

South Side Body of Slain Man Identified By His Sister

Mrs. Goldie Hendricks Gives Police Clues That May Solve Mystery of Murder of William E. Smith.

Mrs. Goldie Hendricks, sister of William E. Smith, 835 South Twenty-sixth street, whose decomposed body was found Sunday morning, with his head severed from the body, under a pile of weeds alongside the right-of-way of the Missouri Pacific railroad tracks three blocks north of the L street viaduct, arrived at the city yesterday from her home in Salt Lake.

Captain of Police John E. Briggs said that Mrs. Hendricks had given the police several valuable clues as to the slayer of her brother and that she said her brother's trunk had been rifled. Mr. Hendricks also told Captain Briggs that he had a member of the law standing of the Knights and Ladies of Security Benefit association and his life was insured for $1,000.

Wayward Girls Taken in Custody Two Misses Who Left Home Must Explain Their Conduct in Court.

Two Omaha girls, who were reported missing from their homes, turned up yesterday afternoon and fell into the clutches of the juvenile court officials. Mrs. Jack Wilson, 5805 South Fifteenth street, appealed to South police Tuesday to justly search for her daughter, Alice M. Wilson, 15, who, said, had dropped from sight after leaving home to go for an automobile ride with a young man.

South Side Brevities

John C. Barrett, lawyer, moved his office to Epstein Block. Try Tractor. Buy your plumb and heating. Market 2259, 2601 G St. P. O'Reilly, 2118 S street, was held up by robbers and held for three hours Tuesday night.

Market, Financial and Industrial News of the Day

Live Stock

Table with columns for Receipts, Official Monday, Official Tuesday, Official Wednesday, Official Thursday, Official Friday, Official Saturday, Official Sunday, and Receipts and disposition of live stock at Union stock yards.

Cattle—There was very little change in the market for cattle. Receipts were 2,000 head and made up a very large corn fed cattle. Dressed yearlings and steers were steady.

Sheep—There was very little change in the market for sheep. Receipts were 1,000 head and made up a very large corn fed sheep.

Hogs—There was very little change in the market for hogs. Receipts were 1,000 head and made up a very large corn fed hogs.

The New York Times

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS. Chicago Tribune—The highest and lowest prices for wheat today were made during the last hour of trading. Shortly after midday there were reports of a certain wire house having an Argentine cable which was bullish, and this, together with vague reports of big export sales on the part of the Argentine news were not forthcoming, while the seaboard replied to an inquiry regarding export business that no more was done than yesterday, but reported sales had been higher. This caused longs to spill out and the buying power was lacking because of the elimination of the short interest earlier. The close was 1 1/2c lower.

New York Quotations

Table listing various stock market quotations including High, Low, and Close for various companies and indices.

Chicago Grain

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS. Chicago Tribune—The highest and lowest prices for wheat today were made during the last hour of trading. Shortly after midday there were reports of a certain wire house having an Argentine cable which was bullish, and this, together with vague reports of big export sales on the part of the Argentine news were not forthcoming, while the seaboard replied to an inquiry regarding export business that no more was done than yesterday, but reported sales had been higher.

Omaha Grain

Omaha, Sept. 15. Cash wheat prices today were unchanged. Corn ranged from 1/2 cent to 1 1/2 cents lower. Oats were generally a half cent off. Rye declined a cent and barley was 1/2 cent off. Receipts of wheat were liberal and other grains light. Some of the yellow hard wheat finally sold as much as 2c lower and the market as a whole ranging from unchanged to 1c to 2c off.

Bonds and Notes

Table listing various bond and note market quotations including U.S. Government bonds, municipal bonds, and corporate bonds.

Dog Hill Paragraphs

By George Bingham. Poke Eazley says there would be lots more letters written if it wasn't so much trouble. First a person must get some blank paper and scrimp around until he finds an envelope that hasn't been used. Then he has to see if there is any ink, and after he has poured some water in it and shook it up, he goes out to the children's play house, after the writing pen, and after clearing off a place on the corner of the table to write on, he cannot think of anything to say, after which he borrows two pennies from his wife for a stamp and then goes to the post-office to learn that it is another national holiday.

Burglars Rob Home

Burglars Wednesday night entered the home of T. Towey, 402 North Thirty-eighth street, and stole a mink cape, ivory and jewelry worth $400. Entrance was gained by breaking a window.

A Penniless Old Man

The thought of penniless old age brings a shudder. Nobody can face it. Yet 85% of all who reach the age of 65 are penniless. Start now to escape this bitter experience. A small sum invested in high grade listed stocks and bonds each month will make you independent.

Clab Hancock was at the Tickville depot this week and set his watch by the time table. Copyright, 1921, George Matthew Adams.

Romance in Origin Of Superstitions

By H. IRVING KING. Hearts-Ease and Rattlesnake Masters. A common kind of smartweed—the polygonum persicaria of the botanists—is, in many parts of the United States, called hearts-ease because of the heart-like marking on its leaves and is supposed to be a cure for diseases of the heart. Also there are a considerable number of plants in this country of different species which are known popularly as rattlesnake-masters and supposed

Bank Statement

Table showing the Report of Condition of the First National Bank at Omaha, in the State of Nebraska, at the close of business on September 6, 1921.

Chicago Closing Prices

Table listing closing prices for various commodities in Chicago, including wheat, corn, oats, and soybeans.

Omaha Closing Prices

Table listing closing prices for various commodities in Omaha, including wheat, corn, and oats.

Advertisement for Philip's Big Store, featuring a large '88' logo and text: 'Friday, September 16th, Is -DAY-88-DAY-'. The ad lists various goods and services available at the store.

Bank Statement

Table showing the Report of Condition of the First National Bank at Omaha, in the State of Nebraska, at the close of business on September 6, 1921.