Many New Cases Among War Vets Asking U.S. Aid

Disabled Ex-Service Men Applying for Compensation and Adjusted Insurance at Army Building.

Half the applications of ex-service men appearing before the "cleanup squad" at the Army building for compensation and adjusted insurance are new cases, according to a survey of the reports.

Out of 90 cases reported Tues-day 50 were new claims, according to Miss Florence Barr of Omaha, one of the members of the "squad." "Many ex-service men find their injuries are more serious than they first thought," declared Miss Barr. A good many of the applicants are also seeking increased compensa

Two disabled veterans of the world war appeared before the board yesterday with legs shot off. Both sought adjustment of insurance

One of them, Cyril R. James, 4515 Grand avenue, who lost his right leg at Chateau-Thierry is taking vocational training at Boyles college and at the Union Pacific headquarters. None of the cases is adjusted immediately by the "clean-up squad." They are merely examined by the board and forwarded to Washington for rating as to whether an applicant is entitled to increased compensation or adjusted insurance.

The "clean-up squad" will remain at the Army building until all cases in Douglas, Washington and Sarpy counties are disposed of. Dr. Ed-ward Bogard of St. Louis is in charge, assisted by Dr. J. F. Allen of Omaha.

Des Moines Minister Ousted as Kleagle Of Minnesota Klan

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Rev. Otis L. Spurgeon of Des Moines, formerly king kleagle of the Ku Klux Klan of Minnesota, plans to bring legal action against the imperial wizard of the Klan and his Klansmen for services in the Twin Cities. The pastor alleges that he was ousted as king kleagle without any offer of reimbursement for the organization work he had done.
