a continuance until the next day, when they each paid a fine for reckless driving.

Aurora Schools Have Big Attendance at Opening
Aurora, Neb., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—School began in Aurora with the high school crowded and every room in the grades is well filled. Aurora has 28 teachers besides Superintendent J. A. Doramus.

Farmer Fortifies Watermelon Patch Against Raiders

Parker, S. D., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—A "fortified" melon patch is one of the novelties of this vicinity. It is located about seven miles northwest of this city and is owned by the May brothers. The brothers have taken due precautions to protect their property from thieves and vandals by stationing guardsmen about the patch, who take turns at night in watching for the would-be raiders. In the patch is a large tepee, well supplied with home necessities and comforts for sleeping and eating—fitted up for one or more guardsmen. Near the tepee is a tall tower, and upon this tower is mounted a big, glaring spotlight that sweeps the melon patch and the roads and farms adjoining for a distance of one or more miles. At night, oftentimes, the spotlight sweeps the country, flaring into the windows, lighting up the melon patch landscape and roads, in search of some daring marauder who has ventured to annex some melons. The guards are well supplied with firearms, and farmers living in this vicinity claim that during the night shots frequently are to be heard, as the guards fire upon some suspicious moving object.

Three Motor Bandits Operating in Lincoln

Lincoln, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Three masked men in a motor car are terrorizing Lincoln citizens by a series of hold-ups of citizens in motor cars in the outskirts of the city. The favorite plan of the highway men, according to the police, is to hold-up their victims and then tamper with the mechanism of the machine so as to delay reports to the police.

Helping the Associated Charities
For the Associated Charities dinner, Luncheon and Midnight Revue to be given Sept. 15 at the Brandeis Stores Restaurants, 10th floor, arrangements were made for 1,000 guests. Already 1,000 tickets have been sold. Mr. Brandeis has increased the number of seats to 1,200. There are therefore, yet available about 200 tickets. These cost $5 each—every dollar of which goes to the Associated Charities. All expenses of the dinner and entertainment on the night of September 15th are, through the order of Mr. George Brandeis, borne by J. L. Brandeis and Sons. Although the proceeds from this dinner go to a most worthy charity, the purchase of one of these $5 tickets will not be "charity." It will be money paid for one of the best dinners and finest entertainments ever given in this city. This means $5,000 for the Associated Charities. Money or check should be sent to Mrs. J. J. McMullen, 3817 Dewey Ave., treasurer of the Dinner-Dance Committee. Applications for more reservations will be received by Mrs. McMullen also. (Harney 1222.) Tickets may also be procured at Brandeis Stores, Main Floor, at Matthews Book Shop, 1620 Harney St., and at Beaton's Drug Store, 15th and Farnam Sts. From 11 to 2 on Friday, September 16, and Saturday, September 17, the Associated Charities will serve lunch in these beautiful restaurants.
