

Credit For Farmer By New Law

Billion Dollars Available to Make Substantial Advances To Live Stock and Agricultural Interests.

Thomas Chairman Here

Preliminary plans for the operation of the War Finance corporation in Nebraska were announced last night.

It is the intention of the War Finance corporation to make liberal and substantial advances to the live stock and agricultural interests of the entire country, but at the same time adhere to sound business principles.

One of the greatest benefits to be derived from the functioning of the corporation will be the carrying over of breeding stock, which has brought about quite a strain on the banks of this district.

Three-Year Loans. The recent amendment to the War Finance corporation law limits the carrying of loans for a time not exceeding three years from the date on which the loan was made originally.

It is said that the operation of the corporation will provide for loans on warehouse receipts on grain and other agricultural products.

Eugene Meyer, jr., managing director of the corporation, who now is making a survey of the country, declared in Minneapolis last Saturday: "Confidence in the government is fast restored in the south, due in part, at least, to our extension of credits there for the cotton crop."

Reorganize Grain Firm At Fremont

Articles of Incorporation of "Nye - Schneider - Jenks" Company Set Stock at $4,000,000.

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The articles of incorporation for the Nye-Schneider-Jenks company have been filed here with the Dodge county clerk.

These are filed as the reorganization of the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company, which recently passed through a stormy financial sea.

The articles are filed by Edwin N. Mitchell, Isaac E. Congdon and Frank D. Williams. Mitchell is a Lincoln man, recently elected president of the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company when stockholders and creditors permitted reorganization only under that provision.

May Borrow Money. The new name of the concern is that which it bore prior to becoming the Nye-Schneider-Fowler company. Under the purposes of organization listed in the articles, the firm may borrow money in the ordinary course of business procedure and must execute and deliver all evidences of indebtedness. Loans may be secured through personal pledges of property or on mortgages.

40,000 Shares

Capital stock is set at $4,000,000 to be divided into 40,000 shares at $100 per share par value. At least 20,000 shares of the capital stock must be subscribed for and issued in such amounts and at such times as the board of directors may name. All stock must be fully paid, non-assessable, either in money or property equivalent to the par value of the stock.

Heaviest indebtedness cannot exceed two-thirds of the capital stock. The company comes into existence September 12, under the articles filed, and terminates September 12, 1971, or in 50 years.

Big Silk Matilla Brought to N. Y. For Drop Curtain

New York, Sept. 14.—A drop curtain and costumes valued at $100,000, said by customs officials to be the most gorgeous needle work in their experience, were brought to New York today on the Spanish liner Montserrat from Barcelona and Cadiz.

The curtain and costumes are to be used in the New York production of the Spanish opera, "El Gato Montés," literally "The Wild Cat," which has had a run of six years in Madrid and other Spanish cities. Manuel Pineda, who will sing the leading role here, was a passenger.

The curtain is 35 by 50 feet and is, in reality, an enormous embroidered silk matilla. It and the costumes were made in the Royal Fabric works at Madrid, a government institution in which all the costumes of the Spanish court are made.

Murder Verdict Asked by State In Morris Trial

Witnesses Testify of Actions Of Man Whose Wife's Body Was Dragged by Saddle Rope on Horse.

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The trial of William Morris, charged with the death of his wife April 10, 1921, has been in progress at Tryon for a week and has attracted the attention of practically all residents of sparsely settled McPherson county.

Following the introduction of its evidence, the state rested at noon today and began argument for a direct verdict of murder.

Mrs. Morris was found dead in a pasture with her foot caught in the middle rope of a horse she had apparently been riding. The story told by Morris was that his wife had gone to the pasture for the cows, the horse she was riding became frightened, she was unseated and in falling her foot caught in the saddle rope and she was dragged to death.

Body Disinterred. After interment neighbors became suspicious that Mrs. Morris had not really died, by her husband's suspicion being accentuated by remarks Morris had made which indicated that he designed to get rid of his wife.

A conference was held with George N. Gibbs of North Platte, county attorney for McPherson county. The appointments approved followed: Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein and foreign minister in the Dail cabinet, chairman.

Michael Collins, finance minister. Robert C. Barton, one of the leading figures in the preliminary negotiations.

Eamon J. Duggan, Sinn Fein minister of parliament. George G. Duffey, who has acted as representative of the Sinn Fein abroad.

The Dail's official bulletin announcing approval of the five plenipotentiaries says this was done "in view of a possible conference with representatives of the British government."

The Dail plenipotentiaries, it was explained, were not appointed to go to Inverness in response to the prime minister's invitation, but have been chosen to carry on possible negotiations which may or may not follow the receipt by Mr. Lloyd George of the Dail cabinet's reply.

Spanish War Veterans Go On Record Against Ku Klux. Minneapolis, Sept. 14.—When today's session of the annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans opened the report of the resolutions committee was presented.

The committee charged that "British propaganda" was evident in revised editions of a history used in the public schools. The report stated that the book omits historical facts, such as the Boston tea party, Lexington and Bunkerhill that it eulogizes Benedict Arnold and sacrifices historical facts in favor of international relations between the United States and Great Britain.

Other resolutions condemn the Ku Klux Klan and demanded support of all former service men to legislation making profiteering in time of war a felony.

New York Protests Human Auction

Plans to Repeat Boston Stunt. Various Organizations Decried.

New York, Sept. 14.—Plans of Urbaine Ledoux to repeat here the "auctions" of unemployed which he staged on the Boston Commons, met with opposition today from various organizations interested in the welfare of the jobless. Ledoux announced he would hold his first auction here next Monday.

"Such an exhibition would only make trouble and would accomplish no useful purpose," said Bird Coler, commissioner of public welfare and head of the mayor's committee on unemployment.

Hugo Frayne of the American Federation of Labor declared labor was opposed to the auctions and that Ledoux would get "a warm reception" if he attempted to hold them here.

James F. Kiernan, department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, also joined in the protest.

Coroner's Jury Holds Arbuckle

Manslaughter Verdict Fourth Charge in Week Against Film Star; Girl's Death Due to Peritonitis.

Investigation Is Urged

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—For the fourth time within a week Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle was formally held today to be criminally responsible for the death of Miss Virginia Rappé, coroner's inquest into Miss Rappé's death returned a charge of manslaughter against him. The verdict read:

"We, the coroner's jury, find that the said Virginia Rappé, aged 25, single, residing in Los Angeles, came to her death on September 9 at the Wakefield sanitarium from a ruptured organ, contributing cause, peritonitis.

"And we further find that said Virginia Rappé came to her death from peritonitis caused by the application of some force which, from the evidence submitted, was applied by one Roscoe Arbuckle.

Charged With Manslaughter. "We, the undersigned jurors, therefore charge the said Roscoe Arbuckle with the crime of manslaughter.

"We, the undersigned jurors recommend that the district attorney, chief of police, grand jury and prohibition officers take steps to prevent a further occurrence of affairs such as the one which caused this young woman's death, so that the San Francisco will not be made the rendezvous of the debauchee and the gangster."

Ben Boas, one of the nine jurors, returned a minority verdict in which he said that Miss Rappé's fatal injuries were caused by the application of some force "but I am unable to say who applied it."

Two Murder Charges. Two charges of murder, one preferred by the police and the other by Mrs. Bambina Maude Delmont, friend of Miss Rappé, and two charges of manslaughter, one returned by the grand jury and the other by the coroner's jury, rest against Arbuckle.

The coroner's jury was out for more than three hours, after an examination of the witnesses which started last Monday.

Arbuckle, sensing the approach of a verdict today, was intensely nervous throughout most of the session, twisting and clutching his fingers and flinching deeply at times. The round, boyish face was solemn and at times sulky. Although apparently deeply moved, he accepted the verdict with an attempt at composure and resignation.

Other Developments. The verdict was the outstanding event of the Arbuckle case today. Other developments were: The starting of an investigation by Robert R. McCormack, assistant
